White Law: a Treatise on How to Live White

“Make yourself a better person; make the world a whiter place.”

A sound mind is a precondition of life. To possess a sound mind one must develop it. The seven pairs of rights in the above table are amplified below in terms of their meaning and function in the conduct of a right, white life:

1a) Concentration – ‘concentrate your forces’ – Sun Tzu; without concentration energies are scattered and if energies are scattered no necessary force can be mustered to achieve an objective. This applies in the physical as well as the mental realm, and all deliberate action is a result of deliberation which requires concentration, mental focus. Lack of concentration in life is a vice, its possession the cardinal virtue, as without no effective action can be undergone to fulfill the 14 words. The consequence of a failure to concentrate one’s forces is insanity, the padded cell, or assassination by the kosher lapdogs of J.O.G.

b) Balanced faculties – related to the above is the ethical imperative to create or maintain a holistic consciousness, for ‘thought without action is sterile’ and without healthy instincts and sound intuition (which comprise the ‘common sense’) no amount of intellectualism is adequate to bring into reality a plan of action conceived in the ivory tower removed from an involvement with the nitty gritty of practical life. In order to function in practical life the common sense must be developed to a sufficient degree and not left to stagnate through living a dreamer’s life of intellectual pipedreams. The propensity to be over-analytical/unemotional (left-brained) is ‘male imbalance’, that of being under-analytical/over-emotional is ‘female imbalance’. If the head is to remain in the clouds, the feet must remain on the ground and the eyes directed at the target.

c) Creativity – for all activism one must have a sufficiently plastic mind to adapt themselves to circumstances. This requires creativity. However, one’s creativity must not become overly dogmatic outside of a basic understanding of Natural Law and the ethical imperatives of a White Law, e.g. 88 precepts, 14 words (of David Lane), creativity credo, etc. Adaptation is a creative enterprise and creativity enables effective action as well as providing fulfillment in life especially when directed towards ‘the survival, expansion, and advancement of the white race and the white race alone.

d) Judgment – This is the province of reason, the faculty of discrimination – what J.O.G. wishes to stifle and hamstring through its imposition of egalitarian dogma through the classical conditioning process of the Jews’ media/indoctrination system (public school). To have sound judgment enables one to judge of the consequences of one’s actions. Indeed the faculty of reason (in Immanuel Kant’s ‘Critique of Pure Reason’) is called ‘The Causal Judgment’, the faculty which is the reflective capacity to determine that certain prior states (causes) lead to certain other states (effects), e.g. the crime and poverty in black areas being causally related to their biology and the converse in white areas. Failure to discriminate is to partake of the disease of irrationalism which embodies itself in the political form of liberalism (see 'Universalist Psychopathology' by the author):

'judge thee not' is the vice of White Law and its converse judiciousness is its virtue.

e) Mentality – the above presuppose a certain degree of mental strength and weakness. Mental weakness occurs through the following means: i) failure to cultivate/maintain mental strength (lack of training and employment); ii) genetic defects brought about through a) degenerate lifestyle (alcoholism, drug-ism, poor diet or being of a sub-race, etc.). The cards fate has dealt one must be played to the best of one's ability which is destiny. This mental cultivation should serve the 14 words and not lead to an imbalance of the faculties. This is Mosley's ideal of the 'thought-deed man'. The application of knowledge to a case is wisdom which is virtue. Living life in intellectual cloud cuckoo-land is folly which is vice. To train the mind see the reference section in 'WHITE LAW' under 'Mind'.

f) Mood mode – given the fever pitch of political strife which inevitably entangles the activist and which galvanizes the inactive, how one views himself and the world greatly influences his ability to function within this whistling tea kettle of controversy. All the slanders, vilification, and scapegoating he must endure creates an atmosphere in which depression, anger, and apathy can occur. Negative self-talk or self-understanding is a nail in the coffin of the white race. One cannot love one's own race without loving himself and this is a precondition of effective action (going beyond oneself) as one must be in a state of inner harmony to uphold the truth and defend the right. Self-sacrifice is paramount but self-annihilation ill-conceived is of minimal use to the white race. Value yourself for what you could be and do, not for what you are or have been(see 'Lifestory of a Heterosexual White Male', by the author).

g) Truth – to uphold the truth one must first know the truth. Honesty is virtue except when dealing with enemies and truth is the substance of honesty. Intellectual honesty and being of true heart (making the truth your own) work hand in glove to smash the enemy whose power is based on a foundation of lies and hypocrisy (self-misunderstanding, a failure to practice what one preaches),etc.

In sum the mental qualities which are essential possessions of a healthy member of the white race are: concentration; balanced faculties; creativity; sound judgment; strong mentality; positive mood; honesty amongst allies and to himself.

2) A sound mind does not exist in a vacuum but rather is metaphysically entangled with a sound body – 'kill the body and the head will die'. Thus a sound body must also be developed in tandem with a sound mind. The subsection 'Pflicht Zur Gesundheit (obligation to be healthy)' in the 'WHITE LAW' explains in detail a general program for dynamic health above and beyond that of either burning out the body or undertraining. It purports to be not a mean between two equally false extremes but the capstone in the pyramid of 'Salubrious Living'.

The virtue of a sound body thus lies in neither deficiency (undertraining) of exercise nor of excess (overtraining). It lies in sufficiency and efficiency (most amount of work in the least amount of time) and thus is what is necessary to overcome a condition of untermenscheit (sub-man-ism) and attain the condition of ubermenscheit (superman-ism). General parameters further detailed in 'Pflicht Zur Gesundheit' follow:

C) rest: adequate (proper time, place, way)

D) work: i) right: briefer, intense, hard within training session, and lighter active relaxation outside.

ii) wrong: prolonged, unstressful within session and none outside.

E) diet: food is fuel furnishing one with micro/macro nutrients and energy not a decadent indulgence (food porn):

wrong: gluttony; starvation; omitting any macronutrient below 15 per cent of total calories (e.g. very high (80, 10, 10) or very low (keto) carb diets), excessive protein above 20 per cent of calories. (See the author's 'Hell-th' for examples of extremism).

3) To maintain a sound mind and body (the person), sanitation is key. The subsection of 'WHITE LAW' 'Plicht Zur Gesundheit' ('obligation to be healthy', a creed of the 3rd Reich) amplifies the following general parameters of 'Salubrious Living':

wrong – intoxication (intox): e.g. drug-ism, alcoholism, caffeine, pharmaceuticals, etc.; any external substance not conducive to long-term health or more immediate emergencies (e.g. amphetamines, caffeine in combat, epi-pen for stings, etc.)

right – detoxification (detox): e.g. fasting (water, fruit, etc.), sweating, heliotherapy, etc. (also see the book 'Salubrious Living', Arnold Devries).

Without proper sanitation, i.e. minimal intoxication and optimal detoxification (neither too intense nor too prolonged) the body accumulates toxins within and generates dis-ease states which, without the necessary detoxification methods leads to chronic ill-health and dysfunctionality of the mind, body, and its organ systems resulting in inevitable accelerated aging and premature death.

5) As a useful member of the white race living within the bounds of White Law, adequate and appropriate employment also known as 'work' is the life blood which courses through his veins, the absence of which renders one a corpse whose inevitable fate is a rigor mortis of inactivity and as Mussolini said, 'Inactivity is death'. Thus one either employs one's faculties or they atrophy which results in death.

a) quantity – the proper quantity of proper work amounts to industriousness, its converse to lethargy or sloth and to the above state of a premature death through stagnation. Overwork amounts to drudgery which leads to an inharmonious life and inevitable burnout where work exceeds rest preventing recovery.

b) quality – the quality (proper form) of work is necessary to avoid the above fate also as 'all work and no play makes Jack a dull boy' – improper work being neither fulfilling nor meaningful and thus leading to an inharmonious condition within one's life, a failure to fulfill one's destiny his proper life path. The work one does in fulfillment of the 14 words must be contributory to not be parasitical upon one's own race. Jewish parasitism practiced by many bourgeois white-collar workers (real estate agents, business owners, insurance people, etc.) is anathema to the proper functioning of a healthy society and is a type of work which must be proscribed and condemned through the appropriate means (in many cases the ultimate penalty). Contributory work improves both oneself and one's own kind and creates minimal harm/loss and maximal help/benefit for both the worker and the larger community.

6) Appearance : In conducting oneself in the world and even remaining apart, out of the public eye, one's appearance has a significant influence on his mind, body, and conduct modifying how he is treated by others and how he treats himself (self-esteem, creating one's own reality, etc.). The appearance one has could be dichotomized into the extremes of modern (vice) and traditional (virtue). The former (modern) encompasses such signs and symbols of degeneracy as tattoos, piercings, scarification, superfluous body modifying surgeries, ostentatious, and inharmonious clothing (pink shirts for men, navy blue for women, Day-Glo, etc.); foreign to their purpose, comprised of artificial/synthetic material (nylon, polyester, etc.). The latter (traditional) form of appearance comprises an athletic build without any external adornment or hairstyle which has no functional simplicity; appropriate dress e.g. black at a funeral, white at a wedding, etc. made of natural/organic fibres. However the costume or uniform of the enemy should be adopted when necessary doing any undercover work or when necessary to shift attention from oneself and facilitate one's actions or as a coping mechanism in a work environment, etc. This measure should only be adopted when necessary and not serve as an excuse to fall into a degenerate lifestyle. Self-respect and appearances are inextricably bound together; whatever clothes one wears he should to some extent distance himself from his external appearance and not entirely identify himself therewith.

7) Ethics – without purpose or compass for one's health of mind and body he is merely a healthy marionette on a string held by external – and usually malignant – forces (the mind control of J.O.G., the mass mind of the brain-polluted, etc.). One must 'become a real live boy' and 'choose his destiny' through embodying a sound ethic in mind and body. Only thus can he become an authentic man within the White Law which is the particularization of natural law for a white man just as the particularization of natural law for a wolf is Wolf Law, those conditions under which a wolf thrives (virtue) and in absence of which ceases (vice). Virtue is thus intertwined and bound up with survival and existence which itself necessitates not the corpse life of a pacifistic yogi awaiting death (ahimsa) but the struggle that perpetuates the continuance of oneself and one's own kind in an ever-evolving upward climb. This is thriving in contradiction to mere subsistence which latter leads to entropy inevitably resulting in decay and death. 'All life is struggle', 'peace is death', increase and thriving is moral, extinction (pacifism) is immoral.

Self-denial is virtue only when it conduces to the thriving of the collective and to the Higher Self. This is True Love as opposed to the False Love of universalism which proclaims transient emotionalism (good feelings) as a moral absolute – 'maximize pleasure, minimize pain'. The syllogism(deductive argument) 'all life is struggle', peace is the absence of struggle'; therefore 'peace is death' is the formula for virtue.

Section 2: Others:

One's conduct in dealing with Others, those beyond the Self, the 'not-Self' being either one's own kin (fellow whites) or those not of one's kind (non-whites). Herein kin relations will be discussed with greater emphasis. It is sufficient to say of non-whites that they are tools at best (and typically dysfunctional ones at that) and implements of war against oneself at worst and more usually. Minimizing all contact and relations with non-whites is an essential element in Right White Life and is the cornerstone of White Law, namely racial loyalty in contradistinction to racial treason, the source of all strife within the White Race and which enables the fostering of greater problems and harbours the threat of extinction. The perfidy of the Jew would be of no force and effect if the White Race traitor did not exist, selling out their own people to the Jewish money power for personal profit and egotistical virtue-signaling through supporting non-white invasion ('immigration') and freebies ('foreign aid').

4) Racial Relations : Inclusion of racial foreigners is thus racial treason and both are an egregious wrong. Out-group altruism is a perversion of natural law and thus the subversion of White Law when whites benefit non-whites without greater benefit accruing to themselves as a collective. The exclusion of racial foreigners is virtue as this maintains the purity of the blood through maintaining a homogenous population within a defined territory thereby preventing race-mixing, the death knell of racial preservation from which no return is possible. This fundamental law of blood and soil is the bedrock of a sound society for nothing stable can be built on the shifting sands of folk chaos.

5) Family Relations : Within the greater family (race) there is the smaller family, that of one's own immediate blood kin (mother/wife, father/husband, and children). Without the family unit the greater family cannot exist and without this the smaller family ceases to exist. Indeed as the Jew knows and practices to destroy the family is to destroy society, which is the motive he has to impose his cultural subversion – to strike at the root of society, of the White Racial Tree.

5) Spouse: Without sound breeding (eugenics) based on sound mate selection no family unit can last given an incompatibility of character between husband and wife. Hence the 'SS family creed and mate selection guidelines' should be followed as well as the subsection of 'WHITE LAW', 'Sexual Strategy'. What is wrong in sexual relationships can be seen in the Jews' subversive influence via feminism wherein the woman is established as an untouchable goddess before whom the male must prostrate himself before in order to be 'tolerated' with thinly veiled contempt. Modern/anti-natural sexual roles usurp those of traditional/natural roles and the nuclear family unit is fragmented in a nuclear explosion of normative inversion in the following ways:

5) Unnatural partnerships: aside from feminism/cuckoldry, partnership swapping/adultery is another source of cleavage which splits apart an otherwise natural and loyal union.

6) Where there is no loyalty there can be no stable bond. Whatever children may be born they could be contaminated through telegency (genetic transference) from the mother who has become infected with the DNA of foreign men. Thus the children may be genetically altered to become non-whites themselves and all at the expense of a harlot! This behaviour of course being tolerated by a weak male (cuckold) renders him contributarily liable to his punishment of ostracism from the larger society(See the author's 'Postmodern Love').

Needless to say, another form of unnatural partnership is that of interspecial/racial mixing which is simply taking the guesswork out of the former profligacy and attempting to create bonds of adamant out of baling wire and string as no genetically incompatible types can create anything other than an amalgam of degeneration. Typically it is the morally weak of the whites who cultivate the noxious weed of race-mixing, however many of the overly intellectual elements seek rebellion through this means as a way of virtue-signaling to prop up their anti-natural creed of egalitarianism. The unnatural acts of sodomy and lesbianism are quite obvious forms of impossible union and children raised within this crucible of vice invariably become perpetuators of these anti-family family values and/or are mentally debilitated becoming dysfunctional members of society creating more strife through their behaviour, an outer form of their inner corruption(eg. gender blending).

The right form of white family life is that of racial purity spiraling to 'be as white as you can be' and evolve one's self through oneself in union with another kindred soul for the creation of a being who supercedes both of his forbears as a synthesis of their union. Both monogamy and polygamy fall within the province of natural law and its extension, White Law, natural law applied to and embodied by the white race. Polygamy as the best deserve to produce the most in accordance with eugenic upbreeding and the betterment of the collective.

As with the vice of adultery above so too in the case of pre-marital sex among women as they are the carrier of posterity and thus can be genetically contaminated by the seed of foreign (or any other) mate. For this reason more sophisticated traditional cultures proscribed premarital sexual relations especially for women as a means of maintaining the genetic purity of their kind. This 'stigma of Cain' visited upon offspring by profligate mothers curses their offspring with incompatible DNA which leads to the consequences spoken of in 'Middle Eastern Madness', a treatise on the psychopathology of race-mixed being (Jews and Arabs). See also 'White Shrapnel' for further discussion(both by the author).

The evil fruits of these unions are the hybrid type who serves as the antithesis of those of the pure. A marriage license is not a free pass to license but must be granted through self-discipline else a marriage is not a marriage but merely an economic contract or an evil union. To ensure the proper functioning of a sound union of an ideally racially pure nature, a mutuality of aid and respect must be fostered in accordance with traditional roles neither the inversion of femdom nor the heavy handedness of patriarchal abuse but each unto each according to their natural capacities.

6) Children: Aborticide or 'abortion on demand' outside of the exceptional cases of rape and genetic defect constitutes the vice of 'murder' or killing unjustified by Natural Law. Thus prudent decision making is a necessity in deciding whether a child should be borne well in advance of the process of insemination/gestation/conception. Ideally the union between man and woman should be undergone under pristine natural conditions with the couple both being in optimal health (detoxed and well- nourished) for at least one year and the process undergone under ideal astrological conditions (time of year, alignments, etc.) corresponding to that couple whose compatibility should be well tested in advance. So too the children must be raised in optimal health and natural conditions (see 'Pflicht Zur Gesundheit' subsection of 'WHITE LAW'), parental abandonment often occurs through incompatibilities untested in advance of commitment, leading to psychological/circumstantial problems in the offspring such as poverty and dysfunctionality.

Throughout the development of the child proper pedagogy is necessary not the modern influence of 'pedophilia', the aborted brainchild of liberalism (and the Jewish influence). Pedophilia here means not only the sexual perversion of adultchild sex but the unwarranted emotional outpourings (falsely called 'love') of the modern parent who 'spares the rod and spoils the child' lacking the requisite discipline to ensure the proper development and offspring to 'come out from mother's petticoats' and dependency, ultimately becoming independent and a functional member of white society. Both extremes of parental abandonment and parental coddling are to be eschewed in favour of the tough love of rationally planned parenting. Teaching children the practical wisdom necessary to function in life as well as developing their faculties through learning languages formal (math, sciences) and informal (dead Latin, living: whichever is of practical value). Mental training should be combined with physical to balance the faculties creating the next generation of sound minds in sound bodies, the complete authentic person whose (white) existence corresponds with his (white) essence.

6) Sexual Relations : following from the above family relations of procreation is the role of sex outside of conception and meaning of sexuality for the partners both jointly and separately. Natural relations are virtuous relations and these consist of the white magic of tantra which serves as a means of alchemical transmutation of the lower self into the higher self and proscribes the black magic practice of sodomy, BDSM, and various harmful forms of ritualism (autoerotic asphyxiation, bestiality, injury, etc.). The anti- natural practice of gender electivity/fluidity is also proscribed in White Law. This is fine for other species/races as it undermines their survival which latter is a threat to the white race in its own territory,deviant forms of self-identification always serving to harm oneself. Walking the 'straight and narrow path' of sex/gender correlation is the surest recipe for the fulfillment of the 14 words wherein (physical) men are (psychological) men and (physical) women are (psychological) women. In terms of autoeroticism chronic masturbation is especially harmful in terms of neurology as well as depletion of vital minerals and even the components of nerve tissue (see 'Sexual Strategy' for more details).

7) Property : Hegel's 'property philosophy or right' provides the template for a sound understanding of property ownership and its necessity as a mechanism of self-determination through which the ego (self) can go beyond itself into the external environment (things as 'chattels' or tangible, moveable property and land and buildings attached to the land, 'real estate'). Thus the ego (self) attaches to itself that which is extraneous to itself which yet becomes incorporated into itself reflexively. Thus to violate the property of Others is to violate themselves (an attack upon the king's men is an attack upon the king himself'), and to respect the property of another is to accord them respect.

According to John Locke to mix one's labour with the soil is the necessary condition of ownership de natura. Thus usury – the accumulation of property through interest, creating something from nothing – is a vicious practice as it is not based upon effortful action by an agent who would thereby legitimately acquire or create this title of ownership but is merely theft, the taking of the property of another through exploiting need (loan sharking, mortgages, etc.). Property is a necessity for the fulfillment of a sense of selfhood binding the inner man to the outer world. However limits to property are prescribed by the needs of the members of the community of which one is a part and this is what differentiates property ownership in WHITE LAW and liberalism which latter is boundless and concerns itself only with abstract individuality (possessive individualism – the person being considered only in his economic aspect dirempted from his biological racial nature, ancestral tradition and homeland – blood and soil, race and place). The property owner under national socialism and fascism has regard for the property of the community as a whole (parks, etc.) contributing thereto and using his property to serve the community to the extent that is necessary for its preservation. However the individual's property rights are inalienable outside of those qualifications. No property tax should exist as this violates the absolute rights of property ownership. Also income tax should be abolished as through the establishment of the corporate state, all members are as a bundle of rods surrounding an axe. (eg. "Manifesto for Abolition of Enslavement to Interest on Money" Gottfried Feder; "The Corporate State", Mussolini)

8) Citizenship : the nature of citizenship in modern societies is that of an abstract individual who theoretically has no distinction from other citizens and is endowed with equal entitlements and minimal obligations other than through economic means as a tax slave. In real terms it is the bourgeois class which overarches all others and lives an entirely exclusive life living at a remove from others and having no contact with them save in a hypocritical, token way (e.g. glad handing for votes). Thus citizenship is largely meaningless which leads the unfortunate class of citizens to look upon 'the government' as an evil exploiter of themselves as economic units which they have been reduced to ('Spring Comes Again', Jorian Jenks). Contrast this classist liberal democratic model of citizenship with the equally onerous one of communism/Marxist which often masquerades under the banners of 'social democracy' and 'neo-liberalism', etc. Within this illusion the citizen is merely a voiceless proletarian serf who is ostensibly a part of the 'community' which purports to be inclusive but in reality is more exclusive than the liberal democratic as controlled by a more restricted group of elites (Jewish Commissars). Both forms of state are inorganic/artificial and either exclude the citizens from real involvement in society so they are atomized or forcibly integrated through threat of the lash which distorts their true identity and substitutes it with a fictitious creation of the social planners through media and state indoctrination centers

(schools). A holistic rather than a classistic society such as in national socialism and fascism enables citizens to have a place suitable for themselves and to base their identity on their role and function in society not merely abstract individuality. If a political system doesn't give adequate freedom to the citizens for self-determination then it tyrannizes upon them in their essence and nature through preventing them from cultivating their innate abilities. In such a holistic system the duty to others doesn't exclude the duty to self but both mutually support one another as the bundle of rods surrounding an axe. The citizens are not simply dependent on the state for their existence (welfare, police state) nor total independence as drifters and dropouts, but participate in relations of interdependence (mutual aid and participation) and independence (privacy, home life). In order to possess rights in the state the citizen must perform duties for the state in order to earn status as a citizen.

9) Animal Relations : Animal cruelty and wanton exploitations (CAFOs) are clearly a violation of the harmony of existence and proscribed within White Law which supports a minimally harmful exploitation of animal life without sacrificing the life of the humans through nutrient deficiency in following vegan or vegetarian diets (see 'Hell-th' by the author). Given that life entails death and the preservation of both oneself and one's own kind as part of nature is nature's imperative, the slaughter and use of animals for their body tissues (food, clothing, etc.) and for their utility (seeing-eye/guard dogs, horses, etc.) is a necessary fact of creating a sound mind in a sound body in a sound, sustainable society.

Section 3: Environment: Given that a sound mind, a sound body, and a sound society cannot exist save within a sound environment, the natural conditions within which one dwells must be appropriate to establish a harmonious and holistic basis for achieving this state, the fulfillment of one's earthly destiny through the parameters of White Law.

d) Ideology : Thus it is especially important to attain to a proper understanding of one's relationship to the natural world such that the artificial world of human society can naturalize itself to correspond with the harmony of nature. Most environmentalists in today's society having never lived amidst nature outside of recreational vacations from their desk jobs are quite simply divorced from nature and ultimately reality itself. From the minds of such utopian dreamers emanates such conceptions as 'sustainable development', 'smart meters', 'carbon taxes', and the gamut of other tenets of false environmentalism. With such a strange map as guide, the Judeo-Freemasonic architecture which is developed on its basis necessarily crumbles to ruins and nature defaults the artificial world that is out of harmony with itself into collapsed civilizations. Serving as a useful tool for the hidden elite the modern environmentalist implements the party line with fanatic religious fervour shunning and annihilating all opposition to their naïve dogma. Their heroes such as David Suzuki (a crypto-Jew hybrid), Al Gore, et. al, are slavishly bowed before as messianic figures ushering in the new golden age. Environmentalism in its current guise is merely a green façade for communism, global government under the UN ruled by Jewish Commissars former bankers and is thus false environmentalism.

The true environmentalism is embodied in those ideological-political creeds of national socialism (Richard Walther Darré's 'Blood and Soil') and fascism (Jorion Jenks). These two creeds are the politicization of Nature Law adjusted for time and space, which is to say its implementation through the article of human ingenuity. The following points contrast the true and false environmentalism as well as the anti-environmentalism of vampire capitalism/earth rape, which latter exists as a function of the Jewish psychology (see 'Middle Eastern Madness' by the author).

e) Population : In order to exist in harmony with nature a population must be no larger than the environment can sustain. Within White Law this means that white population which the entire earth can sustain as the whole earth is its inheritance over which it has stewardship, failing which only destruction and savagery exists. Within the mass of global population a certain lebensraum must obtain to enable adequate space for the psychological health of the population. Accordingly the crowding of urban environments must be replaced by the reconquering of the land as pioneers with homesteads and small population villages. Needless to say the racial heterogeneity of contemporary urban centers, its 'volk chaos' must cease and this through exclusion of racial foreigners, a policy of rassen hygiene and eugenic upbreeding. This would ensure harmony amongst the people who would thereby harmonize with the environment.

f) Place : From the city of artificial ill-health to the serenity of rural and semi-urban topography away from the 'fleshpots of Egypt' and sprawling slum, to the hardy countryside.

g) Water : Water being essential to life it must be maintained in its purity with no extraneous substances – from birth control pills to chlorine, sewage and industrial waste it must be rendered pure of contamination. The washing water should be as clean as the drinking water – no foreign substances. To purify the water, ozone gas, ultraviolet light as well as charcoal and ceramic filters should be used, not hazardous chemicals. Drinking water should be distilled. The waste through watering lawns, golf courses, and excessive showering and laundry must be curtailed in place of which organic gardens, treed parks, and natural hygiene. h) Agriculture and food : The Jewish biotech companies such as Monsanto and Viterra which create desertification through earth rape, the overfarming of the land and usage of GMO seed (Frankenfood), must be eliminated with their tribal masters and replaced by small-scale mixed farms run by local families or those given farmland for free with the contractual obligation to use the land for rotational crops letting the land rest one out of seven years to ensure optimal fertility and nutrient-dense food. Permaculture thus replaces agribiz for 'sustainable development'. Confined animal feedlot operations (C.A.F.O.s) would be substituted with free-range poultry and grass-fed/finished quadrupeds humanely slaughtered. In place of 'icides (pest/herb/inorganic fertilizer) only natural substances would be used such as manure, etc.

i) Sanitation : One of the obligations of the citizen would be vigilance in environmental stewardship, citizen clean-up crews and weekly voluntary service would be mandated with all citizens from the mayor to the washerwoman being conscripted. Littering and unreplenishable exploitation of the land (clear-cutting, mining, hydrofracking, etc.) would be heavily punished with jail terms and or execution depending on the severity of the offense. Reforestation of the environment and community management of resources would be the responsibility of all.

j) Community Defense : In order for the environment to be protected the community must have the power to enforce same both against internal and external threats (racial foreigners or those who were ostracized from the community). Accordingly every citizen would carry a self-defense weapon proportional to if not greater than that which could be carried by the enemy which would depend on contemporary technology (without being a weapon of mass destruction threatening to the community as a whole). Military training would be a presence in the life of the citizen—soldier from birth and all citizens would be given the opportunity to fulfill stringent requirements for licensing as police. Thereby the community would be protected without the element of tyranny bound up with a monopoly of force by professional police and military.

Within 'White Law' a sound mind in a sound body in a sound society in a sound environment would be assured as best as possible adjusted for the particular circumstances in which it is implemented ensuring a whiter, brighter world, an existence for our people and a future for white children. Failure to adopt this law through Authentic living – living in accordance with one's own white nature – precipitates the chaos of civilization we are faced with today – that socio-political reality which represents itself as the bearer of the standard 'equality, sorority, democracy' but which is in reality a tyrannical despot that sounds the death knell of white civilization and ultimately civilization itself.

Adherence to the laws of nature is inevitable and those rebels without a cause who would seek to create a world in their own image build castles in the sky which fall upon their heads. Wiser people seek not to buck the system but to harmonize with it and improve themselves and their folk through it.

Rahowa (Racial Holy War)

When racial tensions exceed the bounds of tolerance, ie. when they conflict with basic needs such as psychological well-being and a comfortable standard of living(food, shelter,some cheap thrills/bread and circuses) then the ideology of universalism will cease and be replaced by naturalistic virtue ethics, those based on survival of the fittest, the best and brightest, not a deliberate inversion of these principles currently embodying themselves in liberalism the metamorphosed version of Christ-Insanity.

Once the veil of Maya is pulled from the eyes of the purblind masses and they awaken to the chaos around them they will then either adopt that ethic-which is a practical-behavioral one- or they will cease to exist as the anti-natural perverts they have been conditioned to be through their programming. Rahowa will be the wake-up call that subverts the Christian Universalist religious institution that has become the secular humanist liberal-democratic state. The hostilities will eventuate in the transvaluation of all values Nietzsche spoke of; Christianity/Liberalism will be crucified on the cross of matter as the material world constitutes the brick wall against which the flight from reality will crash leaving the ideological wreckage of anti-natural values.

From the ruins of this crash will be discovered the fallacy of heretofore sacred cows of equality, tolerance and sin-expiation, of guilty conscience and false conscience. Lucidity of perception will supplant the rose-colored glasses' opacity of a hypocritical and counter-factual humanitarianism-the Real will stand triumphal over the Ideal which is then recognized as a false idol, a golden calf better melted down into ingots and slugs for exchange value than to serve as an alter before which the deluded masses bow in abject self-abasement, flagellating themselves for their 'whiteness' in order to obtain the indulgences of political priests and their anti-hero Black and Brown Jesus figures before whom they have been conditioned to prostrate themselves.

This lucidity of perception will be a hard icy look of Hyperborean Reason that penetrates the inner core of Being and breaks through the defensive facades of possum-play and cowardly feints that the Jewish/Judaized controllers have evoked as their (stereo-)typical gambit is the game of power and which poses are adopted by their imbecile charges at the lowest tiers of the hierarchy namely the disenfranchised proletariat untermenschen and the brown/black/yellow hordes of goyim they use as their human shields and cats paws to pry apart the wallets of the productive white working class and the minds of the wise intelligentsia.

The sob stories and pathetic fables of ghetto Jews and their emotive soundings of 'oi oi oi!' and 'Hosannah!' will become anathema in the Natural Order that follows on the basis of the reality check that inevitably will serve as the bucket of ice water the brain polluted whites require. That reality check will come via the Rahowa and God won't be standing in impartial verdict over the fray but the players in the conflagration will sort themselves out- the victory going to the best and brightest defeat to those whose power is outstripped by the greater power which will always base itself on quality and never on numerical majorities. The mode of thie Rahowa will inevitably come in the form of the speed at which the sewage from the turd world is pumped into the whited sepulchres of the white society which had given up its former glory to a decadent indolence and was willing to make all compromises necessary to perpetuate its hedonistic self-abandon.

The stink will be too extreme to ignore and the plumbers will have to be brought in to reverse the flow of the dysfunctional plumbing. The more quickly it happens the more quickly a new order can be constructed- without the disease-causing influence of fecal matter; a more santized order, ethnic cleansing with Mr.Clean the White cleansing agent leaving that effervescent lemon fresh scent, a scent of purity and decency rather than the fetid odour of the open sewer society had become prior to this point. Small scale insurgencies, flare-ups of the rahowa-the war everlasting- will continue without abate until mega-blocks are formed along ethnic lines.

A few sparks will inevitably set up the powder kegs that will throw what has been called 'society' into a fragmentation grenade of disparate chunks of ethnic shrapnel thrown explosively against one another wherein the greater power will overcome the lesser through incurring damage against itself. The 'Lord' won't sort them out, they will sort themselves out. The dynamic shifting of these disparate conglomerates will eventually accrue to themselves through whatever power enables them (-might makes right-) territory and material resources entering into agreements with others for mutual advantage and conflicts against adversarial power. This is the natural order that will disprove the lie of an order of 'peace, love and unity', supplanting it with one of war everlasting, love of one's own and unity exclusive thereto-Rahowa, Racial holy war.

Race Traitor/Racial Treason

"The ultimate sin" as klassen phrased it-and with justice. The support of one's life is the kin group one belongs to- to violate the nature of the kin group through having inordinate regard and divided loyalties to those outside the group, those who are not kin in the biological sense, is to sever the bond that ties one to his own kind and thereby to sever the silver cord that binds him to life-to sever the golden chain of ancestry in some perverted form or conception of 'freedom' that works against the laws of Nature thereby working against the laws of life in favor of death in anti-natural egotism.

Seeking the other in violation of oneself as having a place in one's own, viewing the alien as more akin to one than the racial kinsman, creates and alienation from the world and is an act of weaving one's own hanging rope-with every act of betrayal that is another strand and a tightening of the noose. The race traitor brings strife into life and is thereby a lucifer in that he is a rebel against the natural order or the law's of god. His hubris inevitably leads to his destruction through the alienation from its own kind and his ostracism from potential friends he has thereby converted into enemies but also through the inherent disloyalty and untrustworthiness that his unnatural alliances have led him into, a defector in the enemy camp when no longer benefitting the other side and in spite of all altruism on their part his having demonstrated his untrustworthiness even to his biological kin will necessarily either be ostracized from this enemy camp or else held in contempt at best if not outright killed as a pawn which has outlived its usefulness or which would be better sacrificed for greater gain in the racial struggle on the chessboard of life.

If the race traitor has managed to infiltrate an alien community and obtained his desired object-political power; fame; sex; business('capital')-he then has cut off all ties(if known in his involvement)with his kin with whom he would have presumably prospered. However if he be a defective his defection to the enemy camp may have been out of necessity as he would be/was rejected as unfit and hence must go down the devolutionary path towards a more corrupt and perhaps suitable fate.

Such is nature. If any offspring stem from his genetically hybridized union with a member of the alien group this same would be regressive to an even greater degree and the spiral would continue downward to extinction through sterility and the internal soul/genetic conflict until such point as the inner chaos would cease to bear fruit. Such is the fate of the race traitor-to be blotted out of the book of life. Thus can be seen that the condition of life is tribal loyalty as the person derives their being from the group and finding their purpose therein they bind themselves with the group such that its life is their life and their life is its life. "You are nothing your folk is everything" and also you are nothing without your folk.

Racial Loyalty

Condition of evolutionary progress. the soul evolves through integrity as in being in a harmonious state with all disparate parts working coherently and in unison to sustain the whole. Racial mixture introduces extraneous elements or rather is an amalgam or hybrid of extraneous elements which are inherently conflictual thereby working at cross purposes and creating chaos. Examples of the mixed race Jews and Arabs and their violent irrationality suffice to illustrate this demonic state that works against the creation of God save to strengthen its more stable members who have their fixed identities in their knowledge of good against evil, the sin of violating natural law.

Racial loyalty ensures the continuance of the type and a gradual eugenical augmentation of the same type attaining eventual perfection through breeding out defects over generations which is the gradual process of soul evolution. To intermix is to retard and attempt the impossible-to subvert- evolution to godhood. Only the purest may become gods and this all peoples know instinctively in their avoidance of the Other and maintenance of their own kind.

Truly it is the first law of Nature, the "preservation of one's own kind"-David Lane. Hence in order to survive the 14 words must be put into practice and kept foremost in mind when dealing with others and with the self. Authenticity is attained through Racial loyalty as this is providence.

Religion as marker of soul type – Aryanism vs. Semitism

Epiphenomena of biology, extrapolation, and manifestation of spirituality, of the soul type of the biological type stands the religious of the races which are cultural embodiments of the sum total of their 'soul' elements. Behavioral traits/attributes are given tangible form in the rites, pageants, atrocities of religious devotion. The Nordic religion which was destroyed by Jewish Christianity and which still lingers amorphously in the mists of time and the unconsciousness of the Aryan Race – soul centers around the heroism of the individual, the superior type not exclusively as purely intellectual as in the scientism of today or as purely spiritual detached from the world of material care as a cowardly flight from reality (a la near eastern religions) but rooted in the concrete as imminent transcendence.

Stoicism, the mores of Aristotle and of Greece and Rome as well as the mercenary condottieri or Varangian guard; the berserker of the Teutonic forests – these figures convey a universal motif of the striving to develop the self that is the foundation of Aryanism. To be thrown into the tempestuous waters and face Jormungand yet without doubt or even concern for life – simply to exist one's essence as battle, the struggle for existence not for survival as concrete man barely elevated from the status of a brute but for the struggle to attain the superman – being oneself amidst the fray transcending the sensationalism of battle in hyper-alertness yet unaffectedness.

Stoicism and aesir-ism, if such it may be called, to experience as a tempering of the steel of one's flaming sword yet not to be taken away from the form, the sword is to be shaped though distraction and immersion in sensa in 'maya' but to fashion the flaming sword of the 'kristed one' through one's willpower. Thus this alchemy of transformation of the self and attainment of godhood through manifestations of the ideal in the real through an attunement created between the formal concept and the indeterminate immediates being fashioned into determinate being. Such process is the artistic process in miniature – the reification of the ideal for its development and evolution as a living god. Hence the 'god within', as well as without, the unio mystica of the lower and higher selves, is the basis of what may be called Aryanism (Wotanism, Hinduism, Hermeticism, etc.).

Contrast this properly so-called 'noble' spirituality which excludes and ignores all 'working' or slavish devotion – a veritable 'master morality' transcribed as religious/spiritual characters – with that low materialism of the 'semitic' (hither Asiatic/near Eastern type). Veneratives of lucre, fanaticism for territory and myriad proscriptions are required to curtail an excess absent from the retrieval consciousness of the Aryan; prohibitions such as the commandments, etc. Vengeance as opposed to contempt or mutual honor; lying as opposed to fair-handed dealing under the aegis of principles borne of one's own inner self-consciousness; low carnality, an emanation of the boiling heat of desert as contrasted with the sobriety of the cold Northern Hyperborean regions.

Yet it is not environment alone which conditions the religious spirit and influences it along certain lines – as Egypt once proud beacon of Aryan culture prior to mongrelization and inevitable decay – but biology which plays the leading role in religiosity as opposed to spirituality. Religion is veneration of external authority, a manifestation of a spiritually poor and weak constitution whereas the inner god of spiritual self-awareness ('enlightenment') is the child of a rugged constitution accustomed to the strife of the Hyperborean lands – as well as the placidity of Greece and the fertility of the Nile.

This consciousness of the Aryan is manifested in his lack of religiosity, lack of need and dependency upon religious formation, external rites and ceremonies, powers of Other dimensions than that latent within. The Semitic mind fears and trembles before the aspect of his fear – humbles himself before a force greater than self, whereas the Aryan seeks to enfold within himself that same force, preserving his own self-respect and soul integrity through simply enhancing himself by proximate contact with the life source in a state of attunement – raising himself up through self-knowledge (gnothi seuton) of his own divinity. Not seeking to merge with the one in extremities (Ahmisa) but seeking to preserve his own individuality vis-à-vis this same one which he is.

Unlike the Semite who would live in fear of the end and thus live for the moment in ecstasies of debauchery and vice-seeking as he does to squeeze every life-drop of blood from the material life that delimits his existence; rather the Aryan knows he is external and thus has nothing but time – in fact he negates temporality itself through the self- understanding of his own eternity. Thus he attains transcendence in imminence, battling forth amidst the chaos of war everlasting.

Life as Competition

The bourgeois understands life as a competition for resources, a social Darwinist frenzy of tooth and claw where the prize vied for is the materialist trinity of 'money, status and pleasures of the flesh'. This is the case for all those trapped in the lower drives that are incapable of superseding/transcending beast consciousness. They cannot identify with the Other as Self or in terms of similarity to their pursuit of the above. Thus life becomes to them a completely self-oriented endeavor where the Other vis-à-vis themselves enables them to posit themselves/stroke their ego through involvement with the Other as a tool of self-assertion/positing a will to power and genuflection before the mirror of their vanity.

Their life of desperate struggle precludes transcendence of the lower ego as the lower ego is the realm in which one languishes as his home, a battleground and theatre of war in which – relative to higher states of consciousness – he is but a poor player doomed to pyrrhic victories and the inevitable and unenviable death of the 'unknown soldier' amongst his legions of kindred martial spirits. The drives are not transmuted towards mere expansive states, but projected outwardly toward the enemy and ultimately within to oneself as an enemy combatant of the 'Other'. Thus this combatant lives on scorched earth in his 'war everlasting' as his projected aggression is so much in the way of slings and arrows manufactured for the defeat of enemy aggression which friction is projected on the Other and justifies the strike, be it pre-emptive or friendly fire – for there are nothing but foes in the mind of the warrior whose existential projected conquest and naught else. 'Peace of death and good will towards them' would be the transmogrified catch phrase.

The Christian is the flaming sword in the sense of lesser jihadist – a would-be victor in overcoming the 'Other' who eo ipso fails to overcome the self and thus vanquishes victory ab initio. Life as competition means life that is less than, not greater than life, life over life. It is rather life over death, a living death, as this is the ultimate goal, namely conquest, vanquishing of the Other and is a failure of the warrior to recognize himself in the Other (consciously and even in the act of killing him physically which would be a victory) he thereby precipitates his own death. Thus he is the living death and is 'being towards death', which is his existential structure. The suit of armor with built-in design flaw chinks that serve to impale him on the thrust of the Other's Otherness.

'All are one', they say, and one is one, but in failing to incorporate the All in the One he ceases to exist authentically (again even in the act of physical extinguishment of the physical Other, the real combatant) and thus ceases to exist. Thereby, he meets the pronouncement of pilate inversus, namely: "I see the guilt in this man" and crucifies himself on the cross of his own creation. This is the evolution of social Darwinism necessarily at cross purposes and in conflict with soul evolution.

One can be a competitor – and a warrior – in a physical theatre of war – and win, conquer, but he must first conquer himself – within – without; and then can a victory be attained that is not pyrrhic. Dying in the arms of his vanquishing foe he spills his life's blood upon the Other and christens him his friend. This is the meaning of cannibalism and ritual sacrifice a la Aztecs and in real war time scenarios, scalps and the paraphernalia of the combatant becoming incorporated magically in the self, trophies and testaments of victor perhaps but not exclusively a defacto incorporation of the Other into the self and a transcendence thereby of the self as well as an amplification thereof towards becoming the Other, transcending duality through unity consciousness in the physical/spiritual – as above so below as within so without. Such is the meaning of vampirism and all competitors are also vampires as they seek through inappropriate means to appropriate the Other's essence into themselves but fail in the most fundamental respects through destroying the Other in its Otherness and themselves as a self through the inherent defeasibility/ in built destructiveness of their relationship.

Thus they exist only through annihilating their own existence through destroying the Other in his Otherness. Thereby their project of competition is doomed from the start. Success comes from identifying the Other in his Otherness and respecting it as such. What does it mean to respect the Other in his Otherness? To posit him as an Other qua Other as he is in his essence. If, on a physical level, he must be destroyed as a threat to oneself therefore he must be and this constitutes a respect for that Other through a respect for oneself through the preservation of oneself in his identity.

This may entail the defeat of the Other and it may not but it entails fundamentally preserving integrity even as one builds upon it through ego competition thus one strengthens himself and need not necessarily destroy the Other to achieve this purpose. Such is the meaning of friendly competition where soul growth is facilitated through undergoing strife and competition without failing to acknowledge unity through this duality.

'Hero Quest'

A board game from the time when the world was livable and the mass of people reached for the stars as their eyes were not blinded by the false light of anti-natural ideals to the extent of a quest of feeble groping about in the mire of mud in which they have been pushed by their commissar masters.

This board game presented different modalities of the psyche concretized in different figures/characters represented as these hypostases of the self-wizards for the mind, warriors for the body, etc. All are manipulated on the game board which is the material world by the self who views it from above and from afar and yet incorporates in his consciousness their performances and essences, the way they emit their essence in victory and defeat. Through interiorizing this heroic gamesmanship and being in effect the games master he becomes a hero.

Transformative power is his through developing and cultivating the real in the ideal, he manifests his destiny through his gamesmanship and determines his freedom through the structures of the rules of the games, as above so below. This is a pedagogical tool of understanding the principle that freedom is the negative and in order to achieve certain effects certain acts must be undergone as they are causally correlated with one another.

Translating principle into reality the hero quest of life posits his thrownness as a being enmeshed in a nexus of relations and conditions through which he must conceive, develop and manifest his projects – his pathways of action are necessarily restricted in terms of time and space and energy and he must pursue and avoid the corollary objectives which are both condition and conditioned of this ground of being into and through which his existence exists.

Thus a hero or a tramp or a mage he is flung along a path in which every branch and stone restructures his project in an endless cycle of causality, a drop in the past of being whose dynamism reverberates and impinges on and through himself. He alone can make it so and he alone is made by it – at least to the extent of his conscious awareness of the Other and his Otherness and how the latter is yet another drop in the pool and so on for all beings in the existence.

Nevertheless insofar as he posits himself as a self he is a hero and his quest is the quest for the unfolding of his dharma/purpose. Life as role-playing game where the player himself is a transient ripple on the veil of maya yet maybe also a mote – perhaps a beam projecting through towards the starts and as a star. Contained within this notion is the distinction between Ahimsa and Kaivalya between the fleeting nature of becoming and the eternity of being.

An immersion in samsaic consciousness casts the player into his role in a state of blindness, an absence of awareness of the self and his selfhood. Transcending this chaotic welder of sensa through an indwelling a going within and a projecting without is the self-creation of godhood and the attainment of eternity through mastery of the self.

Topology

The space/place or 'topos' structures the identity of the social and determines behavior of given types through mediating their nature/essence through its essence creating an amalgam of identity. Hence, the phrase 'blood & soil' can never be separated into its constituent elements and topology determines typology, i.e. the characteristics of the group in question. Country mice and city mice though both being mice are structured so to speak in a radically different way given their radically different environments, the one living in a relatively stimuli-poor environment has senses fine-tuned to defeat the more subtle differences amongst those given the drive of the biological entity, the 'being' is to defeat changes and threats in the environment to fulfill their biological tendencies/motivations.

Thus, the country mouse will be more hyperaware than the city mouse, whose have been dulled through a greater impingement of stimuli on the 'mind'/consciousness, which renders them a poor operative in an environment unsuited to that level of mental dullness. Conversely in the opposite case where a hyperawareness renders the being (eg. mouse) dysfunctional in a stimulus rich environment as they cannot operate in it to the same degree of efficacy leveling the rapidity of responses/nerve reflexes which a consciousness/'mind' dulled through continual stimulation from without has developed.

The country mouse is a bumpkin in the city but an adept sage, hunter, tracker in their home environment while the city mouse is a bumbler off the beaten track but a cutthroat killer in the mean streets of urbanity. 'Eagles and pigeons' is another analogy for the country and city dweller. Placing an eagle, whose senses are acutely developed and attuned to the slightest change in the external environment when viewed from above whereas if placed into the helter skelter of the urban environment he loses his navigation capability and can't function, the vision of objectivity is reduced to that of subjectivity bombarded on all sides by a kaleidoscope of irrelevant and distracting scenes. Thus concentration is scattered and the eagle is impeded from fulfilling his purpose.

The pigeon of the sewers of the city wasteland, when transplanted to the country, is a poor player in the midst of the wilderness. The concentration of objects and ready access to parasitical life of Other beasts in the urban multitude being an absence the independent mind necessary to function in the environment renders the city dwelling pigeon 'lost in the barrens'. Hence the two great contrasts of personality, that of cutthroat Mafiosi from the ghettos of teeming multitudes to the noble adventurers in the alpine mists and elysian fields – the one an animal made vicious through its life of perpetual war and strife in close quarter combat, the Other a warrior of its own sort but whose war is that between the elements and himself as well as between himself and rivals.

Perhaps the more vicious fighter and warrior is the ghetto churl, however and perhaps the more developmental environment is that of the ghetto? To create a more cunning and devious being that would be the more suitable environment, to create a nobler being who manifests its destiny the natural environment would be a more suitable springboard to divinity. The purpose determines which constitutes the better option, if degeneracy then an urban life if evolution then a natural one. the human and all Other biological entities can only evolve through themselves and the self, living under agitating and anti-natural conditions can only develop itself into a perverted form that is doomed to further degeneracy over time and the generations, and ultimately to extinction.

That being living in an environment sustainable of its biological structures evolves itself upwards toward higher forms and the natural environment ensures this progression through being itself an organically developed reality. Topology influences typology, space influences sociology, 'a sound mind in a sound body in a sound society in a sound environment' – such is the creed of the creativity movement and as self-creators we would be wise to follow it through understanding what soundness means (being in a state of harmony with the natural order and our own nature) and to be in that state of resonance. The leadership is reflected in the pool of the populous: when the monstrous face of tyranny displays itself, the pool reflects this, when a beautiful morning shines forth refulgent to its light this also is reflected by the population pool. In a late society of decadence and chaos, this condition is directly traceable to the heads of state who take on medusa-like properties.

Typically this occurs under an oligarchy which historically has been the Jewish form of priestly caste concentration of power – from the tetrarchs of Rome to the commissars of the Bolshevik regime. With no titular head who bears the burden of ultimate responsibility for the political decisions, corruption runs rampant in the leadership as no specific decision-maker can be held to account or holds himself forth as the agent of decision within to suffer the metaphysical or real slings and arrows the populous would aim at him should he tread too heavily on their toes.

Corruption is inherent in democracy as it is based on a lie, namely that of equality which is counter-nature and counter-factual. Since mendacity is inherently corrupt so too is a society resting on this unstable foundation. Given the cancer-like nature of the parliamentary democratic system, the leadership hides behind the façade of representation by population wearing the smiling mask of peace, tolerance and love while practicing covert war, bigotry and hate against any who threaten their power. Again this is the Jewish form of government, one of inherent dishonesty and exploitation and why democratic values facilitate their acquisition of power through exterminating through revolution or the popular vote the leadership of rival power blocks whose subjugation to them means totalitarian control and to the gullible mass whose minds they control though enslaving their ego with a sense of importance under the guise of the popular vote ('power of the electorate'); it means the hand of justice and god smiting their bitterest foe the '1% or upper crust'; 'fascists'; 'capitalists', etc.

The target is established through creating a perverted and distorted portrait of the intended enemy, in most cases a benevolent protector of the masses not without fault, and blaming them for all the chaos the Jewish infiltrators and their hired ignorant cause through funding or theft from the public purse of gold or resources, through foreign invasion, instigated by Jews, etc. Scapegoating is the standard technique of casting down idols the Jews would rather have replaced with their own variety such as the “rights of man”, etc. or a dear leader puppet such as Castro or Mao who will serve as their useful puppet be discarded when no longer of value to them. In a society of corruption such as this ‘western’/Jewish demon-ocracy the populous lives its lives without standards or regard for truth or equal weights and measures.

All sense of fairness is distorted to serve the ends of all but the host populous of whites and justice, invented while fallaciously represented as an eternal verity. The masses clamber for their bread and circuses while they ignore the decisions that leave the sword of Damocles positioned over their heads.

The Aryan Consciousness is Rising Like The Phoenix From The Ashes

We, the collective of racial kin see it ascend and bask in its glory, imbibing strength from its form and reifying it in our actions as the rightful owners and occupiers of this globe. The night of dark-age ignorance will not shroud the true light of the Aryan man who will herald the day of a new age through his just purgation of the evil of this terrestrial globe, through the shining sword of his conscious willpower overcoming all darkness.

The antithesis of Apollo and Dionysus is not as Nietzsche would have it that between the anti-nature sterility of rational and the supramundane (Logos) and the natural ecstatic irrational of the mundane but rather that between the higher man (Hitler) and the lower (Lenin, Mao, etc.); between the superman as embodiment of higher consciousness and that of the sub-man as embodiment of animal consciousness (lust, cruelty, sensationalism, sensualism). The protuberant lips of Socrates, typically hither Asiatic bespeak the lower mind of the rabbi/Pharisee of later years – low-minded, materialistic, and of coarse tastes. The noble brow of Apollo does not recognize the phrenologically disproportionate receding brow of Socrates.

Tradition vs. Modernity, Nationalism vs. Internationalism

The nation is the race, the tradition is the cultural emotion of race, its manifestation/manifest destiny epiphenomena. In a global order of serfdom, wherein a multinational situation (‘multicultural’) exists, no internationalism can exist without the destruction of tradition and thereby the consciousness of the nation and ultimately itself (as a nation). Thus internationalism also called ‘modernity’ is anti- and counter-traditionalism, is its antithesis and destroyer.

The only way an international traditionalism can exist is through segregation and supremacy – the separation from the nation/race from the Other and the Supremacy of one over the Other if not the Other’s outright annihilation or banishment to a tiny region of the globe. Modernism is the anti-traditional internationalism of the Nation of Jewry over the earth and of its self- interested Shabbos goyim who follow its dictates.

The notion of ‘post-modern’ is an absurdity which purports to enforce modernity’s pride of place over against the reaction of tradition to the annihilating influence of modernity. Another gesture of rhetorical legerdemain which claims that there is no longer any existent modernity while remaining within the same paradigm. This is the veil behind which leftism sits and conceals itself – claiming not to be ‘liberal’ but rather ‘neo-liberal’, etc. leftism seeks to avoid identification, being an object of judgment and thereby controllable as a known identity by the traditionalist/conservative. Thus post-modern is an impossibility in any temporalizing sense as there is no temporal fluidity in a distinct cultural formation – either there is tradition or there is modernism, either order or chaos. Thus Leftism is merely a dynamic process of cultural/traditional subversion which erodes that which it seeks to replace.

Being wholly negative/destructive, however it has nothing to replace the void of its destruction leaving merely a vacuum that absorbs into itself all artefacts of the culture it grew upon as a cancer. The hazy utopian dreams of the leftist/Marxist are as castles in the sand as whatever they are building to replace the tradition they seek to destroy are ill-conceived and impossible of imposition upon the mundane world given that it doesn't emanate from an organic state of existence, a certain nation in a certain physical region of the earth with a self-concept as a distinct group (identity).

Only that developed out of nature is sustainable – that which deviates therefrom is doomed to destruction. 'We will replace the current diversity of peoples with a diversity of individuals' – this quote illustrates and encapsulates the luciferian protocols of the Jewish internationalists whose intention is to subvert organic life through artificial means, imposing an idealistic structure upon a real base. The organic/natural identity of people is subverted and supplanted with the inharmonious one of inorganic architectural design, a technologized perversion of nature.

Marxism annihilates tradition, tradition annihilates Marxism. Traditions based on clay and iron are doomed to crumble under their own weight. The firmest (and only) foundation upon which a society can be established is the bedrock of nature. To replace the natural order and cultures based thereon is to destroy nature and supplant it with a burnt out earth. Diversity in an artificial sense is to create a mixture not a compound which has no bond uniting it save the positive law of the state propped up by the threat of violence to enforce the violence of the artificial upon the natural.

Further to this topic of realism vs. idealism is the embodiment of these creeds in the figure of the leader/father thereof, respectively Hitler and Marx, one emphasizing genetics (blood and soil – nature and the laws of nature), the other emphasizing rhetoric (equality), the one transcending the physical (superman) the other immersing itself in the depths of materiality (the earth mother, the untermenschen); the one using their creed as a springboard to the divine, the other as an executioner's axe of destruction for the levelling of all to the lowest common denominator (common-ism); the one ennobling, the other debasing; the one evolving the other devolving their subjects/objects. For both creeds the decadent Bourgeois liberal class of hypocrites stood in the way of their utopian dreams: one seeking to split the coiffed wig of the bourgeois bureaucrat with the hammer of communism the other with the hammer of Thor.

Vampire capitalism and Marxism both seek a global order of multiracial tyranny, this false dichotomy intended to be collapsed into socialism – not national/racial but rather degraded universalism wherein any being that walks on two legs is put on a pedestal and conferred the title of 'human', whereas in the case of the latter form of true socialism, the 'human individual' is structured through immersion in the tribe having no substantive identity outside of the organic collective and thus fulfilling their destiny on earth as an authentic being, contrary to the artificial collectivism of Marxism socialist utopianism which deviates from the natural order and is thus inauthentic.

Violence Is The Answer

To dispatch tyranny what some have called 'violence' but which is in reality counter-violence (counter-tyranny) must be applied to subvert the subversion, negate the negation. Those who hold power behind the façade of representation by population claiming to uphold the abstract concepts of the 'rights of man', etc. but really violating the natural 'rights' of those over whom they hold arbitrary sway – these same tyrants, the democratic political whores and their shadow government puppet-masters (the Jews to the king) must be usurped from their usurped position – usurp the usurpers, negate the negation. This can only be accomplished through physical force, through the so-called big 'T' and the big 'V' (Terror and Violence).

All discussion, electioneering, protests, angry letters to the ombudsman are of no avail when these putative venues of popular will are mere blinds to obscure the iron fist concealed in this velvet glove called 'democracy'. The smiling mask of the dictator needs to be smashed and the dictator strung from a rope. Eliminate the cause, eliminate the effect: The ultimate cause of the problems of the world and its people is: the Jew. The Jew is the common denominator of all problems from environmental damage/pollution to racial pollution (race mixing). Eliminate the cause and the effects will be wiped away. The tree continues to grow branches when the root is not severed; the tree of evil proliferates its evil limbs and the roots must be struck at to cease the growth. The tree of evil is the problem complex which has the Jew at its root.

Apathetic Youth

As if it were in the aether the portent of catastrophe oppresses the mind and quells all motivation save for that of brute necessity, the acquisition and furnishing of basic needs and a return to anxious expectation of that which shall surely come as the bat out of hell from one's darkest nightmare; thus one awaits the inevitable eruption of the dark hordes who have flooded his once peaceful abode intruding into his speculation upon the higher planes have pulled him down to meet him in the lower planes for battle, scenting blood through the apparent weakness of his reservation and anticipating an easy victory. Little did they know that he was formulating the strategy of war that would dispatch the bloodlustful enemy.

His apathy was simply an expression of this awareness of the not-yet, of that which was to inevitably come yet could not arrive soon enough to maintain anything other than a hazy presence or background of anticipation knowing that it must come to fruition. Thus life is a waiting game under these conditions, the youth knowing the inevitable yet having no means to engage it either de facto in reality or in mente as a discernible idea with knowable properties that can be mapped onto as a tactical strategy for victory against the foe. No tangible path can be trodden when its parameters aren't visible, when it doesn't exist as a path but merely as a tenebrous field of potential obstacles, threats of unknown strengths and faculties. The apathy of youth will fall away when the inevitable explosions of the revolution herald a call to arms against the evil tide.

Angel In The Whirlwind

At this time in history, the only solution to the problems of life, the hostility and chaos of animosity which constitutes the fabric of the real is to become the purple in the garment amidst the scarlet and black threads which is the saving grace of this diabolic raiment.

One must preserve one's integrity and nobility amidst the degenerating influence of the Other, those ignoble plebeian souls which constitute the mass and who, continuing the fabric analogy, bled over into the purity of purple with their red anger and black hostility to attempt to soil your purity and create a dissolution of its splendour. Individuated being is individuated for a reason and that to preserve its individuation from dissolution, to further its evolutionary accent towards higher states while preserving itself to evolve itself out of itself thereby becoming more than it was.

This is the meaning of sacrificing oneself to oneself. An angel in the whirlwind one must become as this is the image encapsulating this reality of 'entelechia' as Aristotle construed it. One must become who he is, that is to say through a trans- substantiative process develop himself as a plant out of himself as a seed through generation and corruption of base metal become the purest gold. To endure while sustaining one's being as an angel refulgent in the darkling tempest surrounding oneself is the condition of evolution – intense exertion, intense emotion – all under rational control for the purpose of integrating these 'desiring flows' or energy within the self.

To be fragmented and blown away in the winds that buffet one simply shows a lack of strength, the capacity to remain the same amidst the dynamic chaotic flow of the stream of becoming, the four winds which whip around one's person and manipulate and modify his consciousness such that every opportunity is had to lose integrity and yet also to preserve it through strength of concentration, one may say willpower or self-control, keeping a firm grip on the reins of the chariot as it careens toward oblivion.

Like a captain going down with the ship he submerges himself in Maya but supersedes the deluge and continues on out of the waters of dispersion into the eternal realms and becomes immortal as the oblivion of the transient waters of becoming is overcome.

At this time in history especially given the tumultuous tossing of the waves he must cling even tighter and be even more of an adept charioteer, steering the chaotic emotions towards a condition of smooth running, efficient motion – as for them to fall into a restive state is to cease pursuing one's course, a losing of the way and a state of atrophy which is a living death. Riding the tiger is another term used to connote this idea, this reality of enduring in the midst of chaos.

The everpresent threat of extinction while exiting 'on the tiger's back' (in the midst of the kali yuga, an end-times/iron age, etc.) necessitates an adept mastery of control over the self while suffering actively the rushing career of the tiger which seeks to turn and rend one with tooth and claw. Thus intensity of focus and concentration are requisite to handle oneself amidst the (for the weak) overbearing intensity of this epoch. The greater force triumphs and thus one must concentrate energy to become as great as necessary to overcome the overcoming.

Wotan (Wotan Consciousness)

Wotan ala Moses, stands on the summit of the mountain with upraised hands and arms in the figure of the life rune – for he has overcome his previous dead state as embodied by the teeming hordes which attempt to grasp at his person from the depths. He is receptive to the radiations of Deity (the black sun) and attunes himself therewith which is the proclamation that he has attained this state of Wotan consciousness and become who he is, namely Wotan, the living god who is transcendence in immanence and from which emanates that god-like vibration initiating those receptive into his mysteries, their receptivity dependent on themselves being of a kindred spirit/energetic signatures available only to these both cultivated and genetically blessed. His outstretched arms carry gunnir his spear, the spear of destiny that signified his diving right of kingship over the material plane. His iron helmet suggests animality with its material and projecting horns yet born on his head it is rather the substantiation of animality that is bespoken.

The like can be said for his cloak of bear skin which is a weightless mantle easily borne through his superhuman strength and which simply lends the greater power to amplify his own, he becoming a transceiver of vital force taken from without. No clothing other than the bearskin girded around his loins for modesty and demonstrative of transcending chthonic inclination it is needed as his radiance melts the snow around him while his jealous and hateful onlookers gaze upon him from the frozen shadows of the depths.

They gaze upward but he gazes beyond towards the viewer who is held rapt by his godlike gaze, his eyes being of a hypnotic quality. The belt which girds his broadsword and bearskin loincloth has the tyr rune as buckle which connotes victory over the baser drives further proof which he displays to the hordes beneath upon his ascendancy of the summit. The snowy mountain connotes the stillness of activity the eternal realms entail, cold reason and heightened awareness as well as perceptual faculties more fetid climes preclude, dulling the consciousness through boiling the brain in the skull and rendering oxygen utilization less accessible to the physical body.

Chthonic entities below reacting upward attempting to grasp Wotan prove their weakness of will and enervated physiques – however muscular their strength is sapped in the presence of a higher being. Cowardice, jealousy, hatred of superiority are all displayed upon their asymmetrical bestial countenances. Radiation of the black sun augments the energy body of Wotan who thereby attains god-consciousness at the meeting of the minds of divinity and humanity becoming the living god in miniature that was his heroic quest from the lower regions of the material plane.

Imagine a super-advanced race or species of being in the image of man – arriving on Earth to bestow a higher culture and to impose a supremacy of their kind upon the denizens of this veil of tears. Most who subscribe to the sub-man ideology of reduction to the lowest common denominator would balk in horror at this very idea let alone the reality. In spite of their inevitable protests if such an order were imposed upon them they would obsequiously shoulder the yolk and plow the fields such that they may savour the farts of wisdom furnished by this noble race – even in spite of this most would bow even if this race were cruel to the limit of provision of basic animal comforts as is the case with the Jews today and their provision of bread and circuses for their contented charges.

If benevolent as above outlined, toil would be a pleasure for even enlightened people as a necessary penance for self- development, the reward eagerly anticipated for the punishment called 'work'. The cliché is always adduced that the stereotypical 'super-advanced/enlightened' aliens would have no dealing with a planet of unenlightened beings yet the infinite complexity of circumstance would not imply this as a necessary fact; they may be slavers, they may be benevolent guides seeking to expedite the evolution of Gaia's denizens or they may have crashed their vehicle with no means to continue on their journey.

In any case it may be a reality in the coming future when advanced beings come upon the earth this would almost certainly be an improvement whether for their species or ours or both as anything sufficiently advanced beyond the military capabilities of earthly defense may be (but not necessarily would be) very likely of a more 'advanced type' in terms of the improvement of life upon earth – if of the humanoid type of course though possibly if of any type.

Being trapped upon terra/Gaia in a state of reduced consciousness and bombarded with all the hostile and hateful vibrations that pervade the aether it would be a welcome change to invoke by whatever means of occult influence the attention of these beings and offer an invitation for them to come to earth and improve the general situation even if it be by 'iron and blood' and the cleansing of the earth of the useless feeders.

If there ever were extra-terrestrial origins of the varieties of 'man' on the earth they could be divided neatly into the children of light (whites); the children of darkness (Jews), and perhaps children of other hybrid species with apes and from the moon (Chinese). The former would be from a planetary system far apart from the latter in consciousness terms and their being placed in proximity to one another a recipe for inevitable clash given their diametrical opposition. - Nordic aliens vs. reptilian shape-shifters, good vs. evil – noble means vs. ignoble means – a war fought by some with tooth and claw with parleys and treaties by others and a resignation to brutality when all negotiations are of no avail.

The empire vs. the rebel alliance, the exact inversion of the Hollywood inversion of reality – inversion of an inversion and negation of a negation. The Stormtroopers and hierarchy would be the noble and the just, the motley crew of myriad form and dregs of humanity the base and degenerate who burn museums and libraries of literature on the altar of their vainglory and intolerance for all that is so-to-speak 'above their heads', rooting in the mire as they are and slaking their vampiric thirst from the veins of those whose blood is of purer and nobler stock than theirs could ever be.

Yuga

Times of a more intense flow/drive of energy where every process is accelerated such that in order to keep up one must be reconnecting at a similar frequency of vibration in order to be in sympathetic resonance else he will be swept away in a process of accelerated decadence and degeneration. Hence the rapid decline of the baby-boomer generation through a failure to adapt to the times and struggling to resist changes which are inevitable in terms of subtle energetic states through clinging to lifestyles which are borne of more sedate and relatively lethargic periods in history.

The times they are always a-changing and to cope one must accelerate his own metabolic rate to be in this sympathy with the sum total. As greater proximity to the galactic center is reached greater will is directed against those beings on earth called human who are subjected to a new gestation period and concomitant growing pains. Evolution of the soul accelerates at a pace proportional to the closing of this cycle, its nadir where the very legions of hell will be loosed upon the earth, figuratively and perhaps literally speaking. Preparedness is the key as sun-tzu said and thus entails a spiritual preparedness through which the spirit-self may be preserved of its integrity in the midst of the fragmentation of the onslaught of conflictual and chaotic energies that ceaselessly impinge upon one through the confrontation with 'God' (the galactic center). 'Prepare to meet your maker' in the end times is the advice of the prudent and which only the prudent follow.

War Of All Against All

Things are heating up to a fever pitch at this time in history. Almost suddenly the hostility of the lower races directed towards the Aryan man has been unleashed without any perceptible historical precedent knowable to the common-ist mass. They continue to live in pleasant delusion without any but the faintest twinge of awareness that something may be wrong or at least something they would consider wrong and undesirable if they knew what it was.

The dim awareness they possess will reach a culminating point when the confrontation with the inevitable occurs and their wilful ignorance of the itch that they refuse to acknowledge and scratch will be impossible to sustain when it becomes an insufferable presence. At which point they will have recourse to the talon. The hostile looks of the savage as he does his war dance around the white captives whose society he has infiltrated will manifest in ever more physical forms of violence necessitating an equal and opposite reaction if survival is to be ensured – in fact one greater than equal as stasis is impossible in the dynamic system called life.

The pendulum may swing both ways but the pivot will be worn through and the pendulum detached once sufficient chaos occurs. Thus a new order will have to be established outside of this tit-for-tat equalitarian hypocrisy which once burned to ashes in the conflagration will enable the phoenix to rise and there will be a whiter, brighter world once the dust settles. That this war is inevitable can be perceived by those sufficiently perspicacious in the hateful looks of the dark races and the increase of the manipulative hyper-aggressivity of the Orientals and their Jewish leadership which are signposts of the progress towards the terminal stage of the J.O.G. empire.

Though this gambit is what they have intended almost necessarily they will be reduced to ashes in their own holocaust leaving the remnant of whites to establish the society of tomorrow. The war of all against all has begun and in its phase of covert aggression which is on the verge of ending. The cold RaHoWa will become hot as no society of a multi-ethnic nature can be sustainable given the unliveability of its divergent social make-up – no one can function – amidst chaos and without exclusive territory, deprived of this and the freedom of association it ensures a formula for chaos and contention.

A society of barbarism ensues as males compete over resources, territory, and females, engendering hostility through provocation of this competition as well as strife through jealousy and envy of the obvious differences that render the phrase 'equality, liberty, democracy, etc.' an absurd and anti-natural illusion which ignores the natural inequality that gives on to this strife of a 'war of all against all'. The strategy at this time is simply to make oneself a weapon of war and to put oneself to use in the combat for the 14 words. All thought and talk which detracts from this focus is merely a laying down of weapons if not a careless wandering into enemy traps. The straight and narrow consists of the 14 words and the first law of nature: 'the preservation of one's own kind.'

Purity Spiralling

The ideal should always be (for all types): as close to their (arch) type as possible, that is to say as black as possible for a black and as white as possible for a white, etc. Anything within the realm of possibilities available to the agent that treads towards this ideal and which is not exercised is sin, anything which leads towards it is virtue. Thus things (actions, the organic evolutionary process of things through their own innate structure) trend in a positive, upward direction, spiralling evolutionarily towards the ideal that of the pinnacle of the (arche)type and superseding it towards yet better forms through itself again organically.

This is the decree of natural law and the converse is violation thereof proportional in effect (punishment) to the distance from the ideal, the more Other, the more perverse and anti-natural. The ethics therefore of natural evolution are structured along lines of purity and impurity, the purest representing the height the least pure the depths.

Those evil unions which spawn the daemon hell-spawn of race mixing (especially the extremes such as black and white) are living curses upon the earth which generate nothing but societal ills and lead the better type downward toward states of confusion, inner chaos, and the grave. Thus those complicit in the (de)generation of base born progeny are cursing themselves with deviant perversions of nature and burdening themselves with a 'problem child' whose inherent constitution begets through itself endless problems which only cease in death probably brought about by genetic diseases which have their origin in this unnatural mixture of incompatible and conflictual genetic materializations of spiritual forces.

Such a chaotic being renders itself susceptible to demonic possession and obsession by lower astral entities who avatar the body for their personal advantage. The constitution of the child (if such it may be called, perhaps demon would be a better word) is inherently dis-eased as no harmony can exist amidst chaos and thus the disorderly being lives a life of perpetual chaos inevitably terminating its miserable suffering in an early death

Occidentalism

Creedo of the hero the occident looms forth as the juggernaut of cultural imperium imposing its refulgent dynamism upon the earth, influencing all with its ripples as it sallies forth in conquering strides to bestow its virtue of enlightenment upon those it deems worthy of its nobility.

The dynamic forces which comprise its bulk are forever vying with one another for supremacy thereby spurring on this structure of adamant. The creative force, the willpower which manifests those products of genius that constitute the creation of the world, establish on the earth the creator's proper place of supremacy. Hence all who have – through observation of the occident, admiration and perhaps a jealous desire for like status, have sought to vie with the occident for dominion over the earth ever as they ostentatiously bow in feigned obeisance to their would-be master, all the while sharpening their knives for a backstab when the moment is right.

The occident, too blinded by egotism and naïve in its childlike adventuring, believes the world outside its scope to be a non-entity and the entire world within its scope to be within its control thus incapable of understanding how it is viewed with any critical distance. The heroic personality always wears rose-coloured glasses and so doing blinds itself to those who do not overtly give it combat as no guile exists within it. This dangerous naiveté threatens the death blow of the occident and to topple its towers and statues made seemingly of indelible adamant.

The underhanded guile of the dark forces ( the Orient and their witless brute slaves) forever looming in the shadows to assassinate the victorious hero – especially when this hero grows soft, unchallenged and unchecked by a worthy combatant. Given that the fight is merely subterfuge and never attains until the last moment (what the dark forces would consider the 'death blow'); the occident languishes in decadence oblivious to the threat. However not sufficiently dulled of consciousness as a dawning realization that there may exist a threat kindles in the alcoholized mind of the occident which then swiftly reacts against the creeping foe. This scenario though fanciful would hopefully be the consequence and the foes of the dark side subjugated as quickly as possible... however the blonde beastie continues to play in idleness, his weapons having been laid aside, dulled through lack of use, his sinews having grown flabby and weak. A call to arms is necessary if he too is not to be subjugated – a necessary condition of survival.

How The Jews Ruined My Life: Testament Of A Generation-Y Casualty

Born in ignorance I have now seen the light and understand the world situation: a baby-boomer battle to the death between the children of light and the children of darkness. My mother was influenced by feminist notions of independence influencing her to rock the boat in the home. However worse was my baby-boomer 'father' who was influenced by a culture of self-indulgent hedonism ultimately resulting in alcoholism. Upon my traumatic birth I was subjected to vaccinations, which presumably caused brain damage. I received a poor education consisting of Gaia worship and non-white veneration, and white self-hate.

I could often be seen swishing the mandatory fluoride tablets in school, the place where the young and impressionable are sent to be indoctrinated. Because of feminism and the lowering of the overall wage my mother was forced into the workforce so that she could provide no decent education to me and thus I was forced into the Marxist institutes. I was traumatized by an alcoholic father who squandered his birthright (inheritance) on thrill-seeking and never raised his children properly.

During these teenage years I was propagandized to obsess over bodily appearance which led to a lifetime of body dimorphic mental problems and malnutrition through following bodybuilding diets prescribed in Jewish bodybuilding magazines (Flex; Muscle Mag International; Muscular Development), the culture of bodybuilding (obsession) itself having been created by Jews for this covert purpose of psychopathologizing heterosexual white males. Through their porn industry the Jews created in me extreme anxiety and fluctuating mood states through overstimulation of the brain stress axis, hyper-secreting dopamine and leading to chronic depression. This adversely influenced my perception of women as well leading me to look upon them in an artificial way.

This was also the case with rap music, another of the Jews' cultural creations which disparaged women. The addition of copious veneration of blacks in movies and on TV which served as a vehicle of propaganda for my developing mind, structured my mind to look upon them as a standard, a heroic type of violent force that appealed to the teenage psyche and which was targeted towards it by Jews as an assault on consciousness and a self-hating act in the white viewer. As a teenager I encountered Jews without knowing they were Jews and befriended them though always felt them to be an alien presence in some way and even lashed out at them physically sometimes as an instinctive gesture of antipathy. One of these 'friends' caused me to lose all my few friends who were not Jews and this was the end of all future friendships subsequently.

Having been a marginal always I have become even more marginalized since. The poisonous influence of this Jew on my friendships through guile and deceit left a profound impression upon me though still at that time I couldn't understand the reason or the sudden 180 degree turnabout in this devil's behaviour. During my school days in the Public Fool system I was demoted from advanced status to general (aka basic-goy labourer) by a Jewish teacher using my lack of performance in math as a justification for ruining my academic future. I ceased to care about school after this incident.

My brother was mangled to some extent by a Jewish feminist doctor upon being born who pulled him out violently by his head thus causing spinal problems in his life. He was later traumatized by our biological progenitor (aka 'father') when he defended himself against the latter's alcoholic violence by throwing a chair at his head and then informed upon by this pater dominator being abducted by the police, medicated, and institutionalized for a period. This alcoholic lunatic did not properly nourish his own offspring through their formative years. Continuing past my teenage years onto the Marxist indoctrination center called a 'school' (in this case the last year of high school, a private school with privileged people), in the nearby city I became aware of Jews as Jews.

The strangeness of the environment was like immersing myself in a hive mind of an alien entity but I was as yet unaware of its sinister nature. The affiliated university was an amplification of this revelation where I became more empirically knowledgeable about Jewish behaviour. This spider's web of pseudo-sophisticated theoretical web spinning simply led to my even greater introversion – to the extent of psychopathology – self-obsession and neuroticism.

This overrefined intellectualism divorced me from the social milieu of the life I would inevitably have to suffer, though my own creative soul struggled in opposition to this sterile intellectualizing it served as an anchor weighing me down and influencing my thoughts towards the useless, effete, and inapplicable, save indirectly through the barren cultivation of the faculties, a rational wheelspinning that strengthened mental muscles not put to any concrete use – and so too the continual labours of an impotent Hercules, through bodybuilding – strength of an impotent variety; much exertion with no lasting or meaningful results. Thus the Jew had put one over on me, burning myself out as a human battery without having any practical application for my exertions.

The Jew led me to seek a career in the military given my lack of opportunities-a result of the employment equity act- and there I was subjected to a battery of vaccinations which probably resulted in brain damage and/or liver/organ damage. Prior to this point I had to wait for multiple years given a violation of one of the Jews' enumerable laws that prevented my entry. Given the spoiled nature of my baby-boomer, 'prodigal son' biological father, I became entangled in a horrendous 'business relationship' which ruined my career plans and led me towards a state of homelessness, abject poverty, social ostracism and suicidal tendencies as well as a murderous hatred of the agent of my downfall and those (the Jews) who constructed him as their chaotic psychopathic puppet.

My inheritance liquidated in the form of paternal alcoholism, my sense of self-worth eroded to the point of being nearly irredeemable, the faint flickers of hope for the future all but extinguished. I trace all problems that I have encountered in my life to the one source from which they stem, the Jew, the eternal parasite of the white race and generator of all evil in the world – from the chemtrails which exist over my head to the GMO food in my digestive tract to the electromagnetic fields emanating from 'smart' meters and cell towers, to the virtual reality that constitutes 'society' and its incongruous nature with objective reality which the masses have been conditioned to look upon as what is and therefore what ought to be. Thus I declare war on the Jewish entity and make my life's mission its annihilation from the earth and from the universe.

Revolution And Counter-Revolution

The established order either through its own intention (malice aforethought) or through its own inherent design flaws is subjected to a counter force to its force by that other force which no longer has a willingness to tolerate its continuance as the 'order of the day' and seeks its negation as a means of creating a vacuum through which something (apparently what is expected to be an improvement on the established order) will manifest as a replacement. This, in general outline, is the definition of a revolution: a force that opposes and seeks the negation of an existing force; a reaction to the action of a formation of power/force.

The system (this power block or formation) may seek its own destruction to all appearances as a means of advancing its tyranny/consolidating its strength/power – such as occurs in the liberal democratic system seeking to metamorphose into the moth of common-ism or 'democratic socialism', etc. a mendacious and cryptic form of overt-communism maintaining the façade of the popular vote. Such a case usually devolves into a dictatorship (certainly not of the proletariat), wherein the power elite maintain power and simulate contention with their own members through creating the appearance of rival factions such as 'leftism' and 'rightism', etc.

Though there may be slightly different interests existent between these factions they are all subscribers to the core set of values which consists of hypocrisy, self-interest maximization, and concealment behind the curtain (iron?) of rainbow reality democracy (the wizards of Zion behind the curtain of representation by population). The revolution the system instigates such as in instigating the 'oppressed masses' (via crushing them into poverty through taxation and mismanagement of resources) to revolt against itself and justify the use of force as a reaction (thereby culling the excess herd through punishment as dissidents or through eliminating competition from rival groups stigmatized as 'capitalists' or 'racists', etc.) thereby being an instrumental means to its consolidation of power.

Any legitimate revolution against the system not brought against itself by paid mercenaries and/or agitators must come from without and would thus be a revolution in the popular sense of an out-group combatting the elite for power and the subjugation of the latter's power.

Such a revolutionary action would necessitate a reaction in the form of a counter-revolution on the part of the state, taking out the opposition from within, assassinating key leaders and/or mobilizing clandestine mercenary groups as a counter force. These are the mechanics of revolutionary movements and their opposition. The notion of moral high-ground appeals only to white people who play by the marquis of Queensbury rules, according to abstract conceptions of justice, fairness, human rights, etc. whilst the beast-folk and their mundane demi-god the Jewish elite employ the communist tactics of 'by all means necessary' and 'all's fair in love and war'.

They are right in doing so from the standpoint of naturalistic ethics as fairness, etc. only functions in combat with those who acknowledge and embody these ethical ideals, the exclusive property of the Aryan race who alone plays by any rules – the hordes of the dark side playing simply by the one rule that 'there are no rules'. The revolution instigated by the world's archinstigator the Jew operates through the praxis of chaos wherein a slow protracted covert operation is undergone to undermine the foundations of their enemy's system though this system is itself (as in the case of the present 'western world') controlled by Jews. Given their hubris and internal chaos they have no choice but to continue to manifest their destiny through attempting to destroy their own soft power with the hard power of revolution as mechanism of delivering the world into their hands.

This revolutionary praxis necessitates the counter-revolution of order both from within the system itself and from without amongst the sympathetic populous. Thus the war is fought both within and without, clandestinely and in open combat between the corrupted establishment and lower level opposition as well as between the 'normies' amongst the populous split along lines usually created by the Jew in their mind control system in the first place (left/right, black/white, etc. – whatever is suitable to their ends).

Inevitably as history has borne out time and again, the chaos results in either an increase of power for the system and/or the expulsion of the reactionary conservatives (decapitation, etc.) and a complete takeover of the system by those styling themselves 'freedom fighters', 'reactionaries', etc. who are the Jews and their minions which inevitably leads to the totalitarian statism of communism/Jewish supremacism. If the system increases its power it does so only at the expense of the expulsion of the Jewish parasite from its midst. The end result is a product of the equations: society + Jews = destruction; and its flipside: society – Jews = construction/creation, a thriving society.

Survive Or Thrive

Not by bread alone will one exist, in the sense of having a life worthy of the name. To simply live for the perpetuation of the material body without any use for this material body to be put is simply a living death the serving of the servant whose master has abdicated in the name of low chthonic ideals: fight, flight, fornicate, feed – the fourfold drives of the beastman. Survival is the perpetuation of the living death, the unconscious exertion of cyclical drudgery, nine to five rat-wheel spinning, burned out through adrenal hormone secretion.

Survival unto death – and yet a living death, unconscious life of repetitive action counter- balanced with inaction (what is called ‘time off’ from the workaday grind) as a means of minimizing the fatigue of the economic unit whose ‘work life’ is measured via actuarial tables and quantified in databases to produce the prescribed ‘lifestyle’ for this economic unit, one with just sufficient incentive to continue to willingly submit itself to the electrodes of its mind control apparatus and allow itself to be drained of its bioenergy as a human (or sub-human) battery, to be discarded once its utility for the matrix has been expended via allopathic genocide.

Survival as such is of no value – better to go out with a bang than a whimper – this is thriving, even in the throes of death, in the crucible of the transmutation of one’s coarser elements into the higher forms – the pain of this metamorphosis results in the tangible product of etherialized matter, the tangible product of ‘survival as goal’ is the materialization of spirit and the extinction of the higher principle immersed with the denser states of matter, a sinking into the quicksand of chthonic physical life.

To survive is to simply live to die another day and repeat the charade of True life, the pantomime of real existence which is merely the shadow of real life, immersion in Maya, illusion, through property and income tax, bill payments, generation of ‘economic benefit’ – mere quantity subvertive of quality. To thrive on the other hand is to live consciously and this can only be attained by going within not through a mere outward projection of the self amidst the kaleidoscope of stimuli, sights, sounds, and sensations that constitute the fabric of the lived reality of the majority, those who live merely to survive within the system – even becoming the height of material excess within its limitations, nevertheless losing by winning in the matrix.

The New Morality

A new morality has come to supplant the old – that of Nature. This new morality must be heeded if one is to take heed of anything for failure to do so is to pronounce a death sentence upon oneself. The so-called ‘ethics’ of this moral imperative consists of the following dichotomy of the previous morality’s ‘Good vs. Evil: survival is moral (‘Good’), extinction is immoral (‘Evil’). The meaning of what is ethical has thus been radically changed in this new flowering of eternal verity, the Real Truth, not the so-called ‘truth’ of past dogma (Christianity), or the perspectivalistic ‘truths’ of its intermediate phase (liberalism).

The law tables of this new morality are fashioned from the aether through themselves without any external authority somehow waving his divine wand and precipitating them into being out of the ‘Rock of Ages’.

They are perpetually being written and yet are paradoxically the same – as they are the dynamic laws of Nature in their manifestation and no crude linguistic contrivance which establishes itself as the indelible codex Justitia can ever render static this dynamic reality as these contrivances themselves are subject to these laws of perpetual flux.

The new morality necessarily destroys the old as the old is merely an impoverished fairy tale which emanated from the fallible minds of primitive people, people sufficiently persuasive and convincing to establish through blood and iron (through the law of Nature that the stronger force overcomes the weaker) their own aspirations to divinity making gods in their image as an attempt to usurp the throne of god from god. These archaic tablets of roughhewn stone find themselves ground to dust through their own internal structure and the workings of those laws they arrogantly would supersede.

Discourse upon 'ethics' as a means of limiting other people's will and to put the latter into harness to subordinate them to one's own will – 'In the name of God (or Gaia) – I command thee.' Those who wish to control others first establish a fable or myth that establishes them in the position of priest – and this through force – and strikes down all of those who would contest their 'divine right' with a rod of iron. Thus all must, in order to fulfill their biological drives for pleasure, power, and panem, prostrate themselves before their priestly masters in obeisance to the latter's will. With the development of the technocratic system the masses are under severe mind control and their only hope is the internal destruction – in part under its own weight – of the system. Once it begins to topple, all that remains is to push it over – 'Babylon is falling, is falling'.

He-Man Master Of The Universe

Another leak in the matrix comes in the form of what presumably is a gnostic (and perhaps Jesuit in the sense of Jorg Lanz von Liebenfels) offering, an insight into the future possibility (probability) of what is to come after the conflagration between the Aryan He-man and the leader of the dark forces Skeletor the Jew, namely total victory for the 'Eternian', the Aryan race who alone are capable of attaining eternity through cultivating 'the power of Greyskull' and ascending beyond the material plane. Thereby they attain eternity and thus are called 'Eternians' (Aryans).

He-man the blond-haired, blue-eyed ruddy-skinned Aryan man who crusades (with his Maltese cross) for the survival of the 'little people' who live outside of Eternia (the mundane world, still living behind the veil of Maya) and who are constantly beset by the machinations of the evil Skeletor and his evil horde. He-man's name is Prince Adam, connotive of Adamic man, the Aryan race who are of 'God' not part of the creation of god and who thereby are 'masters of the universe' not subject to dissipation and absorption into the demiurge as energetic food.

Skeletor the minion of this demiurgic force and through whom it manifests itself on the mundane plane form 'Snake Mountain' (left-hand path black magic) as opposed to the white magic benevolence of Greyskull, both of which are energy flowing along the Shushumna (spinal canal only in contrary directions in the case of Greyskull (the skull) upward towards the higher realms and eternity; in the case of Snake Mountain downwards and onto the earth. Perhaps however both paths lead to eternity? But only how they are used and directed?

Skeletor the Jew wearing the colours of the demiurge (Saturn) those of the night side of Eden (purple and dark blue) is equipped with great knowledge as evinced by his plotting and cunning manipulation – pure intellect, leftbrain robot thought, logic and entropic cogitation – nevertheless lacking in wisdom as operating on a wavelength not in harmony with the sum total, devoted purely to egoic pursuits and thus doomed to failure from the outset whereas in the case of He-man he is the white mage who resonates with the sum total and through a heightened intuition and understanding can easily circumvent the plans of the Jew/Skeletor, whose magic is rooted in a perverse twisting of the order of things to serve his own megalomaniacal plans for conquest of the earthly plane and Eternia, a realm he is incapable of attaining.

Sorceress is the bearer of intuition (intuitive consciousness) which is the seat of wisdom in castle Greyskull whereas her counterpart in the evil horde is Evil Lynn who represents the sacred feminine intuition in its lowest octave as a black magic manipulation so prevalent in the discipline of psychology that power source which modern feminists plug themselves into as means of self-empowerment which always entails a relative decrease in the power of others from whom this power is taken and over whom it is wielded. The nanny state of today is represented by this Other- subjection by the feminine ego in its lowest octave.

Sorceress resonates with the sum total, Evil Lynn runs against the grain for purely self-serving ends. Beastman with his feral strength is the enowsh of the bible, the pre-Adamites who are part of the creation and incapable of transcending the material plane where they remain as an earthbound soul if not absorbed into the demiurge as energetic food. His counterparts (if such a parallel may be drawn) would be Ram-man (brute strength used for good as opposed to evil and thereby always of greater force necessarily capable of overcoming evil) and Man-at-arms whose technological weaponry easily supersedes Beastman and the evil horde. However this technology – itself a neutral force used for either good or evil – can be easily turned towards the source of evil and this is entrusted to the engineer Man—at- arms whose Aryan soul employs the technology for Good.

Both allegories of justice (the rare exception in a system of injustice) and of injustice are discoverable in countless forms in the pop culture even through (at this advanced stage in the dialectic of the Jews' evil) the good is overshadowed by the surfeit of evil which pervades the pop-cultural landscape. In spite of the degradation of the family and thereby the Aryan race in general by this mind control, good always finds a way to overcome evil, justice to rectify injustice. In the fantasy world of pop culture so too in the real world of politics at a micro and macro level: the Evil of the earth, the dark lord, is subjugated by the children of light, the Aryan (noble) race.

National Socialism –The Politicization Of Nature

Carrying the concrete organic into the abstract artificial such that the latter harmonizes with the former and yet elevates (to the extent this can be done) evolutionarily the kingdom of nature into the sphere of the human and the human into that of the superhuman through preservation of an authentic life living in accordance with nature. The architecture of the state (of human ingenuity and contrivance) seeks correspondence with that of nature in accordance with natural law and constitutes an entelechia, a self-propelling wheel which receives impulse from within (the human) and without (the natural), like a free energy device driven through electromagnetism.

Thereby destiny is attained through the denizens working harmoniously within the natural environment to develop themselves spiritually and materially through their own faculties utilizing the materials they had organically developed themselves along with through their personal histories which partake of a collective history and destiny, the collective consciousness of the racial group within a territory specific to it and in harmonious resonance therewith (be it South Africa, Australia, or Iceland and all points in between).

As a side note: the white man can adapt to all areas of the earth given his biological suitability to all environments but all other races suffer dis-ease states once they leave the borders of their own ancestral terrain.

National Socialism simply means a distinct racial group preserving and furthering their identity through socialistic means, a political formation which ensures that the community works holistically and is self-supportive through a system of rights and duties for the sake of the greater good of the racial nation not whichever individual can get the most (liberal democracy) or the redistribution of wealth from productive to unproductive people (communism).

A limited degree of commercial and individual freedom in service to the collective which implies duty and right for the individual who is a member of the collective. The environment (natural) is served as an organic part of the organism of the state and its health is bound up with that of the collective who derive their sustenance from the soil. Given that the existence of those two conceptually and only to some extent [meta]physically distinct beings (the humans and the environment) are existentially bound together, they either harmonize in self-supportive praxis or fragment and clash in relations of exploitation and the inevitable crumbling of the artificial architecture into ruins amongst the mightier force of nature. Thus harmony with the external environment is a necessity to preserve and enhance one's own kind and the artificial means through which this is attained is the only political creed which upholds natural law namely national socialism/fascism.

In contrast to this naturalistic creed which adheres to the laws of nature, exists its contemporary antithesis the liberal/socialist/communist state (leftist for short). Leftism is anti-nature, is a violation and transgression of natural law positing the arbitrary caprice of human ingenuity and intellect over and above the natural order for the purpose of ascension beyond the material plane towards the immaterial 'spiritual plane' which is of course immediately perverse as spirit and matter are one and the two are not contraries merely different states of vibration of energy fields.

This fundamental error of judgement/praxis, namely that 'humanity' can ascend beyond 'the veil of law' of materiality is the basis of leftism's anti-natural stance which as a consequence builds its cloud cuckoo-land architecture in the graven images of concrete and asbestos creating a Judeo-Freemasonic architecture doomed to fall under its own structural unsoundness. Those true believers in this creed live lives in a purely intellectual mental space wherein they lack the healthy instincts to understand how to live in a harmonious manner with the earth as they in their world of barren abstractions (mental abortions of numbers and ideas) believe themselves separable from the organic bases of life of life having no authentic self-understanding.

From thence they enable the flooding of society with foreign races on the abstract basis of numbers (money) and the ideology of 'individualism' or 'secular humanism' which engenders the 'multicultural society', an anti-society comprised of heterogeneous elements, a euphemism for 'multiracial' which the creed of humanism denies and which therefore doesn't exist in the minds of the overly intellectualized bourgeoisie (the self-interested converts to this anti-natural creed).

Those purveyors of this creed are themselves anti-natural as an anti-race, a hybrid from the middle east, the Jews. That no hereditary relationship with the land ever existed in the Jew given that he had no blood and therefore no soil could ever stabilize and fix his instable inner chaos (his fate was to wander around and buy and sell as a means of subsistence. This mercantile philosophy took on the form of modern-day leftism/liberalism under the Jew and ultimately reduces to communism through the most cunning and well-connected merchant and his organization (read 'mafia') taking the power of government into their own hands and becoming instead of usurers and loan sharks, commissars who hold absolute sway over the populace, enabled by the complacent and self-interested bourgeoisie whose personal profit superseded tribal loyalty.

Leftism is a creed in violation of natural law as in essence it seeks to overcome and exploit nature both in terms of the identity of peoples (races) and the health of the natural environment through its technocratic destruction of the natural world. Leftism is the antithesis of National Socialism.

"White Self-Hate Master Stroke Of The enemy" – George Lincoln Rockwell

How is this phenomenon explained if it even admits of explanation? The theory of pathological altruism which purports to psychopathologize whites falls dead in the water as the altruism whites express towards the Other and to their detriment was not displayed historically. Thus it is not an innate 'psychopathology' that whites possess or are possessed by but rather lies in a cause external to the nature of whites as clearly there is no tendency in whites to self-abuse save in relation to higher standards which they hold themselves to.

It is these standards perhaps which are the problem. From whence do these standards come and what is their scope and aim? Clearly whites did not create these norms of sin expiation which presupposes a self-understanding of oneself as a 'sinner' or transgressor or some law: natural, divine, or other? Or perhaps they have. Perhaps this is indeed their psychopathology, namely to hold themselves to impossibly high standards that they must either put aside or fall before as Icarus fell from the sky when he reached the limit of his wings' endurance in his quest for the sun? Who then introduced this standard of messianism and sin expiation into the consciousness of whites? Was it they themselves or some other source? Perhaps both.

Clearly and in conclusion, whoever or however this standard became ingrained in the consciousness of whites it nevertheless was inflated and worked up through the influence of the Jew in the Christian churches and liberal newspapers as well as 'Uncle Tom's cabin' style books which the Jews have written (Mark Twain's 'Huckleberry Finn' being another one).

Thus the problem of encountering the 'Other' with open arms and the white flag of peace continues to persist given that the mind has been clouded by these impossible standards of 'doing no harm' to the Other which works wonderfully well within a white context but fails entirely in relation to the biological other, those who are non-white and thus de natura racial enemies. This confusion of the mind on the part of whites conflating the laws of nature and laws which perhaps exist merely in the mind or at least partly is to blame for a failure to tread a 'straight and narrow path' according to cosmic law.

The Jew has instilled this confusion in the mind of the whites through subtle mind control, through repetition of his subversive creed: White people are sinners, non-whites are victims of their sins and whites must expiate their sins through reparations to those they have allegedly victimized. Having regard for the 'Other' (social kinsman) misapplied to racial/special foreigners is certainly a sign of pathology when it is at the expense of one's own. 'White self-hate' is thus inculcated in the mind of the white through this mind control of the Jew as a mechanism to weaken the whites and use their nonwhite slaves as a battering ram against the white population.

What can be done to eradicate this programming from the minds of youth and from whites of all ages and most ideological divides (libtardarians, libtards, Christards, patriotards, kosher cuckservatives, etc.)?

Answer: a recognition of the influence and existence of the Jew and specifically how they have created these 'idea'-logies as mind programs to install in the consciousness of the white population as a subversive means of takeover. The ideology foremost which underpins all others were considered and which is most significant in its destroying influence is egalitarianism wherein the fallacy of composition holds its arbitrary sway through improperly combining the uncombinable namely elevating non-whites to the level of whites and casting down the mighty whites into the hellfire of the melting pot. Thus to eradicate egalitarian ideas from the minds of whites is the goal – at least for their own spiritual salvation.

Thus and only thus can 'white self-hate' be eradicated? White survival is ensured however not merely through talk but through the violent opposition of all out struggle, the RaHoWa (racial holy war) for survival and ultimate victory as supreme beings on the earth. The wake-up need not come in the form of counter-propaganda alone but in that of a simple confrontation with the facts of life: non-white violence and Jewish treachery, backstabbing, and malignancy. The lessons of the school of hard knocks will be harsh indeed for the somnolent masses.

Would that it were easy – that a few messages and signs were spread that would alert the broad masses as to the dormancy of the perceptual lucidity they have exchanged for their bread and circuses. Soon the circus will be a gladiatorial circus and the broad masses will be forced to earn their bread by the blood of their enemies brow, else they will pour out the stream of their own blood as a libation to those they considered their equals but who were merely waiting for the right moment to strike in underhanded and irrational fury against those who represented a mirror which reminded them of their ugliness and which they wished to smash as a gesture of otherhatred as they were too involved in self-love to appreciate the superiority of those they could never be and so had recourse to destroying that which outshone them. Even in death in the physical eternal life is available to the 'shining ones', a.k.a. White Race. - If and only if they have not immersed themselves in the baseness of materiality of Samsara.

The Myth Of The Multicultural Nation

Premise - A nation is a race. Premise 2 – a society is a creation of a race. Premise 3 (conclusion) – therefore no multiracial society can exist; implicit premise: the notion of a multiracial nation is an absurdity.

The above syllogism is a deductively valid argument. The opponent would attempt to deny its semantic content on some hazy emotive grounds refusing to address and refute any of the premises. Such a rebuttal is of course extraneous and irrelevant to an acceptable, rational refutation which is of course more than can be expected from the irrational (the only beings outside of the mendacious – Jews and anti-whites – who would not acknowledge its validity). What follows from the premises above is a recognition of the necessity (in the mind of the 'reasonable man', being a rational agent) of the negation of this negation of identity called 'multiculturalism' if and only if of course he desired the prolongation of the identity of those racial/national groups or their destruction.

Conclusion: multinational/ethnic societies are the instrument of genocide for those nations/ethnicities which play host to this Babel of discordant voices. The recipe for survival of any ethnic group subjected to this protocol is to negate the negation. Specifically by any means necessary and the most efficient means. Such is the hard 'either-or' of survival: either one fights to prolong their own life which entails that of their nation or they will die with the death of their nation through the brutal conflict of each attempting to preserve their own kind within the same territory.

If permitted to live they themselves will have their identity erased and will thus live a life of harassment and abuse or have a foreign inauthentic identity imposed upon them by the victor.

Premise: civilization is a product of the white man. Premise 2: a territory created by but without whites but instead non-whites. Premise 3 (conclusion): collapse of civilization.

From the above syllogism we can deduce a conditional inference: either white supremacy and civilization or white extinction and savagery. The barbarity of the non-whites is a function of their barbarous minds – civility is a construct of the white man and does not exist in their crude faculties.

They concern themselves with one another only for the purpose of selfish greed and assail one another not with invective alone but with brute physicality when their insatiable greed finds no object to quench itself: their greed being boundless they necessarily have no capacity for civilization as that necessitates civility.

Hence the altruistic whites are the only biological group (nation) that can be spoken of as having the capacity for civilization. The notion that non-whites can enter into the society of whites and become so-to-speak 'white-washed' simply through stepping over an invisible line illustrates the naiveté of universalists and their anti- natural credo.

Aborticide Revisited

A tool of genocide is aborticide and this tool though harmful, is and has been of utility to the social planners in their population reduction protocols. The end which they have in mind being desirable in their mind and their ethics consisting merely in a psychopathic rationality (a reptilian-brained consciousness elevated and refined through intellectualism – elevated to a higher degree of malignancy) the means is for them endowed with no moral content or sentimentality but merely the coldness of a scalpel or instrument of destruction.

The social planner (invariably one of the luciferian cabal whose credo is to be beyond good and evil, typically a freemason, Jew, or member of the Catholic orders) legislates with a similar cold rationality and brings into play his minions through incentives of power and money to orchestrate his will in the population reduction plan.

Aborticide is the means as it is specific and facilitates the further plan of creating a chaotic environment socially wherein no disincentive (i.e. parental responsibility) exists and the incentive of the primordial urge (sex) motivates those who avail themselves of the abortion on demand to continue heedless of the consequences as there are none in their mind save the time and effort spent in arranging an appointment at the abortion clinic.

Thus for the crude and callous female (the female murderer, aborticidist) it is merely 'water off a duck's back' for them...at least, so they are indoctrinated to think by the feminist mind control of the Jew World Order. However in consequence of such an act and complicity therewith there are indeed consequences but only those which can be intuitively known by the Aryan woman whose higher consciousness enable her to understand the error of her ways.

The non-whites, being of a lower consciousness and having an inability thereby to sense the wrong of aborticide simply undergoes the procedure as a matter of course. In fact the animalistic tendencies of the non-whites incline them towards such a practice as nothing foreign to their interests having predispositions towards similar barbarities from genital mutilation to cannibalism all of which are a praxiological emanation so to speak of their innate constitution.

This of course holds for all non-whites including those typically instantiated as the pinnacle of their hierarchy, namely the Chinese and other far-eastern Orientals (cannibalism and the consumption of fetal tissue being in no way taboo within their traditional society).

The debate around aborticide as what has been called an 'ethical issue' centers around the notion that to negate life is wrong/bad/untoward, etc. and that there are certain degrees of life and non-life that qualify on a sliding scale the permissibility of 'abortion' as the negation of life. I disagree with this given that it overlooks distinctions between types of life, the being itself in its substance which is being subject to 'aborticide'.

To fail to make such a distinction is to imply that life per se has inherent worth which is a fallacy given that it would not have existed in the first place if it were not enabled to exist and even if it had an in spite of being enabled or disabled by the larger society (e.g. foreign aid, birth control pills, etc.) it would not have inherent value save as 'what it is' and this implies no equality (blacks, whites, retards, race-mixed hybrids, etc.) therefore no equal worth. For a negroes to have an 'abortion' as discussed above it is in a way the same as a white Aryan woman. Thus we derive the conclusion that aborticide for some is permissible whereas for others prohibited.

This is no double standard as each standard is different and biologically based, a black being a separate type having a separate standard applied to them. Of course de natura and de jure that standard is applied by someone and that someone is subject to their own standard based upon their essence and can only view the world through a finite lens.

However the absolute within this relativism lies in the nature of natural and the 'inequality of human races' that the Aryan partakes of the divine spark and the others have an absence of this same being at best (worst) hybridized with whites (Jews, Arabs, Japanese, Indians, etc.). Thus the standards differ and accordingly aborticide is a possibility for some while still remaining within the scope of natural law and 'morality' in this absolutist sense. The occult credo of 'do no harm' is to be applied in a wider sense than merely avoiding injury a fly which carries a noxious bacilli that might devastate whole populations. Thus aborticide is acceptable within the natural law for those who would create a larger harm.

That the evidence suggests that non-whites equal crime and proportionally the more of one implies the more of the other it follows that they inherently represent a threat to a stable and functional society. Therefore they should be culled from the society. Perhaps certain portions of them could be kept as zoo exhibits in protected reserves in their own ancestral territory to replicate the conditions of their ancestors as a research population and tourist exhibit for the education of white youth. Much progress in the field of science could be attained and with minimal problem given a sustainable population.

Human Experimentation

The question here is whether this is permissible from the standpoint of natural law, namely the preservation of the harmony of existence, with 'human being restricted in its definition to the white race. The answer is yes but only to the extent of refraining from harm. What constitutes 'harm' – that which impedes or prevents the fulfilment of the destiny of the being in question. Within the scope of natural law however there is no limit to experimentation performed upon those who are Other to oneself save that of mitigating harm and serving the greater good. Hence experimentation on sentient beings harmful or otherwise is one of the harsh-necessities of life and necessary for the fulfillment of the destiny of the white race and its flourishing over the earth.

Of course as with all actions the obligation to instigate harm applies to the extent that the harm is necessary as applied. All biological groups (erroneously called 'races') practice such behaviour of experimenting/using the 'Other' as means of enriching themselves only the end goal is radically different amongst the different types non-whites typically gravitating towards the gratification of immediate impulse (cannibalism, voodoo rituals, etc.) as opposed to the higher pursuits of the Aryan who seeks an understanding of truth.

Perhaps in the case of the oriental type the utility ascends beyond the coarsest indulgence and is undergone for the sake of utility (slave labour, etc.) but is not infrequently accompanied by a cruel sadomasochism that more often than not is sought as an end and not merely an analog of higher purpose (Chinese water torture, shamanic rituals, etc.).

The experimentation upon animals is claimed by those who subscribe to a pacifistic ethics that all actions that inhibit the will of a creature – what they construe as molestation – is prohibitive within their system of ethics whereas all willful striving is inherently interfering with that of others which is why their ethics are anti-natural and mere utopian pipe dreams never possible of realization. Thus animal experimentation and by extension animals of a higher order often called humans (non-whites) is permissible to the extent that it does no unnecessary harm to serve the greater good of the white Aryan race.

Common Sense Equation

Matter = crystallized spirit = distinct soul type = distinct physical type = distinct behavioral tendencies = distinct societal type = distinct cultural expression. Therefore given that the outer is the inner and the inner is the outer the type of soul can be inferred on the basis of culture.

The higher the culture, the higher the soul and vice versa, emphasis on vice. The way in which a race behaves points towards their inner being and wellspring of action - their soul type, or caste of mind. All culture worthy of the name has been that of the white race, all rudiments of bestial exertions that would drape itself on the mantle of culture are merely the assemblage of the workings of the primitive mind. Heat produces enervation and leads to the exhaustion of nerve force – This is borne witness by the culturally backward races who languish amidst the ruins of ancient civilizations (themselves derived from the Aryans who were of Nordic extraction) and who have no creative power or divine spark within them.

That the energies of the Northern Aryans become extinguished through prolonged subsistence in hot environments is also testified to by the collapse of all societies in the southern hemisphere, truly the cradle of stagnation (even the Atlantean derived Egyptians, could only preserve their culture for so long, copying the previous forms that were transmitted with each generation, deviating with each century toward a backwardness that floundered through miscegenation with the Kushite Negro slaves and soldiers). Sustenance for the Northman lies in the north from out of which emanates the will – extinction lies in the south, land of the fecundity of plant and animal life of the weaker variety.

The enervating nature of heat stifles productivity and stultifies thought: Office buildings use air conditioning, school semesters begin in the fall. This is because the cool atmosphere enables thought and heightened drive and creative ability. This is the reason why summer vacations exist – unless one can artificially decrease body and atmospheric temperature, productivity ceases.

The Strongman And His Danger

Toppling a regime that is well entrenched requires the necessary force to topple it and this necessary force – to be effective in accomplishing the goal to which it is directed – must be directed by an effective agent who gives it the direction and trajectory along which it can be transmitted to strike at the target. The danger involved in this strongman and following or joining him is that he may misdirect this force as an enemy infiltrator and operative towards yourself or in controversies to your ideals and purpose or he may do so through ineptitude or fundamental character flaws thereby making him an ineffective operator.

This hero figure is thus the embodiment of risk and where thoroughly transparent is in proportionate to his opacity, suspicious. Allegiance given to such may precipitate one's own death by jumping on the bandwagon of this hero leader and winding up in the enemy camp delivered to those who were apparently vehemently opposed by him. Pied pipers who came out of the woodwork without any background or established reputation through nexuses of relations themselves established as 'friendlies' are of the shadiest cast and therefore not to be trusted. The leader should be followed only to the extent of his reasonably trustworthy character and autobiography, his historical role and relations with Others sufficiently reasonably trustworthy, and of the same character, cut from the same cloth.

Once the effective strongman is identified, then allegiance may be given and the probability of conquering the opponent is then a matter of relative strengths and weaknesses of character amongst contending parties; resources and material conditions, the nitty and the gritty of tactics– the strategy being to destabilize and overthrow the regime. Hence, from the standpoint of practical advisement, a keen psychological understanding, an adamant precision in detailed practical knowledge of the arts and sabotage, and mechanical know-how (power systems, electrical factories) is the only resource required beyond the self-supportive infrastructure that enables the operation to be carried out and to sustain itself in its ongoing metamorphoses (eg. survival retreat, vehicles, firearms, explosives materials, food, networks, etc.).

At this point in history to be an effective participant in the institution of a new regime, one must become a 'domestic terrorist'/'revolutionary', whichever term corresponds to one's value system and from which perspective and by whom this category of persons is evaluated. Perhaps at this time the strongman merely serves as an archetype determining and impelling correspondent action derivative thereof before which the individual operator genuflects in modeling himself upon and simultaneously modeling and creating this archetype through his revolutionary/terroristic praxis, his acts and omissions.

One must in short become who he is, become the strongman and heroically oppose the tyranny, which besets that which he appoints himself to defend. God-like, he is a self-chosen hegemon who declares: "Off with their heads!" The danger in microcosm of the strongman archetype is that one's reach will exceed his grasp and that he will fall short of his hero quest and be laid waste by a force whose strength he underestimated through overestimating his own, thinking he was merely a sub-man; the ludicrous image of the emaciated teenager flexing in the mirror of his vanity. This best illustrates this failed project over before it began. Self-criticism here is key, an assessment of one's own capacity based on cold reason, and comparison with that of Others is necessary.

One as devoid of bias as possible and the means towards this is to properly assess and understand oneself to a sufficient extent to overcome his bias – to view the glass and not simply the image beyond to thereby decipher the image in its exact proportions. To sculpt and mold the self into this living archetype requires a possibility of such correspondence metaphysically as well as physically to bring spirit into matter so to speak, to structure the phenomenal of 3-D reality in accordance with the noumenal. Think big to be big and bigger to be bigger – across all necessary lines and in all necessary categories: mind, body, and spirit/will.

The requisite training should condition the mind to be unaffected by the transient strength of maya but should inculcate endurance and willpower as the bedrock upon which to erect the temple of the living god for the Ragnarok. Concentration and mediation exercises as well as telekinetic and clairvoyant – the usage of the plastic mediation of the astral light or magnetism should be this mental/noumenal foundation of all physical praxis. Mental influence and Other so-called black magic or left-hand path techniques should be cultivated as this is the basis of all motivation and animate existence, namely the harnessing of the will for the cultivation of the will. This mind power translates itself into the more coarse modalities of existence in brawn and endurance and speed – the manifestations in varied forms of force through its being concentrated and directed consciously towards some particular action.

‘One- pointed concentration of attention’ is will which is the basis of all life and action. This is also the transcendent springboard above and yet not independent of the material plane which latter merely serves as the vehicle for its expression. The strongman has always at his disposal a strong will and a strong will makes a strongman. “A yes; a no; an arrow; a goal,” –Nietzsche. And the arrow is matter without which no actions in the material plane manifest, the direction of the arrow and the force used in pulling the bowstring and releasing the arrow are all will. Minds make people who perform actions, which build societies – that is also the means through which societies crumble, through decadence and overthrow through greater oppositional force.

Heresy: Now And Then

What was previously heretical and revolutionary is now the norm. Therefore, modern heresy is anti-modernism, i.e. traditionalism. The new inquisition is the politically correct liberal who enforces the bigoted dogma of ‘everything is permitted’ so long as it maximizes pleasure and minimizes pain for the greatest possible number [of elites clandestinely]. Heresy now consists in rediscovery of tradition which exist for a higher purpose than sensationalism and one thus firmly rooted in eternity.

That which is transient, borne of chaos, (Leftism or Bolshevism or Luciferianism) is the inherent instability of a system of ideology which necessarily decays from within through its own design flaws and weaknesses which exist solely through deviation from tradition which is that unio mystica of man and nature/cosmos that overarches the developing consciousness of fallible man – the proven ‘straight and narrow’ path in opposition to the broad and winding of the left hand. Thus order rectifies chaos as chaos is simply a disturbance in the plastic mediator which elicits that response ordine geometrico. Thus modern heresy is an ordering of disorder through adherence to /attunement with the harmony of existence. Thus it flies in the face of the sacred cows of modernity: race mixing and sex perversions and the denial of proper relations between self, group and Other.

The dynamic motor force that is life, the struggle for and as existence necessitates preservation through maintaining the organic being that differentiates those beings which create the dynamic tension through which their existence is assured. The credo of modernity is 'equality' which elicits a pleasant sensation in the ignorant and indoctrinated proselytes of modernity if flaunted and violently it needs must be opposed and annihilated through counter-force, through 'taking a stand' through harboring inner strength and maintaining and enduring through the storm of the culture chaos.

Standing firm against this onslaught of chaotic forces is a necessary condition of carrying forward the battle to the enemy and preserving the promethean flame against the downpour through igniting its divine spark with the tinder and friction of the gears of one's energy body/spirit. From thence (inner being), the outer manifests socio-politically apropos the spiritual awakening. One becomes a heretic in a real sense by embracing God and eschewing dark forces rendered popular by neon lights and enticing siren calls of jungle drums in the dark of chaotic night. The light of day dawns and piercing the darkness illumines true wisdom.

This is encapsulated in the phrase 'living in accordance with nature' - with whose nature, with what nature? – Gnothe Seuton is the answer. Not necessarily becoming Adam in an apple orchard, but embodying the Aryan seed and divine spirit within – radiating outwards. The sham heretics of modernity who pursue doggedly its curse of perdition towards self- destruction upon the rocks of karma and ignorance of natural law are the hapless victims of the heresies against tradition, who live in willful ignorance yet absurdly wish to live while willing to die through their own inner chaos. Wishing is not willing but impotence of willing, as the vehicle of will is causality and a 'gnostic' knowledge of its mechanism the means through which it is manifested.

The wish for a life of unbridled pleasure to the point of exhaustion – and per absurdum beyond – is a wish never to be fulfilled. A stern will necessitates a crystalline lucidity of vision, an icy gaze to perceive the truth – and to 'do with aversion what duty declares' – however without aversion, without emotion but solely as an automation of reason operating once the edict from above has been issued. Thus the pleasure principle requires transcendence in order to arrive at truth which for many entails a taking of the hand from the cookie jar of pleasure maximization and pain minimization.

Sometime one must grasp hot coals in place of cookies in order to transcend the lower states of consciousness to discover his own true nature and to understand the personality for what it is, namely a conglomeration of sense experience stitched together with the needle and thread of reason and imagination creating a tapestry of maya before which to prostrate oneself – gazing into the mirror of the lower ego. Galileo was a heretic because he denied dogma which violated natural law; the man of tradition is a heretic because he affirms it in the face of anti-natural dogmas of modernity. Heresy is supportive of truth when all dogma deviates therefrom and heresy deviates from the dogma. When heresy accords with dogma and dogma violates truth so too does heresy.

Heresy in the face of dogma is a manifestation of the strength of will of the individual against the prevailing order (politically); the collective consciousness (socially) and against his worst judgment (when true); against his better judgment (when false). A heretical consciousness is inherently masculine – it disagrees, opposes, combats and seeks to conquer the totem created before its arrival – a duel ensues and the bloodlustful will of the heretic throws itself if needs be on the sword of the opponent – if only to rake at the eyes covered as they are perceived to be with scales of gold or strangle and break the neck with dying breath and draining life's blood. The martyrdom of the heretic is the death act of conquering oppositional dogma. Only reason as guide strengthens the mettle of the sword of will poised to kill the dragon of dogma. Unreason unleashes a mad assassin whose efficacy in dispatching his opponent is subject more to the play of unconscious forces and situational factors than the Other. Thus the lunatic of a heretic is necessarily ill-equipped for victory. The stronger the dogma, the harder the will and weapons of war must be to attain its defeat.

Compus Mentus

Psychiatric criteria to determine what is called 'mental competence', and its definition. 'Comprehension of reality based on causality', having faculties of perception (5th senses) attuned to the objective structure of being, 'the isness that is', as well as being able to manifest this comprehension through the faculties through utilization of controllable behavioral responses to stimuli when such control can be established by impartial observers through tests of the functionality of the organs and their control through themselves (ie. autonomic nervous system response/reaction to stimuli, such as reflex responses, pupillary dilation or contraction in response to light, etc.).

If the machine is working and operative and the machine operates 'normally' in relation to an environment – the person is assumed 'normal', ie. compus mentus and therefore liable to punishment given transgression of imposed rules and their correlative penalty – 'ignorantiam non est' – an excuse. Abductive reasoning serves as the basis of this judgment ('psychiatric assessment') whereby the observer (psychiatrist) is deemed impartial though this is obviously an absurdity and the question of compus mentus should be leveled at the observer. Of course the state of mental competence is based largely on the standards imposed by the society in which this notion is formulated and by the ruling elite who flesh out its skeleton.

Reason rules the world and the real is the rational and the rational is the real – to the extent of bourgeois reality which is of course the standard of the 'reasonable man' – the be all and end all of a world governed by quantity and abstraction – emanating ex cathedra from the accounting house of merchant class quantitative reasoning. The fundamental principles, ie. 'errors' of the theories of 'human nature' underpin this evaluation of mentality, ie. the pleasure principle a totemic idol of veneration of homo economicus, balancing pleasure and pain in the homeostatic economy of Bourgeois conformism – work a period and have a 'weekend off', work a period of these periods and have a 'vacation', etc.

The individual differences existing organically are subordinated to this construct which is constructed by hidden hands for the purpose of creating a self-fulfilling prophecy and reifying the idea of universality of reason the fundamental principle of secular humanism, itself a fictional ideology, a religious philosophy imposing its imperialism upon the disparate masses. Psychiatric assessment is the chain that binds potential dissidents and castrates those whose aggressive rebelliousness threatens the status quo through pharmaceutical/ chemical/ electrical/microwave/ physical restraint or even destruction be it gradual or immediate (lobotomies, executions, surgeries, destruction of proper physiological function via above means).

The standard of mental competence weighed down by the anchor of secular humanist limitation denies transcendence of basic drives and reasoning processes which conflict with it and would supersede their leveling function. As a consequence of 'humanism' which is itself a mere religious postulate and fictional concept having no relation to parties so assessed all are pulled down to the level of savagery – or nearly so, to the level of bourgeois conformism and purely functional economic unity. Secular humanism is the foundation of both liberal democratic capitalism/quasi-socialism and Bolshevik communism, a reductio ad absurdum to the lowest common denominator called 'human' and this precept elevated to the status of the absolute. The absolute de re and as a consequence – in the case of a natural law jurisprudence – de jure must be relativized from this lowly height/depth to form a new absolute – namely the superman which soars above the plebian masses overshadowing them in their darkest ignorance while itself partaking of the sun of mind.

The standard of 'compus mentus' is adequate for the laity but not the priest class whose consciousness is as an eagle in relation to a frog. 'Supercompus mentus' would be the level of superhumanity, its base standard which entails to the extent compatible that Other standard of mere 'competence; and yet diverges from it expansively and as it were 4-dimensionally in relation to a 3-D materialistic beast consciousness the latter perhaps elevated only slightly from the level of the brute which itself displays signs of reasoning in an elementary form.

Beast – man – superman is the evolutionary progression from depth to height. The faculties of the superman would be something along the lines of clairvoyance/audience; psychokinesis, etc. The development of the mind at higher levels in the energy/subtle bodies thereby expanding power would be the condition of superhumanity.

Perhaps someday the standard of 'compus mentus' will cease to exculpate one from legal punishment when the new standard entails the expansive faculties aforementioned and their concomitant influence on 'humanity' now 'superhumanity'. This is progress in a real sense, in terms of objectivity, not the communistic 'progress' of social planner utopians who would reduce the current stock of humanity to stockyard animals – 'sub-humanity' to the jungle states of beast consciousness. The former is the evolutionary path; the latter the devolutionary; the former is eugenics, the latter malgenics; the former socialism in the sense of natural law, the latter in violation thereof. Progress or regress, up on the stairway to heaven or down the elevator shaft to hell.

The Children Of Light Vs. The Children Of Darkness

Adherents of order and adherents of disorder; those whose spiritual constitution is in resonance with Cosmos and those conflictual therewith. Cosmos vs. chaos on the material plane manifested and embodied in legions of 'like' beings operating in accordance with their essence – 'existing their essence'; invariably and predictably such that no peace save through death can be brought upon the earth.

No Satan is transformed into a Christ through psycho-social mean of pseudo-sophisticated 'conversations' of the psychologists and social workers. Only death in the physical brings redemption to those beings bathed in the blood and gore of the sinner. Their death augurs peace, their life the perpetual conflict leading to the ultimate end game of their own self-destruction as they live only to destroy – such is the nature of a child of darkness.

Though a child of light lives in harmony with the sum total, this necessitates the destruction of those beings who are of darkness, as to destroy destroyers is to negate the negation and to manifest true love is to recognize necessity – order – and thereby to subjugate disorder, if need be at the point of a sword.

The flaming sword of Krist is not merely the inner light and utilization of willpower but is even that crude and cruel steel which strikes at the black heart of chaos and its earthly representatives the children of darkness who could never tolerate the light of Cosmos to shine forth with its radiance upon the earth transforming the hell of technological artifice into the paradise of nature, harmony, and beauty, The earth-rapists and the destroyers of the good destroy themselves through striking at the pillars upon which they would erect their temples of gold. Samson and Lucifer would wrench the swords from the kristed knights and slay them on the alter of their hubris but in the midst of the shaking the foundation of the temple they invoke the hand of Cosmos, falling upon their own swords through the influence of providence, going into the holiest of holies with their bloated entrails and blood of infection vampirized from the victims of their sacrifice, brutal lust for power. Thus in the end chaos is annihilated through its own inner structure and ceases to wreak its havoc through existing in contravention of Cosmic/Natural law, of the order of the universe.

The disruption of this harmony conduces to greater self-knowledge by contrast through this acceleration of evolution comes at the prices of those causal agents who instigate this same chaos. All are sinners but it is the will towards chaos or order which determines guilt or innocence of punitive repercussions.

The violators of the law impale themselves upon the very sword they would intend to subjugate their foe with. In creating strife they are put to order through annihilation. Thus the word to the wise is to 'do no harm' in the sense of least harm not no harm as to avoid harming he who harms is to grant permission to continue to harm – to cease to care about injury is itself to perpetrate an injury. Thus good and evil exist in the form of order and chaos and those who have allied themselves with either carve out their own destiny. Alternatively to do good is the imperative of those who harbor within themselves an orderly constitution, are the light-bearers of the true, not the false, light and are thereby children of God (Cosmos).

The error often made by those who aspire to this state borne as it is of their own ignorance is that to please Others is the good whereas to simply do what accords with the greatest harmony (not necessarily for the greatest number but simply for the greatest) is what is good. Hence the multifarious examples of 'do-gooders' and 'busy-bodies' who poke their noses into the business of Others and disturb the organic relations existent between beings Otherwise in a state of harmony even if it be tribal war and colonialist imperialism. For not all are equal and giving to Others who have no capacity to use or any will to develop these gifts is to waste resources and incubate cancer cells within the host body.

Far from being harmonious this is in fact the converse and leads to sufficient chaos to precipitate order through the self and Other destruction of those living weeds watered by the blood and brow sweat of superior types who are themselves subjected to extreme mind control and black magic mental influence by the children of darkness, have brought about their own destruction or at least purgatory for their sins of watering the poison weeds in the garden of Eden. Thus many delicate flowers must be choked out by the burgeoning weeds before they choke themselves out. Such is the debt of karma the 'do-gooder' imposes upon them.

Thereby they cease to exist in sympathetic resonance with the whole – the sum total – and fall into sin borne of their own ignorance, apathy, and weak will. The true child of light must be a green thumb in the Garden of Eden, and though this thumb may be speckled with its own blood as it rips from the soil the choking weeds it nevertheless springs eternal and cultivates this earthly vale of tears into a paradise of refulgent glory.

What Constitutes Fitness

For a means to be a means it is so in relation to a goal which latter governs its meaning, determines it as a means. So too in the case of fitness, viability for life this goal (life/survival) is structured by the means to life, ie. a person in an environment. Adaptation is fitness, the suitability for life in a given environment, the means of the person being possessed to enable survival/life in that environment.

To function in the marble halls of palatial suites as a courtier requires adaptability unsuited to the mountain man of the Alps – and vice versa. Neither has any moral superiority simply a matter of difference. Is the courtier superior to the mountaineer? With respect to his being a courtier can be the only answer. The courtier favors himself qua courtier, the mountaineer qua mountaineer and no comparison may be had save in relation to arbitrary standards imposed from without which bears no relationship to fitness to the end or purpose of either.

The courtier's standards are his own and are held in contempt by the mountaineer and so too vice versa. However much of a modicum of respect is passed between the two. The standard of the courtier is that of reason and intuitive comprehension of the subtleties of human interaction, their verbalization governed by tact and mores. Thus it is a higher standard – relative to these attributes and qualities.

The standard of the mountaineer is that of rugged endurance, attunement with the elements and keen perception and knowledge of weather and seasonal changes, of animal behavior, etc. His standard is higher – in that environment. If relocated to the city he brings with him these faculties acutely developed in the countryside and may bring them to bear upon the situations of the urban environment which spring forth. Though his rough and unpolished behavior would undoubtedly lead to exclusion from the subtle innuendo and unctuous grace of the urbanite denizens with whom he may chance to encounter his heightened sensibilities serve to augment the environment into which he is thrown.

This of course is like looking at a teeming multitude of sensa with a telescope or having a hearing aid amplifying its tempestuous noise. All senses are augmented and amplified and this renders the mountaineer inept in functioning in an environment attunement to the subtleties of which are a distraction from the narrow and intense focus necessary to function in that environment. Thus unless he be resident in that environment for a prolonged period and his keen peasant senses are dulled by the chaos he will never attain the coarseness of sensibility necessary to exist amidst the welter of sensationalism that bombards the senses. Thus he will not be fit and will fail to adapt to that 'hyper' environment in a peaceable mountain expanse is a welcome relief as the environment he is fitted to.

The courtier, when left stranded as a Robinson Crusoe, inept in fitness to function in a natural environment must sharpen his senses perhaps destroyed through enervation in city life or be the feast of the fauna and find himself fitted to nature as waste matter decaying in the ground as opposed to functioning within the natural surroundings as an adept mountain man. To be a mountain climber and climb that lofty summit requires the sinews of iron a mountain man has developed and to attain this state one must have the base level capacity to endure the necessary hardships.

These weakened beings from the urban sprawl of pestilential chaos called urban environments are seldom adapted to the hard struggle of the mountains. Those of the mountains are hard-pressed to polish their coarseness to the requisite extent to function in the city. However the difference lies in this and gives the laurel wreath to the victor: that one is more a matter of biology the Other of artifice; one of genetics indelible and inseparable, the Other of environment which most any can undergo.

Given the heightened sensibility of the country man he is in fact more suited and adapted to intellectual pursuits than the sense-dulled city man who can function well in an environment given his conditioning but the base lead he has to work with can't but change into an alloyed gold amalgam, whereas the country man attains pure gold through this alchemical process.

Reason Vs. Passion

Perhaps a life of pure reason would be superior to that of an impassioned life wherein nothing but emotional states and a rudimentary reasoning faculty existed, the latter simply as a mechanical motor for the attainment of the former? Perhaps a complete detachment from emotion and a pure mechanical life of rational automation – pure intellection – would be preferable. Reason dealing with causality and means to ends with itself posited as end? Obviously this would be an absurdity even if from a purely logical standpoint as rationality has as its end knowledge which is only aimed at and supported through process of reason but is not reason itself.

Knowledge/mind and mentation in this sense is barren without the emotional/sensational component inextricably bound up therewith. Knowledge is incorporation of sense experience into the mind which is rationally arranged and processed to amount to acceptance of the given of experience – mediated through this means – called truth, the purpose of which is the ground upon which decisions are made and actions based for the purpose of the attainment of non-rational purposes even if through reason (and desirably so).

The goal posited rationally is that consistent with the furtherance of the evolution of the being positing this goal which is not reason but that which augments strength and develops the being in its will to power limited only by the sum total of all oppositional forces which impinge thereon and which guide and influence its evolution. Thus reason and passion are mutually self-supportive not as means in relation to ends but as divergent and complementary facultative expressions of their bearer/creator.

Divergent insofar as they entail modes of existence (in mente) which posit them as oppositional forces – one motivating one to act the Other to forebear from action, one directing the Other acting without deliberation in accordance with a mental blueprint or construct; one reactive and immediate the Other reflective and mediated. Simply different faculties finding their localization in different regions of the brain and whatever are of the subtle bodies, the occult anatomy of greater vibrational dimensions. Thus the old dichotomy of reason and passion is true only in terms of degree of activation of those faculties which are not oppositional completely but only in quanta based upon their qualitative nature which is the existence/manifestation of their expense which is divergent analogously to the distribution of blood in the body. Working both oppositional and complementarily these two faculties are two only in the pragmatic sense of human understanding, conventional conceptualizations which serve the ends posited by reason but are themselves imagined objects which at best poorly approximate the multi-dimensional reality ignored both by the abstractions of philosophy qua concepts and those of science qua materialistically based concepts. Both see through only a miniscule window into reality which exceeds both severally and jointly.

Bodybuilding = Narcissistic Psy-Op

The founders of this aberration of nature are the inevitable Jews who have yet again created a phenomenon, the basis and motivation of which – though secret – is the defilement of the gentiles and especially their physical culture which was a eugenics technology of the self and a boon to society. This is another instance of normative inversion wherein nature is perverted into anti-nature in a Luciferic manner with the end result of doing harm to those they wish to reduce or eliminate in power and existence.

Gazing into the mirror of narcissistic vanity instead of developing real strength and speed towards goals that run against the plans of the cabal, thereby reducing its power and control over the resources of the earth. Thus in self-obsessive egotism the Other of society and one's extended self – race – is neglected and thereby the watchmen on the wall in dereliction of duty pursue their own selfish worship making false idols of their own finite existence in place of playing their natural role as a protector/defender against threats external to the group.

This was the Trojan horse method the Jews used to bring an army into garrison – another appearance to mask the sinister takeover behind that of health and beauty with these formerly natural standards twisted and distorted into perversions of their former selves, where strength becomes apparent strength based upon size and natural proportions become a caricature of the natural frame of the male archetype. The furtherance and spread of this apparent masculinization but in reality e-masculinization through the feminization of the masculine by subordinating the power of the man into a fetish object and vanity mirror – its spread into the realm of the feminine enabled the introduction of masculinization in the realm of the feminine.

This in tandem with feminism facilitated the inversion of sexual roles masculinizing the female and androgenizing and solipsizing the sexes so that confusion is introduced leading to the reduction in the formation of normal relations and the decline of the birth rate thus granting more power to the Jews. The traditional role of the female as nurturer is thereby misdirected towards vanity and nurture of the self a deviation from the natural towards the unnatural world, just as the men are distracted from their natural roles as protectors and towards the protection of their 'image' or the realization of their idealized self - modeled falsely and materialistically on the archetypes put forth in bodybuilding magazines and professional athletes themselves embodiments of the archetype of vanity.

Bodybuilding functioned as the thin end of the wedge used to strike against the roots of the tree of the white race. It was designed as a cultural weapon to subvert that blossoming culture which was beginning to flower after the long night of Christ-insanity mind poison and the weeds of anti-nature were planted into this Garden of Eden transforming it into a veritable hell on earth.

In addition to this the excesses of bodybuilding as a lifestyle are projected on the victim who receives the blame as the scapegoat upon whom is placed the sins of the Jewish villains who have created this lifestyle archetype in the first place and imposed it upon these whose destruction they sought, as one of the many subtle strategies of genocide they celebrate their dark rituals in the Synagogue of Judah.

Dukes Vs. Jukes, Eugenics Vs. Malgenics

A dichotomous choice is presented in all social engineering (on a grand scale) and familial structures (on a micro level) and even intra-personally (for self): that between elevation and degradation, either up-breeding and development (one might call it evolution), or down-breeding and self/other- destruction (this may properly be spoken of as devolution or degeneration).

To generate oneself through oneself is to germinate the divine spark within (assuming such a one is possessed of such, that property exclusive to the Aryan) – such germination is eugenics, 'good generation' by definition, which develops itself out of itself organically, thereby creating a lasting state that can be further developed for the betterment of oneself and extrapolating for those who derive benefit from this same selfpropelling wheel. Thus a heaven or hell of one's own making is available to the one who has both potentialities latent within which is to say only the faculty of creating a stairway to heaven, for failure to do so is tantamount to languishment in a hell of one's own creation. All others who have no such inherent possibility must burn up inevitably in the hell of their own inner nature, unable as they are to perpetuate their integrity of soul which latter fragments in the aether postmortem as they have not the higher principles (faculties) necessary for ascension.

At a local, individual level, the aspirant to such Olympian heights faces this dichotomous choice of salvation or destruction, not in the sense of a salve (dissolution of the soul into 'god' as a will-less slave of the Demiurge) but rather the salvation in the form of being one's own messiah (priest of the order of Melchizedek, anointing himself with the 'messiah' or crocodile fat as a priest initiate of a higher spiritual order) through the coagula of maintaining the integrity of the soul post-mortem; Kaivalya over Ahimsa. Rather than subordinating oneself before an anthropomorphic deity to rather become a deity of his own making, an anthropomorphic god-man who attains godmanhood rather than casting away his own inner development through subordination and submission to that fictional entity who is the one and only absolute crunched into a miniature of himself, a man-god who is absolute.

If there is a conscious absolute all partake of such and this is no special position or perhaps even any meaningful position to be in. Rather to develop one's self evolutionarily is the only meaning life has to offer worthy of the name. Submission is for the weak and foolish, the 'foolish things' of the earth, rather 'transmission' if I may be permitted this term, towards godhood would be the path along which to tread. Whether this path corresponds with the moral codes of any given society at any given time has no relationship to its upward trajectory.

Eugenics within the microcosm of the person is always within one's control even given the discordant vibrations of the self-appointed Archontic rulers who would attempt to usurp one's function in his self-development leading him along the path towards extinction and away from ascension and the state of individuation which is its necessary condition. To be in the world and not of the world, to be apart and yet conscious of that in relation to which he is a part, as an 'Other' and yet making contact without immersion within the collective conscious as a selfsubsisting being, drawing upon the collective for resources to augment this his own process of development.

The tyrant would intervene to utilize others (the mass collective 'Other') to fulfill a similar process to this though exteriorized/externalized rather than interiorized/internalized by the authentic man who seeks personal self-development in accordance with the rule 'do no harm'; the tyrant, a sorcerer and black magician by trade, necessarily harms as is his want and in accordance with his capricious will, bent upon his own aggrandizement without regard for maintaining the harmony of the environment, of the sum total. Thus like Lucifer and Prometheus, he plummets to a hell-on-earth of his own creation and burns to ashes in the fires of his own inner chaos.

When the statesman is an authentic man himself, he harmonizes with the collective over which he exerts his influence and is influenced by turn. This authentic leader develops his people in accordance with their inner nature as structuring the architecture of the state to facilitate their individual and collective progression towards godhood thereby ennobling them even though they be a peasant of the fields.

Such a potentiality exists only in a racially homogeneous demographic, wherein all are harmonizing with one another given their similarity of vibrational frequency and can thus 'clear the air' so to speak of the static of folk chaos of multiracial societies whose inner turmoil conduces to violence and incompatible soul types each striving to fulfill their respective destinies over and against each other thereby fulfilling none and descending into chaos; the fragmentation of the soul being the inevitable result and malgenics its externalization within the mundane world such as in South America, itself having descended to ruins through the attempt to combine the uncombinable so that those architects of this tower of Babel might rule over witless slaves more akin to the Jukes, products of malgenics than of the Dukes, those who can exist only in a racially homogeneous Hazzard County, a multi-racial society can never be one of eugenics but decays through its own discord into a malgenics nightmare.

Harmonious organic conditions beget harmonious potentialities to develop and elevate society towards the Elysium state of godhood among the populous. This necessarily means a racially homogeneous society as only the formula of an authentic leader holding sway over an authentic society can develop authentic architecture that can attain this state of affairs.

Architecture of this nature (legislation, policies, moral codes, etc.) is akin to the white magic of the occultism of a eugenic order, architecture of the converse (that which fails to meet these conditions but instead has the opposite conditions) is akin to black magic, and its manifestation is in multi-racial societies, wherein chaos/discord reigns amongst the ruins of folk chaos, wherein each seek the blood of their physical as lacking any racial neighbours or neighbourhoods in which to attain the self-actualization of godhood.

An authentic ruler (of the people racially, and for them praxiologically; having the requisite knowledge/gnosis as an authentic man to understand what is necessary and what superfluous in the realm of the political) creates an authentic society (assuming a ruler would need to exist and that society would not be communitarian in some way – though likely the Führerprinzip would accord with the natural modus vivendi and organic existence of societies); an authentic society develops itself out of itself organically without any force being imposed upon it save only in the early stages where the problems existent rendering it unauthentic (to whatever degree) are wiped aside and substituted for an increasingly more approximate form of this ideal which, as in the case of the authentic man, is a self-propelling wheel of evolution towards higher states and away from the entropy of stagnation and its inevitable slow decay on the one hand or the more rapid dissolution of the architecture of chaos born of the insane mind of the black magician whose irrational and paradoxically over- intellectual idealism converts itself through its own inner contradictions into a nightmarish realism that precipitates its destruction.

The only salvation for such a society is a saviour who can wipe away the problems through use of the necessary means – and this saviour figure is no pacifistic anthropomorphic Semitic deity but a god-man of Aryan kind who is the strongman necessary to resurrect the decayed society from the grave of oblivion- the sorcerers of the current rulership will cease-their chaos magic only through stronger white magic being used against them. The solution to violence (of the natural order of things) is counter-violence. Given that a harmonious society is necessarily based upon the family unit with the destruction of the latter the former also ceases to exist.

This is the black magician elite's sinister intention under the usual guises of love, peace, liberty, etc. To be liberated from one's organic destiny is to substitute in its place an artificial purpose necessarily discordant with one's inner being. Thus feminism destroys the woman and her natural inclination while faggotism distorts the role of the man and they both reciprocally condition each other with feminism pushing away men and turning them away from their natural attraction to women (repulsion as opposed to attraction) and faggotism repelling women who find the effeminate repelling in its inappropriate place, namely inherent in the person of a naturally (under-the-regime-of-a- traditional/ organic/ authentic society) masculine type. Perverting the nature of the members of the family perverts the family which in turn destroys society through the destruction of its foundation. Again only the strongman can rectify this problem through imposition of the necessary force and eliminate the cause through eliminating the effect.

Eliminate The Cause, Eliminate The Effect

The ultimate cause of the problems of the world and its people is: the Jew. The Jew is the common denominator of all problems from environmental damage/pollution to racial pollution (race mixing). Eliminate the cause and the effects will be wiped away. The tree continues to grow branches when the root is not severed; the tree of evil proliferates its evil limbs and the roots must be struck at to cease the growth. The tree of evil is the problem complex which has the Jew at its root.

'The Jew Must Disappear' – Proudhon

Final fight approaches – Jew vs. Aryan.-The slippery 'semitic'(non-Adamite) vs. the creator and master of the multiverse, the Aryan hero. One who as a natural tendency and trajectory of his consciousness conforms to the law of nature and preserves the harmony of existence, the other a borne abomination that leaves desolate the creation who, if left to his devices unchecked by the hand of the Aryan, would devastate the earth and enslave all sentient beings [perhaps] mistakenly called 'human'. This final battle to end all battles, war to end all wars will soon be upon us and in order that the Aryan may continue in this world 'The Jew Must Disappear'.

Why Do You Care?

About my personal circumstances, my history, my purposes – is it because you seek to exercise your will zur macht, to have over me lordship and to place me in bondage to your will? Perhaps you must find a better cause for concern than to seek domination of others in a lesser jihad. Overcome thyself. But first you must know yourself, eh my friend?

Master Morality–Authentic And Inauthentic

The inauthentic master morality is that of overlordship over others, the deliberate conquest of another in whatever form, be it through physical enslavement or murder or the social form through the subtlety of the courtier, the iron hand in the velvet glove. The authentic master morality is that of self-control and stoical apathy in the face of the opposition of the Other—to be unaffected while still knowing and understanding the other.

The inauthentic varieties of the master-slave dialectic all orient themselves around relations determined by the other as opposed to those of the self. To bow to others in recognition of their greater power while still immersed in the outward struggle with the other for dominance or wilfully relinquishing power to others out of personal weakness belies an authentic slave morality, that of a weakness of will in either case—a lack of self-control or sense of selfhood and the interiorization of the other as master over self. To cultivate self-mastery and not fall victim to the slave morality is the goal – absolute stoicism to attain absolute personality.

Allowing oneself to be blown in the wind as a passive object in the arbitrary hands of an unknown fate is the mark of a weakling. To resist the pressure and force of the gale is the mark of the strong. Ebenezer Scrooge staring into the window of the wholesome family gathering on Christmas while freezing in the cold – such is the fate of he who is not of the common mass, who – regardless of intellect and superficial refinement – cannot play the role of the theatre actor by virtue of his integrity as a man of Truth. No false gestures of smiles and artificial laughter are possible for he whose integrity prevents him from feeling (or displaying feeling) what he does not feel.

Many would look upon this extrovertive exuberant attitude as a sign of a heightened faculty of reason but is merely the display of deep-seeded hypocrisy and the manifestation of a false consciousness. Those adept players at life's game of artful mendacity have (as a typical case) no conscience and are unaffected in their being by the false behaviour they put forth and bear witness to, viewing themselves in abstracto and like a vehicle of political agency – something to manipulate and operate as an avatar or demon possessing the physical vehicle to express itself in the material world.

The time delay between the gesture and thought evinces the truth or falsity of the behaviour – that which entails a delay is usually forced / artificial whereas that which is immediate upon a reasonable time for comprehension and formulation of thought is genuine. These arch slicksters however are hyper-alert and able to appear genuine – which is itself a sign of their artful artificiality. A sign also of their moral bankruptcy and that they do not care for the integrity of their own person and therefore live a lie as they have no genuine character and have no honour. Their behaviour is a manifestation of their soul, which is in a state of perpetual schism. They are the dishonourable of the earth.

Live Or Die – The Running Man/Logan's Run Redux

“Lucky Lotto” An idea: all people in a totalitarian society are obligated (on pain of the ultimate penalty) to construct an audio-visual/textual presentation of their character as it exists today, has been and will/could be given what it is in relation to the overarching circumstances that constitute the ‘conjuncture’ (socio- politico-economic situation). They have one hour's time in which to showcase themselves in the prescribed format which will then be submitted to the centralized database (bureau, etc.) for entry. The database will randomly generate a selection on a daily or weekly basis and the selection will be broadcast through public media channels such as giant- screen Freevees (ala the running man) to the broad masses. It will then be up to the latter to vote ‘live-or die’ via their handheld devices.

Those permitted to vote will be those who have passed the appropriate battery of competency tests thereby qualifying them as competent judges bearing the title of ‘reasonable person’. The votes will then be tallied and the ultimate penalty will be exacted if a preponderance of votes (of a certain margin) results (80% for death results in death, 70% or above results in re-entry in the selection for the next week's ‘lucky lotto’). If it does not, the selected entry will be exempt from such fate for an appropriate time period (say one year). This social Darwinist protocol would ensure a maximum effort on the part of the populous for maintenance of standards upheld by such totalitarian society. It would also serve to negatively control population (negative eugenics of Galton). No incentive beyond the satisfaction of maintaining societal standards would be granted the voters.

Perhaps also the voters would be randomly selected in a jury duty style ‘judgment by one's peers’ justice as fairness rather than having the little old lady busy body play god or exact revenge on her neighbor for shooing away her cat. Those entered into the ‘lucky lotto’ who have minimal votes would be touted as social paragons of civic duty and rewarded with some form of benefit such as positions, trophies, medals, badges, increased allocation of material resources to their unit (self, family, etc.). Working their way up the hierarchy of social status would become their life's goal and bragging rights. However hubris would be curtailed by the same process, i.e. they might again enter the lists and be subject to the revenge of the jealous masses.

To ensure no injustice would occur the 'reasonable person' standard would (automatically always be the fundamental criterion of assessment and would eo ipso role out all emotionally based decisions. The event would of course become a national institution mirroring the practice of the Ostraka in ancient Greece. Societal speculation would center on this practice and continue to upgrade the gene pool through a perpetual weeding out of the noxious weeds choking out the flowers in the social garden. Thus a beautiful, if coldly beautiful, world would manifest in elegant totalitarianism. However unfree the people (other than to obey the law) they would nevertheless be good people in the sense of scientific eugenics. To be a man of good breeding would then have a real meaning not a derisive or purely behavioral one.

Additionally, the self-made video/audio/textual presentations would be verified and cross-referenced, reviewed for accuracy in correspondence to the facts (verified) by appointed government agents, all of whom would themselves be randomly generated by a database. Since all members of society who are 'reasonable persons' would be government agents (and not vice versa in a hypocritical way). They would be a court of one's peers as in jury duty. One's personality, lifestyle and history would be reviewed through question and answer and making available character references as well as evidence of personal merit (mental, physical and spiritual). No one would be permitted an automatic pass and all facets of the life under review would have to be thoroughly investigated as the duty of the appointed investigators (being 'reasonable persons').

No appeal would be needed as the process would be seamless and admit of no error. Even seditious elements (and here I diverge from a more general to a more democratic template – or one more consonant with real freedom of conscious/conscience, etc.) would be looked upon as valuable so long as their life/productions accord with truth and standards verifiable by the 5 senses.

A Re-Examination Of The Effect Of Climate On Character

Cold climates I had always previously claimed in their defense, create an intense and driven character, are vigorous and encapsulated in the notion of 'trieb'. They increase thyroid hormone secretion and concomitantly adrenal hormone secretion. This I previously understood to be a desirable quality creating characters who could themselves create worlds both in abstracto and concreto. However, I criticize my previous position now subscribing to the notion that cold climates make for an aggressive, hostile personality type of savage temperament.

The augmentation of testosterone in people of this region also underscores this point (though this is not a negative thing in and of itself, only in combination with the mind-numbing nature of cold weather). The thyroid/adrenal hormone increase causes this bestial mind of perpetual aggressiveness, each denizen of the north being immersed in a war everlasting amongst their own.

Each gesture and act contains within itself an assault against the recipient to whom it is directed – a smile conceals in shark-like fashion the sharpness of sets of violent teeth; a 'hello' being a demand for a response veiled under the guise of courteous civility. It is an inversion of civility: it becomes incivility and politeness simply becomes a substitute for conventional acts of war in the bellum omnia contra omnes.

Many would say in defense of people in colder climes (who are determined in their character thereby) that this is a universal human nature and is the nature of all peoples in all places. Not so, as unity is quite clearly visible, tangible, in those denizens of warmer climes (regardless of race, etc.). The cold elicits the response of shivering and cortisol secretion – making for a hostile demographic.

Recognition of this fact makes the good-natured regret the influence of the outer on the inner (both of themselves and others) and dream of a warm tropical paradise as their Elysium. However, time, money and other constraints chain them with cold iron manacles to the Saturnian sphere of hyperborea. Thus in spite of the hardy virtues of the north the vices preponderate; though a wellspring of action, the cold is more a degenerative stimulant acting on the person as cocaine on an addict: it may appear to ‘perk one up’ but kicks one in the ass leaving him bruised, battered and frost bitten.

Creativity has its impetus mainly in climates of a moderate sort, e.g. Greece, Italy, France, etc. It has a gracefulness when originating in this sphere of equilibrious contemplation: enough to drive one without burning out or leading to the languishment of ‘the fleshpots of Egypt’ or surrounding fertile crescent region. Another example: China in relation to the Southeast Asian countries (Vietnam, etc.) – the former clearly represents a higher cultural form, especially in the case of Tibet, etc. Though mountains play a great role in conferrance of subtle energies and are not the issue here.

Overall the so-called ‘Mediterranean’ moderate climate is that preferable for creative endeavor. Other examples though typically colder are England, Britain as a whole, Scandinavia – places where the climate is not pervasively extreme but typically as a moderate- cool atmosphere rich in humidity from nearby oceans.

Jihad

The total war is a psychology of life – it either manifests as a chthonic dualism or a self- overcoming unity consciousness giving oneself up to god as an earthbound fallen being ascending beyond the Mayic prison of an earthly paradise in Eden. Forsaking the lower states of consciousness through sublimation in alchemical sextasy with the deities) of unknown realms known not through abstract intellection but through knowledge qua acquaintance, i.e. gnosis. Thus one merges with the godhead and becomes a god through forsaking the flesh.

The psychology could be said to have its faults – a flight from self in the ether, an escapism of fanaticism; a refusal to recognize the self for what it is, namely a complex of mind-body-spirit that achieves ascension via integration and attainment of at one-ment with the self and the other but not in opposition to the self qua body but through it as the vehicle of a higher gnosis. Thus Jihad only had meaning when it transcends ego-mind through ego-mind and this necessitates bodily acquaintance to body for the truth – habeas corpus and upon its altar sacrifice itself as the dying god of finite consciousness through a comprehension of the consciousness as beyond that consciousness (a spirit manifesting itself through/in the lower planes, pervading them and uplifting them to higher).

The chain of command begins in Muladhara but is governed by Sahasrara – tantric ecstasy governing development but generated by the higher mind (will, etc.). This sublimation is Jupiterian in form and harnesses its aspiring quality as a team of horses – the reigns controlled by Saturn, the sun (and perhaps the radiance of the black sun) guiding along the Bifrost Bridge this chariot from Midgard to Valhalla through Hel – perhaps back if the strength of Thor/Jupiter is inadequate to steer the passion of the lower consciousness of Mars and Venus.

The innate telos of man in the striving of life being to win attains its highest form of sublimation in the victory of the self- overcoming Jihad the greater in opposition (conceptually and in abstracto not the thing itself) to the lesser dualism of the consciousness of the petty man where competition for dominance and the acquisition of material goods and power is the Rex Mundi around which consciousness polarizes its dynamism, unending strife in a war everlasting. But this war lacks the cleansing fire of the Gnothe Seuton for in self- knowledge lies a self- overcoming and without the former the latter degenerates into adversariality of the lowest order, the bellum omnium contra omnes.

“Fascismo Uber Alles”

Social standards and their hegemonic influence: the more equal in a society the lower the standard. The necessity of this is based on economics and facilitated by design. If the intent is genuine equality by the controllers (which it typically isn't as history bears out) the wealth, the total pie awaiting division and distribution, will be fragmented on an equal basis proportional to the numbers of the mass. Thus the bigger the society the smaller the fragment until crumbs are the only reward of the broad masses.

This provides a disincentive for those in the labor force to exceed their output beyond the lowest and laziest common denominator. This leads to a diminution if not a cessation of productivity which in turn leads to the destruction of society. Hence equality is the social standard that implodes society to the rubble heap and is thus the lowest social form. At most it would serve as a base but as a guarantee for the lowest forms of social life it leads to their recognition that they needn't produce in order to consume, to give in order to take – and thus they take from those who produce in proportion to the crumbly standard of life they indulge in, the more crumbs for them the less for others.

The spur and goad to action is an absence in the minds of those of less developed consciousness and taking is to them an entitlement merely on the basis of abstract theoretical models of human needs = human entitlements. Needs however are relative to means and ends: if the end is worthy (namely their life) the need is legitimately and properly so-called; otherwise not necessarily. If the end is worthy and deserving of support, the means must also be in place.

The difference between the justice of charity in the sense of natural law and of nanny-state equality lies in the fundamental omission of the notion of 'lebens unwertes leben', i.e. that there exists life that is unworthy of life and hence need must be adjusted to the cosmic law that governs the mundane reality with an iron fist. The principles of fundamental justice override the dictum: 'from each unto each according to his need' with the credo of 'from each unto each according to his merit'. Thus need universalized unjustly is justly restricted to the semantic parameters of dissent.

The masses cry: 'we have need for bread' while simultaneously holding their hands out for cake. First they must demonstrate their bread worthiness then they may solicit cake from the bakers. If they have a hand in baking the cake, transporting it, distributing it and working it up for use as a utility they may partake of its sweetness. Merely to loll about on welfare smoking crack and propagating the species nullifies their claim to that most exquisite delight. Even in celebrating their birthday they may – if they meet this description – be more deserving of a cake of poison than peppermint.

The age of the wigger is upon us – once the parasites take over (and their parasites) the host body becomes merely a cadaver whose vital fluids are the spoils of those who thrive on its diseased environment.

Once the more resilient parasites have entrenched themselves they open wounds for those who assist in further ravishing. The diametrical opposition of cultures as represented by the Shaitanic force of international Jewry and the noble culture of the magnanimous 'good Europeans' testifies to the incompatibility and oppositionality they represent. By virtue of the Shaitanic nature of Jews they must always have a host body to parasitize – thus they must exploit and hold in subjection the whites rendering them wiggers on a societal plantation by hook (the money system and the incentive of personal enrichment and empowerment through masonry, etc.) or by crook (soviet style police statism).

The latter invariably follows the former as an externalization of the hierarchy of the Cohanim/Levite priest sect or whatever particular form it may be (Zadokim, etc.). If only this weren't the case and we could believe the claim that Jesuits ruled with the object of a world-wide white nation this would be a tolerable sacrifice towards this utopian telos – that all should suffer a diminution of their standard of living for the sake of this goal as opposed to being choked out in all cases of their ability to produce meaningful creations.

No Exclusive Territory = No Survival

In order for a group to survive as such and to perpetuate or sustain its identity it must have group integrity (by definition). In order to have integrity as a group it must have exclusive territory in which to preserve this integrity. The situation at present renders impossible the possession of exclusive territory; therefore it renders necessary the destruction (negation) of integrity. Therefore either the situation will be alleviated (negated) or those who are subject to this situation will be negated.

Thus a disjunctive choice is to be had between the preservation of one's own and thus through the negation of the contemporary situation or the negation of one's own and this through the preservation of the situation – either live through fighting a war of survival and winning or die through refusing to fight out of cowardice or perverted values that won't be relinquished by a perverted mind. Thus exclusive territory is the lebensraum mandate of those who say 'yes' to life and consider their survival the ultimate morality in contradistinction to those who have been subjected to the life denying morality of the preachers of death who say 'no' to life in the deluded hopes of obtaining front row tickets to the season opener past the golden gates.

Their true fate will inevitably be the cleaning fire past the iron gates. Those who say 'yes' to life are, in a Christian sense but moreover in a naturalistic sense, inviting themselves into the promised land of milk and honey. Like Kvasir they must mix the blood with honey, the blood of their enemies, whose liquor must flow through the streets as a red carpet along which the remnant may walk towards their proper destiny once all has been cleared away from a once pure society.

The gesture – under whatever pretext – of encroachment upon the space of another necessarily amounts to a declaration of war as it implies a violation of exclusive territory no longer so exclusive. The appropriate response to the invader is the threat if not the execution of force – within a context of naturalistic ethics rooted in the laws of nature and survival of oneself which implies the survival of that larger group of which one is a member. The right to counter-violence is implied in the violation of one's own territory which is the same thing as aggressive warfare played out under some pretext of whatever nature (e.g. foreign investor, student, temporary foreign worker, etc.).

For the expansion and advancement of one's own kind is necessitated survival as a precondition which implies exclusive territory the terrain in which expansion and advancement may be undergone (expansion = multiplication of members ideally through selective eugenics breeding; advancement = the development through eugenics means of a superior caste of descendants who supersede their forbearers with each generation). The current situation nullifies the destiny of the white race through foreign intrusion , ultimate assimilation and extermination through miscegenation of the host population.

Hence the hypocrisy of the universalists (at best the naiveté in the case of the lemming masses) that they 'love' all people while simultaneously denying exclusive territory to those in whose countries this 'brotherhood' is claimed to be taking place through reduction of white territory and power under the guise of just redistribution of wealth to all non-whites from the coffers and territory of whites. This to any reasonable and rational person constitutes the subtle and gradual genocide of white people. Hence the exclusion of those who have been – in contravention to nature's laws – included into a territory possessed by others and in which they had no stake in creating but rather destroying – is an ethical imperative – casting out the garbage and cleaning the Aegean stables of turd world detritus is the only recourse of those possessed of a functional mind and body, endowed with the healthy instincts of the collective consciousness of their kind.

Castes

The social engineers – in the name of efficiency and the maintenance of their totalitarian architecture of the social – have taken it upon themselves to determine the fate of other's lives, nipping in the bud their own willful exertion in carving out their destiny. - One instance of this lies within the stratification of the populous along caste lines, not based upon nature and biology (wherein the uniform of caste is the colour of the skin), but upon artificial concepts bearing no relationship to the natural world and its organic being. Hence caste can be bought and the aristocracy of the liberal democratic/Marxist world of egalitarian globalism is an aristocracy of money posited over an aristocracy of blood. Raceless consumerism and collectivism over tradition.

The caste system therein, being the support of the society (the 'establishment' being the aristocracy based on wealth) is doomed to self-destruction as the edifice is based on clay and iron not on iron and blood, but is a construct, a golem of the Judeo-Masonic theocracy who desperately strife through the burning of reason and its instrumentality (necessarily mendacious) to render the natural artificial by replacement of the aristocracy of blood, which implodes society through the rearrangement of its pillars of support, a structure held together by baling wire and string which, once sufficient animosity and social chaos manifests will burst at the seams and crumble to ruins as the flimsy edifice it is – to be built anew by those architects whose blood flows blue in their veins transparent through their pale skin; the latter yet suffused with this noble elixir.

Nature cannot be supplanted nor overcome through anti-natural values and concomitant slapdash praxis which attempts to implement castles of the air upon firm ground. Nature structures itself through itself and beings that dwell on earth are separable therefrom while having a foot upon the soil and living within those circumstances.

Population Reduction And Its Discontents

The protocol of 'reductio populi' has always been a favourite of the Judeo-Masonic conspiracy which has orchestrated the mass murder of countless people throughout millennia. Soon a new act in this tragedy will be undergone and the players are the hapless and ignorant masses whose lives consist of the revolving of the wheel of 9-5 Monday to Friday and who could not possibly be anything other than obtuse regarding the plans which are contrived from the balcony to bring the act to its final conclusion.

That a mass reduction of the population is warranted I do not deny however the type targeted with extermination leaves much to be desired, including as it so improperly does the white population or at least some (and a large sum it would appear) of its elements who are undeserving of this fate given their inherent genetico-spiritual capacity for greatness even only as a vehicle of posterity if lacking any merit of their own. The continuance of the race in its finest and most suitable form would be the optimum but anything which could over the generations approach this optimum would be if not a substitute then a worthy addition.

The unfit would be decided on the basis of substantial (biological) merit not on the putative merit of the account books which any greasy Jewish crook or Masonic paedophile could easily proffer. Aristocracy of blood over aristocracy of soulless lucre and the healthy (potentially healthy) peasant stock as bearer of the torch. Whites – not Jews – must live.

Ally Or Enemy

In the RaHoWa where the uniform is the colour of the skin one is either on the side of his people or he is against them. Pro-white or anti-white the law of the excluded middle of fence-sitters applies with iron force, the fence-sitter inevitably being ripped apart at the seams by rival factions whose side the fence-sitter decided to omit joining thus incurring the rancour of both who fell upon him in feral hostility as an 'Other', an obstacle to the swelling of their ranks with suitable warriors or having another worthy foe to combat. Thus those who refuse to choose sides may no longer have the option of choice as they will no longer exist.

If they manage to 'continue on' their choices will be severely restricted by circumstances and forced by the prevailing power, whichever can exert the pressure of potent threat against the would-be benchwarmer in the bellum omnia contra omnes. The security so long sought after by the sheepish masses will be found if at all on the side of their kin group and those finding themselves in the enemy camp will likely be set upon by their hopeful affiliates who, recognizing their Otherness, will descend upon them as Other to themselves and hence as enemy. One scurries for succour in the mass as there is strength in numbers – such is the thinking of the sheeple.

The sage prepares himself for ascension the warrior monk for battle stoically awaiting his time to strike. Either the enemy camp and be roasted on a spit or the camp of one's own however problematic – there alone lies survival, save for the madman or solipsist who dwells within a magic prison of the mind and concerns himself with naught but the selfish Self, whiling away his remaining time on earth in the bottle or in profound meditation. – Escapism nonetheless.

The aescetic monk and the warrior berserker must merge in the Absolute Person who transcends in immanence the welter and chaos of circumstances which ring him round. Guided from above he is not overcome but overcomes – both himself and Other thereby clinching the victory. The craven coward who hides in the corner salivating over his plum pudding hoping to escape the conflagration finds his goose liver pate doubly cooked, scorched in the holocaust of enemy assault.

No milk for babes in the kali yuga, the nadir of this Manvantara; the drums beat their martial tattoo summoning the Einherjar to battle and victory or Valhalla. The days of blue-skied dreamscapes are darkened by the perpetual night which is clouding the sun of mind from its refulgent manifestation. The pale lunar light and the firelight of war machines and enemy campfires is all that is seen. Taking up the sword the warrior monk enters the fray over the corpses of the fence-sitters.

White Wash

What will it take to initiate the ethnic cleansing required to create a whiter, brighter world? To white wash society and clean away the crud from the white picket fence created by the Aryan race as a protective barrier around their white marble palace?

That barrier which has been allowed to fall into ruin through the decadence and effeminacy of material comforts, a failure to test the integrity of those fortifications given the lack of challenges which have been an absence through the established reputation of the white race who again owing to ease amidst affluence have become decadent and thereby tarnished their reputation in the eyes of those once held back from onslaught through the fear induced by their former fury.

Now the decaying defenses have enabled the enemy to penetrate within the perimeter and to become further emboldened once they witness the effeminate and cowardly character of those descendants of once vigorous and incontestable ancestors whose might built the marble palaces in which they intoxicate themselves with degenerative poisons.

‘Browning out’ is the decaying process that this situation has amounted to and the white populous has enabled. In order to ‘white wash’ this browned world the harshest of measures are necessary and the greater the chaos the greater the white washing as a reaction – for the comfort and ease of former times will be pulled aside as the ostentatious baubles and golden scales covering once lucid eyes and in the midst of this catastrophe will arise the slumbering giant of Aryan man who will be forced to confront the inevitable disjunctive choice – the road to perdition or that towards paradise, and the form of that choice will be the willingness to fight to the death with survival as the only concern not ‘liberty, equality, fraternity’ or ‘human rights equal for all’, etc.

These artificial and anti-natural totems before which decadent Bourgeois liberals with a guilty conscious borne of Christian mind poison prostrate themselves will cease to hold any value save for those of the most spoiled and decadent quality, infected through their undue privilege and life of leisure with a guilt complex and moral imperative for sin expiation as the ‘white devil’ of the realm of Gaia and the ‘indigenous peoples’.

Once this privileged few become either less privileged and/or fewer – inevitably – the values of liberty and equality as its means and necessary condition will be wiped away and the law of the strong and the imperative of nature will gain ascendance throwing aside the millstones which hang about the necks of the whites who fail to recognize the beams in the eyes of the Other while carping about the motes in those of their own kind. The white washing of the world will be borne out of iron and blood and the iron laws of necessity will tear down the false idols of anti-natural decadence the adherents of which will either be the rankest hypocrite serving their natural imperative with whatever degree of success or remain the believers and be washed away with the mud and the blood of the reaper’s scythe.

The Aryan Consciousness Is Rising Like The Phoenix From The Ashes

We, the collective of racial kin see it ascend and bask in its glory, imbibing strength from its form and reifying it in our actions as the rightful owners and occupiers of this globe. The night of dark-age ignorance will not shroud the true light of the Aryan man who will herald the day of a new age through his just purgation of the evil of this terrestrial globe, through the shining sword of his conscious willpower overcoming all darkness.

Might is Right, Nature's Law

A reality but not an exhaustive one, a condition of beastman not Heman/Superman. For those with a lower consciousness which has not developed itself to any more expansive scope than the lower ego of crude self-stimulation and material enrichment. The animal in man has not been tamed or sublimated in its ferality but subsists in savagery greedily groping for gain and absorbing the wealth of the material plane in its maw-salivating over the meagre morsels while neglecting the higher dimensions of human or superhuman consciousness.

"All life is struggle" for the crude ape-like called Beastman whose philosophy is encapsulated in this phrase and that of 'might is right'. Nevertheless might makes right and greater power triumphs over lesser power simply manifests in different forms for the higher consciousness by virtue of its greater scope supercedes the lower by definition as it has greater 'might' or power. Therefore even in the grades of consciousness and its manifestation might can be demonstrated to determine the right, in other words the necessary condition of being, the sine qua non of existence. Grades of consciousness are simply different forms of power/force and are the faculty of a certain level of perspicacity-the dullard and the obtuse perceive the world from frog perspective and those endowed with clarity of mind from that of the eagle.

The animal man may, secundam quid, be triumphal in his animality but the heman/superman may be superior qua animal as well as qua man/superman. Strength of body and mind are not dualistic but complementaries and mutually reinforce one another-the strength of one quickening that of another in an evolutionary upward cycle/spiral. 'What is right is natural and what is natural is right'- and hence to 'live in accordance with nature' as the stories prescribed is to manifest the might necessary to carve out the path of destiny. Ofttimes the animal aspect requires expression so that a stable development can be sustained over time and circumstances; aided by the human/superhuman aspect and sage-like guide and prudent navigator of the seas of Being.

At other times the animal lies dormant while his vital energies are sublimated into more refined and subtle expressions embodied in art and calculation with whatever object in view. Reason and passion, Apollo and Dionysos, dance around the maypole/irminsul of temporal existence grasping for the coloured steamers of eternity and to transcend the lower ego through itself. 'The lesser jihad' of contest with and overcoming of others if transcended via the Greater jihad of overcoming the self. In the presence of Others the self is still the target at which the arrow is aimed and they are so many paces taken away from the butt to increase the difficulty of maintaining focus on the target and accuracy of aim.

The others are both stone obstacles and stepping stones across the rapids of temporal flow/existence-incomplete ashlar they present rough terrain over which to tread, some being crushed, others falling loose and creating an avalanche and opposition to the presage to the superman. Nevertheless the road must be tread as 'all life is struggle' and one's right of passage is carved out by might, by the will and its proper harnessing and employment.

Nationalism Vs. Internationalism, Nature Vs. Anti-Nature

Political microcosms of the macrocosmic order these two diametrically opposed creeds stand in a conflictual relationship and battle one another for supremacy as nature and anti-nature cannot coexist and the former is certain to triumph as it is the order of the universe. As flowers of the plant of social development these two creeds are distinct in being on the one hand the vital and colorful bloom of life as lived in accordance with nature and the sum total on one hand and on the other the decaying weed that has sprouted forth through artificial means under the forced influence of anti-nature perversity.

Nature entails hierarchy, caste, diversification of function based on inherent biological capacity (generationally, sexually, and racially conditioned traits). Anti-nature is the poison which seeks to supplant natural diversity with an artificial levelling process that suppresses those who would rise to the top in political life and elevate those who would either subsist in the mire of human society in a properly structured hierarchically based natural order to the position of anti-heroic heroes as beggar kings with crowns of thorns gilt with the fool's gold of deviance and vice. No amount of nurture can subvert nature without destroying the thing subjected to and influenced by this sickly nurturing process of degeneration.

To suppress the creativity of some through stifling their channels of progress with the detritus of wealth redistribution and conferral of unfair advantage to comparatively lowly stock is to nip in the bud the flower of humanity and raise up weeds in its place thereby choking out the remaining flowers and transforming the garden of Eden into a hell on earth. Anti-naturalism, also called democracy/communism/Christianity, etc. Secular humanism, etc. is the noxious poison that introduces chaos into order. As a reaction to this perversity the development of opposition occurs, rises up from the grave of the artificial whited sepulchre of the chao and this is Nationalism, the restructuring from out of the ruins of a previous order an old yet new order.

Caste, hierarchy, competitive and solidarity are fostered and the previous divisiveness, lack of unity and internal strife, the lack of direction or purpose and identity are supplanted with a self-knowledge and understanding of both one's essence/identity and one's place in the system/hierarchy of society. Gnothe Seuton-know thyself- is the creed conferred upon the initiate of this Natural order which is available to all once one identifies his nature in relation to the chaos and its disharmonious resonance, he must through this violence done to his person, undergo a fundamental attunement in his Being that enables him to exist in harmonious resonance with Nature and all of the which structures itself under and through its aegis.

All beings structure themselves through their essence with that of God/Nature and this necessarily leads to Nationalism as the tribal ur-system of socio-politico-economic life whose vitality is not suppressed or subverted through the anti-natural internationalism of Jewish demagoguery working behind the mask of parliamentary democracy and equality dogma.

The mixing of kinds violates God/Nature's edict of 'kind after kind'; the deliberate stifling of the excellence of some through social planning/crippling is a violation of the edict of God/Nature regarding survival of the fittest and competition over resources and for social standing/ascendancy. Making the lowly lofty and thereby striking down the lofty is of course an antinatural perversity. This of course serves the purpose of the Jew who uses this ideological weaponry as a mechanism of destroying opposition to his power. Thus far it is natural. However, this violates the existence of all else which collapses thereby the entire natural order.

The protocol of thinning the numbers of these despots would well serve the survival of the diversity of species which constitute the natural order and which otherwise are subverted under the genocidal policies of the Jew's through their artificial antinatural religious philosophies (Christ-insanity and libtard-ism) which inevitably lead towards the extinction of all life through elimination of natural competition between groups thereby retarding evolution and leading to their own extermination. Hence Nature resets itself through the negation of the negation, through elimination of the unfit through their own unfitness and inability to attune themselves to the vibrational frequency of harmoniousness.

Internationalism-the politicization of Jewish consciousness-inevitably fragments into Nationalism and would only work in the sense of a Nationalism (based on Nature, eg. biology) extrapolating itself over the earth by those who resonate with the sum total and are thereby capable of sustaining the order "on earth as it is in heaven". Miscegenated Nationalism under the pressure cooker of internationalism fragments the Nation into micro-nations: china-town, little Italy, etc. which they struggle against one another for dominance.

'Diversity' in the sense of racial intermixture negates itself and far from being strengthening for a Nation simply weakens it through internal dissension. The melted pot loses all flavor when disparate and contradictory elements are melted together in a goulash of unappetizing and unnourishing mush. The offended cries of Nature to this forced and artificial amalgam manifest themselves in the inevitable race wars which erupt in multiracial societies thus fragmenting and destroying them as a society-ready for the takeover of foreign predatory powers such as with China and other southern nations today in taking over the society of Whites.

Inevitable decay is the prophecy of Nature and from the ruins the ascendancy of more fit species and identities if the Whites are incapable of maintaining order. Given the chaotic nature of the other races the whole of civilization would collapse without the aegis and guidance of white influence.

Neo-Colonialism

The constant carping and moralizing about the evils of colonialism by the self-abasing Christ-Insanity infected white masses and their antihero mud people who see in such slander and vilification a political weapon that would wrest power and resources from whites, shrink the latter's numbers while swelling their own in conquest and reconquista of lost territory, of territorial expansion into historically white lands has served well the reduction of white power in the world and proportional enhancement of that of their natural foes the mongol, negro and hybrid races.

In short the rhetoric of victimhood and its implicit vilification of the whites as 'colonial oppressors' has worked-but the more this drum cadence of 'racist, racist, racist' is beaten the less effect it has at plucking the heartstrings of the guilty conscious of Christianized and liberalized whites. Soon the scales will drop from the eyes of whites and they will perceive the objective situation that lies before them: a race war which is fought for territory and subjugation.

This will drive them towards the tribalism which will strengthen identity and throw off the shackles of the mind that Christianity and liberalism have forged- this will be the death knell of the universal mind poison that has served as a soporific, a weakening of the will not only to survive but to expand power.

Survival, when threatened, elicits a desperate reaction to subjugate that which threatens and this a manifestation of inherent biological drives. All whites who have a remnant of survival instinct and healthy mind will react to the encroaching threat and will then ensure their survival. At that point when the perversion of guilt, shame and self-abasement as pathologies have been torn out of the consciousness of whites then expansion will once again be a possibility. At this point territorial expansion will be undergone, a neo-colonialism will be embarked upon this to its logical conclusion of planetary dominion-the duration this will take of course will be a few hundred years perhaps but will eventually be attained and the current threats to white dominion will have progressively be abolished through subjugation and perhaps even extermination of whatever rivals have so foolishly decided to enter the ring and take the victory wreath themselves.

Given the nature of the different groups in the world , their relative histories and development, it is clear when the lion's share of value lies and who has the creative genius necessary to create a sustainable world order. As example of inevitable failures we can see the Chinese who have mass-murdered millions of their own kind the remnant of which have been put into factories as virtual slaves and who have polluted their own living space irreparably save for hundreds of years perhaps of the absence of all industrial production. The Arabs, perpetually in conflict among themselves are a mere powder keg that seeks ignition through any source and by any means and whose mind or collective consciousness has been embodied in a religion of violence fitting their constitution. The Jews being the hybrid deviants they are have never had a sustained society in their history that had not been taken from the more creative and orderly white race and which civilization eventually fell to ruins thorough internal dissension, a true testament of the honor(or lack thereof) among thieves- a temple to the Jewish spirit of destructive chaos.

Once the whites throw the Jew off their back the way will have been cleared of obstacles and progress can be attained. Mental infection is the most serious threat and the Jew in the head is many times worse than the Jew in the counting house or parliament as they have only been permitted entry through the delusions of white tolerance and universalist values.

The emancipation of the Jews has been the opening of a Pandora's box which has unleashed the pestilential influence of Jewry from the political apparatus, eg. the supreme court and legislature to the professions(lawyers and doctors) to the carpet baggers and denizens of the underworld which pervades the total hierarchy and spreads its poisonous infection into the white world through freemasonry and Bolshevism, weakening the resolve of white survival through creating a fragmented and solipsistic society of decadence and self-absorption. This navigational chart drafted by Jewry must be identified as charting a false course and a proper territorial map of the present situation drawn up leading to the manifest destiny of the white race finally procuring for itself dominion over the earth.

Neo-colonialism through the mass of liberalized/Christianized/Universalized unity would undoubtedly condemn the notion is the necessity of this world-whether it be white, yellow or brown. Someone will rule the world and the most prudent stance to take is that of loyalty, the most prudent position and firmest foundation upon which to stand is that of one's own genetic stock. When the world situation decrees an either-or of survival through fighting and conquest or death through compromise and concessions only the suicidal would choose the latter course. Given a sufficiently rational mind the world situation makes the choice for one: either loyalty to one's own kind-or death. The irrational may convince themselves of the possibility of a cowardly and craven survival through subordination of oneself to rivals but the rational man understands the absolutism of his choice: either life through loyalty or death through selfish debasement before opposing forces. This is not only the mentality of a healthy mind but the decree of nature and its imperative: either for that of which nature has made you a part of become subjugated and ultimately exterminated. There is no real choice for healthy types.

The Natural Imperative

As Ben Klassen spoke of in "Nature's Eternal Religion" and "The White Man's Bible" it is the inherent biological drive of different types that goads them on to expend their own kind if need be at the expense of others without regret, remorse or contrition and rather with joyous abandon at the prospect of power and possession of all forms of wealth be they inanimate(gold, jewels, land) or animate(slave and women).

This has always been and will always be the trajectory of human evolution, namely survival and expansion; in order to expand the group must survive in order for the group to survive the members must survive; the members survive through maintenance of their structures through strengthening the body mind and will and from thence developing themselves in more suitable stock to advance their own kind. In order for the members to retain membership and thence to survive their loyalty must be allocated towards their own kin group.

Failing that they meet with ostracism and are cast out of the group thereby bringing about their own destruction. Thus the tribalistic nature of humanity-if such it may be called-ensues its evolution through a process of going within-without, of achieving integrity of the unity and this through strengthening the elements of which it is comprised and thence expanding itself outwards and assimilating that which exists outside itself as 'other' or 'not-I', in the form of territorial expansion and inter-breeding with subjugated peoples forming caste systems and amalgams of former rivals.

This expansive process might be termed 'colonialism', the colonization of Other peoples and territory and is the right of the strong through whom Nature works to ensure the integrity and everexpanding evolution of itself through itself, culling the defective and thereby accelerating its own integrity just as the individual tribes ensure theirs through eliminating defects and individuals themselves through healing crises and antibodies. When a cycle of decline is entered the strong('mighty')are weakened ('brought low') and the more coarse animal type with all its animal vigour is raised up to inherit the earth. Thus the cycle continues along the path of evolution.

Practically and politically an awareness of the conditions of the age may well equip one to 'ride the tiger' or surf along the tidal wave of catastrophe thereby enhancing the probability of survival. To live in a state of dulled consciousness at this time is a recipe for inevitable extinction both of one's tribe and of oneself as an individual and with which tribe he is bound. The survival of the fittest means to perceive the conditions of the present and anticipate the future on that basis and to adapt to the changes in the most appropriate way knowing one's self, the world and the friends and enemies which constitute its seething multitude. 'Preparedness is the key' (Sun Tzu) and adaptability the technical skill of its turning. Only then can the doors to the kingdom of heaven on earth be opened.

Overcoming The Personality

Sense experience imparts to the mind the artificial reality in the mundane world that serves as the be all and the end all of those who haven't attained an awareness of being, the dimension of the higher self, eternity from which the personality is cut off and blinded by the veil of maya that is the experiential manifold of sense data, of sensations via the coarser sense which bring down the overall level of awareness to this dimension so to speak of materiality. This perhaps is the plane of the ego and it is only through the ego that the self can attain transcendence from it while situating itself still within it as a springboard from which it may go beyond those more primitive states.

The individuality is thereby attained as a continual process and development and self-positing, this gradually unfolding of the higher ego or of manas is the blooming of the flower of consciousness whose delicate petals are yet made of adamant. This is the building of the soul beyond the personality. The most arduous circumstances and tests of will power can make their contribution to this development via the impression as a die on the waxen tabula rasa of the Self, stamped with the impression of the Eternal. The illusory and temporal or transient, the fleeting states of the heraclitean flux of becoming wash over the Individuality as a tide of sense leaving no lasting impressions but as this tide receives undue focus becoming the Being of Being eroding its potentialities if not it itself through shifting the focus/attention towards the kaleidoscope of sensationalism from the crystalline rigidity of Eternity of the divine of being towards this elysium in its living presence or refulgent glory. Spiritualization of the material through vama marg left hand path rites of passage serves to steer the humble bark through these tempestuous waters: concentration, meditation, contemplation all part of the godlike self-creation of the higher self as it weaves the aetheric fabric that constitutes its noble form.

The tantra and mantra working up the kundalini serpent from the lower regions of consciousness at the base of the shusumna, the cauda aquina and the spinal canal, applying vril/chia/od to attain Wotan consciousness which could be spoken of as being. Thorir/Donar is the force in effect which is its recognition of itself as blind striving and force carries through as a pure process without intention simply the manifestation of that latent energy actuated by Loki, becoming, the intention that is posited as not the goal but the positing of the goal, the arrow in flight whose target is Being, Wotan Allfather, god consciousness whose attainment would perhaps simply amplify the process yet further in the development of the soul to the status of a planetary deity or some superabundant star beyond the power of its current crystallized manifestation of the personality. rather than simply a blooming flower of adamant it is the archetype of the seed, the source of all kindred flowers, aspects and hypostates of the Individuality, which attains Being amidst becoming and continues along its evolutionary path.

Population Devastation

Yet another symptom of societal decay brought by the anti-natural value system of liberal humanism and its bigoted and irrational proponents: the endless progenation of the brown mass from the turd world. Neglecting in their corrupt lack of common sense and paucity of common sense reasoning that "the more you feed them the more you breed them" ordine geometrico(-logarithmically-); neglecting this simple fact they the moralizing moral majority precipitate a population bomb though it threatens to explode all over their lily-white picket fenced world they keep stoking the fire bringing about the armageddon of their liberal dumb-ox-cratic faux reality with an explosion of diarrhea that is the en masse immigration of the turd world into the former first world.

This is what happens when you place the last first and the first last. Hence the decadent excess of a spoiled population pampered by hard(er) working forbears brings about a deficiency both of material resources(food; clean environment, etc.) and of intellectual as the latter are woefully deficient in the darker racess who fail to manifest the 'sun of mind', to radiate a true enlightenment as biologically incompatible with their inner being.

The simple correlation between cause(dark races) and effect( human devolution; racial intermixture; cultural and environmental decay, etc.) is willfully overlooked by the spoiled hypocrits of the bourgeois liberals and their affiliated derivatives(marxists, etc.) blinded as they are by the scales of injustice that sit weightily on their purblind eyes.

Soon they will fall and be forced to take cognizance of thier own impending execution either at the hands of their 'pets' or more likely at that of their betters the 'remnant' of rational whites who refuse to live amidst poverty and inevitable cultural extinction and who even give a willingness to perpetuate their ignorance of the biological realities and consequences of racial identity will have no choice given their complete lack of options, the hard 'either-or' of 'face the enemy or face death'- and recognize the inevitable condition of survival embodied in the words 'all life is struggle'.

Worse is better at this point as it devastates the established order and wins hearts and minds of those (previously) feint of heart and feeble minded who sought shelter and security in a nanny-state that, though its own overwheening vices sought to adopt 'chillins' who 'acted up' beyond the pale of tolerance, that oft-touted 'virtue' of liberaism and, inextricably bound up therewith, serves as a cable tow tolerance of everything and anyone but intolerance and the intolerant.

Tolerance can no longer be tolerated when enemies are at the gates and tolerance of the enemy leads to assited suicide. Backed into a corner even the most infirm animal willll defend itself, otherwise perish as nature is an intolerant task-master and suffers no fools to live especially those tainted with the mind parasite of universalism whether it manifest itself in the form of Christianity or liberal humanism or a new age 'oneness'- if the goal of the proselyte is 'union' with the sum total through suicide then , like the Christian martyrs of old they will be consigned to the flames and be of forgotten memory remembered perhaps as a testament to psychical sickness indoctrinated in naive and impressionable sheeple as well as cynical wolves(-or perhaps dogs?-) that must serve as a warning to all inevitably will continue to heap up creating the Ragnarok that will lead to a new world, Whiter and brighter through the flames of the Rahowa the phoenix will ascend

Sperm Donor

Eugenics and Dysgenics both issue forth from the fount of the generative principle- a tool of the creation of posterity for good or ill for better or worse. Posterity is blessed or cursed by the well-spring from which it flows, whether it be a sewer or a mountain spring it will develop along the lines of least resistance and depending on its progenitor it will become a creation cast in its image a sinner or a saint a god or a devil in proportion to the genetical influence disseminated across the generations. Hence the social planners if eugenicists will establish sperm banks with highly refined criteria serving to screen out the genetic pollutant in the social organism and enabling only the more robust and stable elements to filter through their scientifically sophisticated membranes.

The social engineers of today however are governed by an evil star and bent upon the destruction of the human stock from highest to lowest relentlessly striking at the tree of the generations with well-sharpened dysgenic axes and saws. Hence whatever sperm banks-those repositories of future success or failure- have been established for public welfare conduce rather to the downgrading of the human stock.

In potentia these incubators of posterity would be genetic gold mines but have been converted in actua into whited sepulchres, powder kegs of destruction. As a neutral fact they would be a great contribution to the betterment of human stock, a bridge (however slender) to the superman. With sufficiently refined criteria they would present women or institutions with a stock of highly specialized genetic material.

Acceptance of only high quality donors who are subjected to rigid screening processes and criteria would ensure an up-breeding of humanity and facilitate the weeding out of the undesirables. Those 'power men' at the highest levels of society could contribute to the human gene pool more of their stock than they would otherwise have under a regime of monogamy as in the present day. Ideally polygamy would also be instituted further augmenting the upbreeding of the better and again weeding out the unfit.

No threat of legal liability would burden the 'power men' who would be free to contract through the medium of the sperm bank with willing parties of the female persuasion to develop and bear the fruits of their contract without hindering either of the parties as it would be based on agreement and not coercive checks and balances such as prenuptial agreements and divorce proceedings.

This would be liberalism in its positive form wherein good results emanate from private or public institutions that ensure the will of the clients is given their intended expression through the creation of better racial stock. Criteria would ideally be based along racial lines restricted to only the better types and preventing any genetic incompatibilities. Rigorous testing in terms of intelligence, health and physical tests would also be mandatory.

Vigilantism

When the law becomes unjust the just man disobeys as it is no longer binding on his will. Increasing Draconianism in society engenders increased criminality and when everything is a crime everyone is a criminal. Hence the greater the obligations and restrictions of the scope of natural liberty the more the law will be disregarded as the more popular crime becomes the more acceptable it will be amongst the majority who, in spite of endless mind control, express their will in seditious behavior as a natural release of repressed drives.

This is the reason why bread and circuses are perpetually dispersed amongst the masses as a soporific of inner angst and latent aggression, a red-herring dragged across their path to distract from the cogitations they might have regarding the problems imposed upon them: 1) their identification as a problem; 2) the impositions an externally imposed curtailment of liberty; 3) by whom; 4) the solutions and 5) that they must be the ones to solve these problems.

In spite of all mind control and societal distractions from the ultimate cause of the problems eventually the oppressed masses become sufficiently deprived and impoverished to realize that there is nothing left they can have in terms of liberty and freedom from external authority and thus having nothing more to lose they are then liberated from their previous dependancies on luxury and indolence and so "take it to the streets" in vigilantism; taking the authority to dispense what they believe is just into their own hands subverting the external authority's tyranny or their own lives at that point rendered meaningless.

Vigilantism is the standing ground over their own person's and property (which may include persons such as women and slaves and children) in violation of the will of an external authority who, through greater might/power has established itself as the master of the citizen who thereby is demoted to slave status.

Vigilantism is the assertion of self-mastery and explicitly articulated or no articulated by deed of a willingness to give battle to the master. A slave rebellion de jure but de facto a contention of parties for Mastery over persons and property. The balance of forces is ever attempted to be shifted in the contender's favor through guile or overt acts of brutality.

A vigilante is he who, ala Robin hood, stands outside of the system which attempts to circumscribe his being and existence yet relates to the system as an aggressor who disregards the claims to authority of the Other but not necessarily the power wielded by the system if he is to be effective in his purposes of manifesting his will and destiny and establishing himself as a new authority before whom the persons under the charge of the system must prostrate themselves even if he himself prostrates himself in self-sacrifice before them in his combat with the system. Taking the law into one's own hands is an aggressive assertion of [self]mastery that strives to undercut the mastery of Leviathan. RAHOWA---Racial Holy War!

Higher Vibrational Being

The lighter races(in proportion to their lightness) radiate their divine spark that they are to a higher degree of both extension(in space) and intensity. Their light body not only burns brighter but longer and further than that of the comparatively lower vibrational, cthonic entities who call themselves the dark races.

The joi de vivre, the altruism and bestowing virtue of such are quite clearly markers of this quality of both-extension and intensity-the radiance altruistically leaps over the fence of 'I' and 'Thou' and confers on the latter its intensity thereby ennobling unjustly the relatively inert mass of brown/black/red being. Behavior is always bound up with the inner life of the being and is a signal of the latter as the existence is of the essence and is the latter's modus vivendi, its way of manifestation.

The playful and one might even say loving nature of the lighter races implicates them as a nobler type and underscores the nature of their resonance and so to speak internal motor force. The benevolence of the lighter races in spite at times of their more quick and intense projection into the social space, is seen in their creation over the entire terrestrial globe of a monolithic civilization that has served as the cornucopia for all the darker races. And what does this kindly regard bestow in recompense? Hostility, derision, hate and all manner of negative bias that appears in the form of physical, mental, social violence of the hand that feeds them.

Truly the hubris of the white man has gotten him entangled in relations best severed even if need be by the sword for the game of friendship towards an enemy is not worth the candle and must be allowed to gutter out for the sake of providing light for those not able to receive its refulgence. Let the blind lead the blind in darkness and keep the lamp burning in the house of Adam for only he(the white man) is capable of appreciating its glow and embodying it within himself as the keeper of the flame. Should he falter in his noble mission the extinction of its light would shroud all in darkness. Thus, this being the world situation faced at present, eg. a harsh 'eitheror', one must be especially heedful that the good prevail: the either of light or-darkness and a new dark age from out of which no extrication may be had save by divine intervention from without.

The remnant of Lucifer's seed must grasp the torch and take it to the top of the mountain raining forth upon the earth its splendour which, undoubtedly, will raise shrill cries of pain and much gnashing of teeth from the darkling hordes of the untermenschen. A White World At present in the wolf age we contend with forces of darkness who would create a perpetual dark age.

Truly they are spawn of the bottomless pit, as black as that region from whence they came. Into the light of day which burns their eyes and which they shun go they, incited by the material wealth the white man has, in his fallen state perhaps wrongly constructed much to his detriment as a ball and chain of materiality that weighs him to the earth. the dark hordes(we shall henceforth call them 'Morder'- and their name is legion) leave their state of inertia upon witnessing the beguiling spectacle of the baubels of the white man's fashioning. In his boundless creation, in his fallen state, his hubris carried him away from the strait and narrow path of living in accordance with nature and towards the expanse of the material world and its temptation-out of paradise into perdition.

Still a redemption hovers in the distance and that is Krist-the super-consciousness that the white knight must gird himself with in order to rectify the collapsed burnt out ediface of divine creation. Thus the white man must resurrect himself from the ashes of his own Promethean fire and reconstruct the world in his own image- an architecture that will only be lasting if he does his True will and attunes the higher with the lower. Only then can paradise be reclaimed. Excesses of material concern have all but sickened the white man and thus he must adopt a path towards Nature and live with it in a state of harmony.

On the Necessity of Racial Loyalty Without allegiance to the tribe it is as good as if one has died; for "what I am I am through you and what you are you are through me" and "your people is everything-you are nothing"(Hitler)-at least in isolation to your tribal group.

Necessary Condition Of Existence

Allegiance to tribal group, that which serves as a biological 'entelechy' in Aristotelian terms, ie. that which stays the same through time, ie. Race. For a race to be a race it must orient itself around itself; all members ,must preserve this spiritual loyalty manifesting itself in concrete form through their actions and omissions. Magnetically as animal magnetism in an etheric form the tribal members circumambulate the totem of their identity, the insignia of their preservation: rally to the flag around which those who will continue their kind congregate.

To immerse oneself in the tribal group is to qualify oneself as a member thereof; to eschew this obligatory rite of passage is to cut the lifeline of ancestry rendering barren posterity; snipping the DNA strands which have become unbound through unconsciousness of identity and the necessity of keeping in one's mind's eye the image of the struggle that represents the chain of lineage stretching back to the tenebrous mists of the past. To fail in this, the attachment to the larger collective, is to become a rootless drifter without a home—no blood, no soil. But also: no soil, no blood.

At least as a basis for the continuance at a basic level. Land is a necessity, even though a tribal group should be populating the entire world, inevitable corruption results of the gene pool and of the giant scope of land mass and finite scope of the tribal members. At present at least a homeland is necessary though in some possible (one would hope potential) world the entire world could be the territory of the tribe.

At least this is the hope which dwells in the heart of hearts of all tribal groups, is rooted in the biologically 'tribe' or 'will zur macht' of all ethnicities. All of those who have not been corrupted or who are not corruptible either through themselves or through others harbours this instinct in their soul.

Unfortunately the better type lacks this sense of self when its boundless universalist consciousness and over-concern for objectivity (i.e. truth) subverts its own healthy instincts out of regard for justice and truth themselves will be sacrificed as no other more primitive group concerns itself with these totemic idols—however right such a concern may be—but simply eschews them as taboos that minimize and inhibit their own tribal matters and worse, once no out-group or common enemy exists, only their own ego; what results is a bellum omnium contra omnes, a descent to justifiably so-called savagery as with all so-called 'indigenous people's' prior to the arrival of those bearers of civilization, the White Race.

With no racial loyalty existent amongst the whites a new dark age (both literally and figuratively) will descend as a storm cloud blackening the sun. The rays of white creativity and culture will be blotted out and the remaining fauna will languish in chaos for eternity until the next manvantara, the wheel of Ixion grinding out the slow development of the soul over the aeons. The 'new hope' for the dawn of a 'new day' and not the false light, emanates from the racial soul of the white man as a collective amidst the evil tide amongst them.

Mein Kampf

We are immersed in a struggle and yet one whose proportions are nebulous and ill-defined. Engulfed in this penumbra of gray mist, murky shadow realm, we seek to grab hold of the indistinct form of an arch enemy that manifests itself via the subtler planes through the ether of our entropic consciousness. The presence seems to absorb within itself the reality that enables an orientation in this what we might call 'out of time-space' zeitgeist, aeon, etc. We box at shadows projected from the depths.

Seemingly of our inner being yet they are independent merely moving through us, obsessing us with their presence attempting to puppet our will through occult influence, controlling us through invisible wires that rather than enliven and electrify, drain of vitality and bioelectricity, rendering the life force a death force whose inversion saps us of our awareness and our being.

Thus we struggle against these shadowy figures so that we know not if we struggle at all. The ill-defined enemy manifests in and out like a flickering dark energetic being an anti-lightbulb a dark bulb of negative reality and thus we attempt to understand our actions in an absurd way – positively – when we must stand above them negatively – to be receptive to them as a self-organizing system an entelechy machine that neither projects itself nor is receptive but simply endures. The enemy attempts to draw us out with feints but also darts towards us – a quickening boxer weaving and bobbing around us in fast-forward and rewind motion darting pin pricks of pain and drain into our being, chipping away ending our identity through the kali aeon. Hypervigilance is the only way to anticipate the blows. This is the only recipe for the salvation of the soul from the eater of millions.

All Life Is Struggle

WHY
AM

WHY I AM A WHITE SUPREMACIST

The writer, having grown tired of the perpetual whining and assaultive nature of the jewish media and akadumbia against the very existence of white people, attempting to call it into question and even deny that it exists whilst schizophrenically affirming that White Supremacism is the only problem existent in the world; the author has decided rather than to throw in the towel and allow himself to be mongrelized out of existence and voluntarily support his own destruction like a hypocrite who lives to accumulate money and statues under the guise of humanity, love and peace, would much rather affirm his existence and embrace the labels that are projected upon him by the jewish supremacist anti-white system.

If they wish us to be supremacists-let us be supremacists! If they wish to call us haters because they hate us then that is just fine! We will be haters! We will be anti-semites! Such is the desire of the slanderous jew and his coterie of henchmen who serve as his bought and paid for sword and shield behind which he conceals his evil, genocidal intent.

Thus, being White Supremacist as we are vilified, let us convert this term into that of virtue and expose the lie that it is the embodiment of vice. Let us reveal the light of truth to the broad masses-that we may all be White Supremacists and will thereby defeat the jewish supremacist tyranny as a collective of White Supremacists, even those bipedal-biological entities who are not White-they too may be White Supremacists! Towards White World Supremacy!

In the following the writer intends to expound upon this concept, how it is defined by the jewish cabal and how he himself chooses to define it, giving it a more intelligible meaning than that which is designed to elicit a pure knee jerk reaction amongst the less rational and intelligent of the goyim of the jews.

White Supremacy-quod? What is it? How defined according to the jew world order? Without having a willingness to synthesize stipulative definitions manufactured by jews in their typical sources publicly available and under their control the writer may assume that it would be defined along the following lines: "the belief that the/an alleged ethnic group called 'white' is better than all of those other ethnicities on earth and that they deserve by virtue of that superiority to rule over others as slaves and colonize the earth". Such a definition seems neither too restrictive nor too broad and sufficiently precise to encapsulate the general slander that jews project upon Whites constructing all of those Whites who advocate for their own interests as per the above definition a 'slaver' and a 'colonialist'.

The writer must indeed agree wholeheartedly with the definition on all points save three, namely: 1) that such supremacy as above defined is not a 'belief' but a fact; 2) that the claims that Whites are non-existent and merely a 'concept' is false and 3) that the claim that there are other ethnicities on earth, those who could be spoken of as the same species of Whites is false, such that White Supremacist within the context of the above definition do not wish to enslave or colonizing the countries or areas of other ethnicities as there is no such thing as another ethnicity or race which would mean a subspecies of the White species.

The White supremacist according to the writer's description thereof defines that which is 'White' as a distinct bipedal-biospiritual vertebrate being, separate from all others such that it is a distinct species according to mainstream bioanthropological definition possessing sufficient features or attributes that qualify as such, as a distinct species and thus it admits of no subspecies that possess features that differ organically from its own kind and are not a result of mixture with non-whites.

Thus it is fair to say that White Supremacy is not 'racist' in a contemporary sense of that emotive term but rather 'species-ist' or some other variant of this slanderous label label the jews are perpetually projecting on Whites.

The writer affirms that yes! The White species is indeed superior as the definition outlines above and that this is no opinion but fact! They are superior as regards their higher level intuition, reason and creative capacity, their 'mind' taken in an esoteric sense not merely as an epiphenomenon of the brain or its physiological function (chemical secretions; neural networks,etc.) but beyond this in terms of what might be called spiritual anatomy and physiology the structure and function of higher forms of consciousness particular or specific to the White Race as higher vibrational frequency structures quantumly entangled with the anatomy and physiology of the White biospiritual entity called 'human' (hue-man meaning spiritman or man with hue).

The definition of White Supremacy as outlined above entails the claim that those so described wish to rule over non-whites as slaves. This statement before being affirmed or denied by the writer must be qualified so that the emotive term of 'slavery' is itself defined by the writer and thereby amplified and refined in its meaning such that the dross of emotionalism and false historical associations are cast aside and the remaining product rendered conceptually pure and unalloyed.

To be a 'slave' means that one is rendered willess and impotent by another who is one's 'master' such that he is determined in his actions from without and not within, having no independent mind and thus no ability to be who he is rendered a de facto automaton, a puppet on strings held in the hand of his slaver. The writer wishes no such fate upon nonwhites nor, so far as he understands, has any White historically who employed what is now known as slavery.

The book "White Supremacy and Negro Subordination" by Jan van Evrie written during the 1800s when slavery became an issue under the subversive influence of jews who were attempting to undermine the economy of the Southern States in the USA outlines general principles of White Supremacy so far as the writer has heard though he has never read the book. The title itself encapsulates the idea nicely-'subgenation'-that is to say the subordination of non-whites is necessary for Whites to cultivate and develop to the highest height a global dominion of cultural and eugenic excellence. However, neither does he begrudge nonwhites a place though such place would have to be as above in the books title , namely that of 'subgenation' with Whites determining the terms of relations with nonwhites, such that an overall state of harmony may exist between all species or 'kinds' of beings. This he affirms to be the only solution to a harmonious world and the establishment of what can properly be spoken of as 'peace'-only under the aegis of the White Man.

Thus as per the above definition the writer condemns slavery as contrary to the will of God. However he also denies that his White ancestors or any other Whites have involved themselves in such practice and that the claims of the jewish media and akadumbic system that this occurred are false and largely a distortion save when they apply to jews who have trafficked in slaves throughout their entire history and who advocate slavery in both the Torah and Talmud ("suck the milk of the gentiles", "when the messiah comes every jew will have 2800 slaves"; "Ham was born for slavery"-see professor Tony Martin's presentations on 'Ham', the nigger, in the Talmud).

Most of the photographs of, for example, niggers treated with violence, etc. are those depicting the conditions in which they were kept and punished by their jewish masters (see the book "The Secret Relationship Between Blacks and Jews", by Louis Farakhan, et.al). which proves statistically all slave ships were owned and operated by jews such as the Portugese Monsanto family.

The writer supports subgenation which, according to his construal of the term means merely a subordination of non-whites in terms of power and influence in the world not a subordination of the mind and culture thereof or, as in the case of jewish christianity an annihilation thereof and the enslavement of whatever nonwhites are sufficiently weak to bow before the fictional jewish man god jewsus and not willing to die opposing it in defense of their territory and kind. Hence he is no advocate of slavery and would strike from his definition of 'White Supremacist' that clause which relates to slavery if so defined. If defined in the manner of subgenation according to his construal he would accept it.

The clause of the definition related to global dominion "colonization of the earth" he would wholeheartedly embrace within the parameters of subgenation. He would elaborate upon it and state plainly that any non-white group who would seek to or actually achieve sufficient power to threaten the dominion of the White Race must be met with reasonable means of subjugation of that threat be it in the form of sanctions, embargo or utter annihilation (by all means necessary). Thus and only thus may the non-whites, governed as they are by lower egoic consciousness, be limited in their willingness to upset the harmony of existence to exceed their natural spiritual limitations and visit chaos upon the earth (the sheer volume of environmental pollution in China and India as well as their subtle strategies to invade and colonize White created countries currently serve as stark examples of that chaos).

Though undoubtedly nonwhites would find it disagreeable as least initially to have the White Man standing over them as a de facto global disciplinarian it would certainly be in their long term interests and would be infinitely preferable to a global melted pot of mongrelized genetic waste product that is the Kalergi plan (equality under the jew. See Richard Coudenhove von Kalergi's "Practical Idealism"). Thus global dominion by Whites, properly called "White Supremacy" is the only desirable course anything deviating therefrom is undersirable as conducive to an inharmonious state of existence.

Many would call into question the Truth of the claim that Whites are supreme on the basis of the fact that so many Whites are largely of a degenerate and corrupt nature largely owing to the J.O.G (jewish occupation government) system influence. Thus they would point out those Whites who have been ground beneath the wheel of the system being in some respects tangibly inferior than some nonwhites who have been gifted with every advantage by the system to serve as replacements of the more rebellious, creative and intelligent Whites.

So the non-white is given the best fare and indoctrination (entailing a memorization and regurgitation of dogma) and given all of the economic and occupational advantages requisite to shine his false light in the firmament of J.O.G. And thus those Whites who have had the worst of everything and been shunted aside by the system are vilified and castrated as inferiors, subhumans when in reality they are the humans (the men with 'hue' or light, Spirit) however degraded they may have become under the malgenic nature of the System. Thus the argument or slanderous claim that Whites aren't biospiritually superior falls flat given that the criteria of superiority the system extolls are merely of a lower octave of consciousness: intellect and cunning, material possessions and an arrogant conceited disposition the exact antithesis of real virtue which acknowledges that which is beyond itself and that there is a beyond and in doing so exceeds itself and evolves to higher states of consciousness as opposed to, like the non-whites, being immersed in the lower ego, a modality of consciousness hardly elevated over that of the brute(fight; flight; fornicate; feed).

Thus it requires only a little experience to understand the obvious superiority the White Race has in relation to those completely 'Other' to themselves, the beastfolk.

Further proof if needed beyond mere experience of the supremacy of Whites in the sense of superiority of qualities and attributes would entail their superlative faculty and its higher intuition and reason enabling greater creative capacity at a higher level of consciousness and attuning oneself to God. The veritable cornucopia of cultural wonders, emanations of the White Mind, testify to this fact, that of a concretization of the Divine in plastic (architecture and sculpture), graphic (painting and illustration); sonic (music) and logical (philosophy and literature) form as it were invoking the Gods who crystallize into these particular forms as particularizations of the Absolute, the Great seen in the small.

Thus biospiritually the White Race has a greater capacity for self-transcendence, or overcoming of the lower ego and a communion with the Divine. This greater capacity is a greater conscious awareness which manifests itself in a manner that might be called justly, ie. harmoniously.

Thus justice goes hand in hand with Truth, the latter being a recognition based upon a higher consciousness of God and an understanding of right relations between distinct beings, preserving them and thereby preserving Universal Order, 'serving' 'God' or paying homage thereto through attuning himself to Deity.

The non-white and especially the jew can understand God but dimly as it were through a glass darkly, and the jew who understand the nature of things better than the non-white and who yet violates Universal Order in a consciously evil manner and who is thus evil by nature and is thus, insofar as Godliness or acting according to the Will of God is concerned, a sinner or a sin himself incapable by his nature/essence of any change in this definition. Insofar as a jew is a jew he is evil and so inferior in terms of righteousness. For the jew to rule the whole world would be a reflection of his inner chaos as is the case today.

Yet more proof of the innate superiority of the White man: the entirety of civilization which is an emanation of his mind. Though the jewish media has distorted historical fact and concealed much in the way of archaeological evidence it is nonetheless the case that all ancient civilizations, all groupings of bipedal beings and their architecture and culture worthy of the name were derived from Whites in their origins and degraded and were overrun through the invasion of nonwhites, savage beastfolk and/or an intermixture therewith leading to the destruction of civilization.

Consultation of proper sources, specifically those preexisting the second world war confirm this fact in architecture; numismatics; cuneiform tablets; bas reliefs; textual documents(scrolls and papyri); wall painting,etc. All were originally of White Stock and all ancient records and culture myths refer to an origin in the arctic called Hyperborea, Airyana Vaego, Thule and Atlantis.

Politically the White Race manifests their higher consciousness in the form of an organized system that accords with God at least when they are of pure stock and living in an environment properly suited to themselves , their minds cleared of any ideological confusion. Hence today, the political systems which exist are degraded, heavily influenced by jewish subversiveness and the deterioration of castes as spoken of in Julius Evola's "Revolt Against the Modern World". Given that the White Race is of a superlatively developed consciousness and can attune itself to God and thereby possesses greater empathy for that which is 'Other' to itself it follows that the political system, a system of governance controlled and created by Whites-a White Supremacist system- ensures the preservation of those right relations and the preservation of civilization.

There is a necessity to establish a global Order in order to achieve an 'equilibrium amongst the races' with Whites superintending. Those who may bear the crown of the Order are exclusively White as only they can know God best and those who are not white may, if it harmonious, play a role in the context of subgenation and White Supremacy. If it is harmonious.

Aryan Supremacism: an addendum:

The writer is a White Supremacist yes. But the writer is also an Aryan Supremacist and this supercedes the former. Simply being White of course is not enough to qualify one as a superior being though, ceteris paribus, all Whites will supercede all non-whites in terms of creative ability and superior mentation, all things being equal meaning having the same material conditions that enable them to succeed and to manifest their proper destiny unlike in this sick world of magian egalitarianism which fanatically obsesses over attempting to crush whites under the boot heel of Leviathan. If equality in all things (material conditions) obtaining the equality of the so-called 'human races' would quickly be seen to be little more than a myth as Whites would naturally rise through their creative aspiration and achieve a standard far beyond that of those who have been artificially elevated above them simply because they are not white and/or attend the ever darkening Whited sepulchres called churches to grovel before the jews.

Thus it must be admitted that most Whites at this time are defective in many ways but that is largely owing to the evil influence upon their society by the cabal and their christian and liberal puppets who have deliberately subverted what was once a society of a harmonious and beautiful kind kind and had been progressively eroded since the creation of christianity and its destruction of Rome leading to the erosion of White culture and its profundity and spiritual gnosis, what could properly be spoken of as Aryan.

In spite of their defective nature Whites still retain their redeemable qualities encoded in their genes and, under the appropriate conditions may once again rise to their former height of spiritual cultural glory.

Thus, though the writer is a White supremacist he understands that the White Race at this time have been subject to a genocidal decay of their minds, bodies and souls though the insidious technologies of the Cabal who are perpetuating a multi-prong assault on White people and thus they could hardly be entirely blamed for what is being done to them from behind the scenes given that they were born into a state of ignorance of what came before.

The White Race is Supreme as a genetic stock but their is more to life than mere genetics and physical reality and thus the White Race as a receptacle of genetic material is merely a bridge to the Aryan which is a superlative development out of the White genetic stock and no nonwhite could ever by Aryan. To be an Aryan Supremacist is to be a White Supremacist as a necessary antecedent condition of the existence of the Aryan. The Aryan is the Superman spoken of by Nietzsche, he who has attained a superlative spiritual development, has attained an immortality of the soul through appropriate spiritual exercises.

Christianity has been installed as a mind control program of jewish witchcraft to prevent the evolution of the White Race to attain the status of an Aryan and to destroy the seeds of the Aryan on an physical basis so that they may enshroud the world in darkness for however long their tyranny would last. In order for the Aryan to create a beautiful world of spiritual harmony and go beyond the mere mundane world towards other realms and regions he must sever the chains of the equality cult (liberal communism and christ-insanity) the jew has affixed to his mind and overthrow the jew. That the Aryan may hold sway over the earth and bathe it in his radiant spiritual light:

ardua ad astra.
